Expect Village OK For Modernization

The Editor's Column

Stuart R. Paddock is again absent from his usual corner this week, still recuperating in the hospital. Flowers sent by Mrs. Charles Klehm plus the bouquet from the men of Arlington Heights "Breakfast Club" are a big help in speeding his recovery.

This week's Fence Post column includes a letter from "A Concerned Reader-Resident" who wants to know about "this ridiculous fussin' and fumin'" over the hiring of a new police chief for the village.

The letter writer feels that circulating petitions in behalf of a local candidate for the chief's job is an attempt to inject politics into the selection.

It's quite true that there is a vigorous campaign under way to promote a local applicant for the position. Petitions are being handed around: even the wife of a village trustee was asked to sign one.

That the petitions are an attempt to exert influence is self-evident. That's what petitions are for, and dozens of them are brought into the village hall every year.

Petitions are all right in instances when the zoning board or the village trustees need to know neighborhood opinion.

But we feel that in this case the pressure campaign is unwise. The local petitions lend an aura of politics and are a dis-service both to the candidate involved and the community.

The sole and entire responsibility for picking the new chief of police rests with the village manager. He formally took over the task from elected officials with the adoption of the village manager-by-statute law in October, 1956.

Village residents had previously voted by a lopsided margin to adopt this type of village manager government. Thus, trustees were only following the wishes of a majority of citizens when they bestowed this responsibility upon the manager.

When Chief Skoog announced his resignation, elected officials to a man directed the present manager to consider only merit and qualification of applicants in picking a new chief.

The mayor at that time said he and his 6 trustees will not exert pressure aimed at putting any specific candidate into the police chief's office.

The elected officials firmly stand for appointment based upon merit. Citizens should follow their example.

A village trustee, member of the police committee, this week listed the most important qualifications to be sought in a new chief. We feel they are worth repeating and remembering, for they are the main considerations that determine the choice.

This is what Trustee Robert H. Bukowski had to say:

—the new police chief must be qualified to handle present problems of traffic enforcement and control as well as future problems in juvenile delinquency, for we have the earmarks of real problems to come.

—preferably, this is a man with experience in a good police department in a city of perhaps 30,000 to 40,000 population since Arlington Heights will be in that class before very long.

—the new chief should be able to handle a wide range of criminal activity and know how to organize and administer a high-level police department.

—he should be able to "shape up" the department as a "team" with spirit, morale and pride in the department and in its officers.

—the chief should be a man of unquestioned integrity. He should possess "inspiration." He must like his work, be dedicated to it, and—in short—possess professional attitudes.

WANT TO BUY A COW? One of the last half-dozen dairy herds in Elk Grove township will be sold starting at noon today to the highest bidders. Sellers are William Rohlwing (left) and his son Wilmer. The farm at the southeast corner of Rohlwing and Golf rds. has been in the Rohlwing family for 3 generations. Cows and dairying equipment are being sold because son Wilmer will move to a new farm of his own near Huntley. His father, who is Elk Grove township supervisor, will continue to live on the farm 1.5 miles southwest of Arlington Heights.

Village Settles Dispute With Sanitary District

A partial solution of the northwest area's perennial flash flooding problem will be months away—instead of years— after today.

This afternoon the board of trustees of the Chicago Sanitary district will vote their approval of an agreement with Arlington Heights. One of the deeds the Sanitary district will thus agree to is the cleaning out of much of Weller creek.

BECAUSE SILTED Weller creek can't carry all the run-off from a sudden rainstorm, Arlington Heights and downstream Mount Prospect experienced serious floods last summer and in 1954.

Section 4 (a) of the agreement provides that the district shall "clean out and enlarge the cross sectional area of Weller creek from Central rd. to Elmhurst rd., by the removal of all silt, debris, vegetation and other obstructions . . ."

A survey made 2 years ago found that the bed of the creek had silted up an average of more than 2 feet and that in spots the flowage capacity of the creek was 25 to 30 per cent impaired.

THE DISTRICT will clean the Arlington Heights outfall sewer, running down to Central rd., within 6 month. But the district has been given a year in which to complete the job east to Elmhurst rd.

The reason for the allowance of so much time is tied in with a large local sewer project the district has under way in Mount Prospect, explained district attorney Lawrence Fenlon.

The creek winds through the south end of Mount Prospect, which has given title to the district. The district, however, must still take jurisdiction from the Weller creek drainage district.

LATER ON, said Fenlon, the Sanitary district plans to enlarge and dredge portions of the creek east of Elmhurst rd. in conjunction with the city of Des Plaines.

The agreement between the village and the district was approved by the village trustees 2 weeks ago. In addition to cleaning the stream, the district will pay the village the sum of $350,000.

In return the village will withdraw from court its suit seeking to void the November, 1956 annexation of Arlington Heights into the district.

A committee of the village board is studying disposition of the funds to be received.

More Package Liquor Permits?

A committee of the Arlington Heights village board Tuesday recommended an increase from 5 to 8 in the number of retail package liquor licenses.

Trustees John F. Hoover and Robert H. Bukowski of the license committee declared that the number of licensses should not be restricted by ordinance.

New license applicants are the A & P and the Elms supermarkets and a Walgreen drugs to be located in the Arlington Market shopping center.

Trustees voted to have their attorney draft an amendment to revise the present ordinance.

IN OTHER business the board:

Heard from building commissioner Fred Hammer that construction of a small sheet metal building on the grounds of South junior high school has been halted because no permit was issued. School officials and the village attorney are conferring on a disagreement as to whether or not the school district must get a building permit.

Received a report from a committee of insurance brokers on the village's current insurance needs.

Housewife Wins Speed Crusade

A determined housewife has won her crusade to cut speeding on Golf rd.

Her victory was announced Monday in a letter from J. P. Tuthill, district engineer of the state highway department, who said the state will place speed limit signs on rte. 58 between Mt. Prospect rd. and Arlington Heights rd.

IN HIS LETTER to Mrs. Nicholas J. Leimetter of 36 E. Golf rd., Arlington Heights, Tuthill wrote: "In accordance with new speed limit laws, our bureau of traffic has conducted engineering and traffic investigations along this road. As a result, we find that a 50-mph limit can be justified between Mt. Prospect rd. and rte. 83, and a 55-mph limit between rte. 83 and Arlington Heights rd. The proper signs will be erected as soon as our work schedule permits."

Mrs. Leimetter, representing a number of Golf rd. residents alarmed at speeding motorists and truckers on the Evanston-Elgin highway, had been demanding appropriate action from state and county officials for more than a year.

Wider, Brighter Streets

The first large-scale modernization plan for downtown Arlington Heights since 1916 will take place next year.

Widening and better lighting throughout the central business district all but won formal approval Tuesday. At a village board meeting, enough support was evidenced for the street lighting project to insure passage at the next meeting, December 17.

THE PLAN to widen downtown streets was approved earlier this year, and trustees hoped for a final vote on the lights Tuesday. However, no vote on passage was taken because of the absence of Trustee Wendell L. Prunty, detained in Chicago by occupational demands.

Passage at the next meeting is a virtual certainty, barring unforeseen difficulties. Three trustees indicated they favor the proposal by their previous favorable vote on it as members of the board of local improvements.

A fourth trustee, Melvin L. Kurtz, will be unable to attend the December 17 session, but Tuesday stated he favors it. The attitudes of a fifth trustee, Robert H. Bukowski, were thought to be similar.

"I THINK IT'S a needed improvement," remarked Bukowski Tuesday, "The only question is how does it tie in with the master plan?"

Other trustees told him the planning firm of Evert Kincaid and associates had testified at earlier hearings in behalf of the lighting project.

For the first time since the special assessment hearing on the lighting began last May, the Arlington Heights chamber of commerce publicly supported the proposal Monday. A petition to the effect was given to 2 trustees who conducted a committee hearing Monday night.

THE PETITION was signed by about 40 businessmen, including several property owners who will be assessed a share of the cost of $215,000. Chamber manager Wilbert Hartmann also urged passage at the Tuesday meeting.

(The village will contribute 60 per cent of the total cost and owners the other 40 per cent. Owners will be charged about $7 a front foot, according to estimates.)

A separate letter to village officials from realtor Walter Krause voiced his support.

TWO LEADING opponents of the project spoke against it at the Monday hearing. They were restaurateur P. K. Ladas and record dealer Clifford F. Schapanski.

Ladas claimed that payment of assessments would work a hardship upon some residents and that "9 women left the last meeting in tears." Schapanski pointed to high taxes and said the lights aren't needed because "my business was never better."

The pair reiterated their previous contention that a majority of the affected owners oppose the improvement. Special attorney Hugo J. Thal admitted that "in numbers that may be correct, but in the amount of front footage it is not."

Asked by Mayor Carlisle if the chamber of commerce would aid persons on whom the program would bring a hardship, chamber manager Hartmann repllied: "We sure would."

Gutter Gleanings For Ghost Plant?

A temporary use for Arlington Heights sewage treatment plant—soon to be abandoned—has been suggested by the village manager.

The deep filter beds would make an ideal place to dump tons of street sweepings, said F. R. Buechner. The village has no adequate dump now.

A SANTA CLAUS who gestured to passers-by attracted these shoppers to the store window of a ladies wear shop in downtown Arlington Heights. Merchants reported good sales as the gift-buying season swung into high gear. Special police were on hand to keep foot and auto traffic flowing smoothly.

Injuries, Young Caboose Burglars Plague Police

Even good healthy fun has its pitfalls, 3 Arlington Heights boys learned last week.

One of the trio was a sophomore at Arlington high school who was working out on a trampoline during a gym class when he came down the wrong way.

JOHN LACINA, of 108 S. Vail, hit his arm on the metal outer frame of the trampoline, breaking a watch and his wrist. He was taken to Ravenswood hospital after the Wednesday accident.

Two grade school age boys were playing in the woods behind Hill-Behan Lumber co. last Tuesday when they spotted 2 older boys breaking into the caboose of a parked train.

The youths who forced their way into the caboose were 15 or 16 years old, wearing red coats and dark trousers, police were told. The older boys came out of the caboose, one carrying a package, and started to chase the youngsters.

Arlington Heights police checked with the Des Plaines railway control tower and heard that there had been no train waiting on the tracks at the time the boys recalled, about 5:30 p.m.

The boys and their parents are still positive the train was there, however.

"I DON'T THINK they'll play there again," said one of their mothers.

Also reported to police were 2 auto accidents resulting in minor injuries.

Irma A. Danna, 28, of 624 E. Clarendon, Arlington Heights, received facial bruises when her car struck an underpass abutment last Wednesday. She was starting north under the Davis st. underpass, she told officers, when a truck entered the narrow underpass from the opposite direction.

MARGARET M. BORGARD, 40, of 20 N. Prospect Manor, Mt. Prospect, was cut on the right arm Friday when her car collided with another driven by Judith Bown, 17, of 214 N. Bail, Arlington Heights.

Police records showed a drop-off in the amount of vandalism over the Thanksgiving holiday. The only incident reported was splashing of aluminum paint on a car parked in front of 1004 N. State rd., last Monday evening.

Lost by theft were a pair of hubcaps from a car in the Arlington theatre lot; 18 gallons of gasoline from milk trucks belonging to Homo Milk co., 612 E. Foundry rd., and an electric shaver from a Westgate sporting goods store.

Finally, a motorist drove away after damaging a railway crossing gate at Euclid ave., Wednesday afternoon.

Will Apartments 'Swallow' Up Arlington Residences?

Are multiple dwelling units—in this case a huge 72 unit apartment — going to 'nibble away' at single family areas in Arlington Heights?

Some apprehension at being swallowed up by large multiple units was expressed by combined forces of residents and the Stonegate association favoring single family dwellings at a hearing before the village zoning board of appeals Monday evening.

ATTORNEY R. A. Franzen presented a plat showing what use would be made of property at 1100 Kensington if rezoned from Class A (single) to Class B (multiple) as requested in a petition presented at an earlier date.

The property, owned by Mr. and Mrs. William T. Wengler, fronts on Kensington rd. for some 147 feet, is 644 feet deep, and 240 feet wide at the back.

Property adjoining on the west is zoned for multiple dwellings; on the east for single; across Kensington for single.

FRANZEN SAID the proposed 2 story building would cost some $900,000. He claimed the value of the property would rise from around $5,000 a lot to $45,000. Seventy-two units is maximum utilization of the area.

Most residents opposed were from nearby Kensington and Dryden properties. Relevant objections were based primarily on fears of property value depreciation, creation of a traffic hazard and additional congestion in connection with the new shopping center on Dryden and the possibility of substandard housing.

Franzen pointed out a growing need for multiple unit dwellings, especially for teachers at the new Miner school and Arlington senior high.

HE SAID OFF-STREET parking would be provided for all units and a driveway would be built in accordance with village ordinances.

After consideration of evidence presented, the board decided to postpone a decision, upon recommendation of Victor H. Beisler, board president.

Frank Palmatier and other members intend to look over the property in question, especially from the standpoint of obtaining a clear picture of real intentions concerning use of surrounding property.

Longer Racing Season Approved

Two weeks more of racing at Arlington Park next summer became a certainty Monday. The season was automatically lengthened from 36 to 49 days with the filing of an application with racing authorities.

No approval was needed from the state racing board because it had favored such a season at an earlier meeting.

The local season will start July 1 and run through September 1.

In a letter written to the head of the Illinois Racing board November 26, state Senator Jackson L. Boughner of Palatine promised that "restrictive legislation" would be introduced at the next session of the legislature if the lengthening went through.

Boughner added that "the senators and representatives from the northwest Cook county will not regard with sympathy the bills of the racing commission. I am also of the opinion that the residents of this area are not without legal rights in this matter."

THE THIRD district senator wrote to board chairman Paul Serdar that during the 6 weeks of racing "the roads are crowded, automobile accidents occur frequently and the nearby residents are greatly inconvenienced."

Home owners are not protesting continuance of the present season, explained the senator, adding that "they have just cause for complaint, however, if the racing season is extended another 2 weeks."

Planners Study Westgate Zoning

Advice is being sought from Arlington Heights master planners on two controversial Westgate rezoning cases.

Victor H. Beisler, chairman of the village zoning board of appeals, said the planning firm of Evert Kincaid and associate's has been asked to study 2 requests for commercial zoning on Wilke rd., south of Westgate shopping center.

A HEARING has already been held on one petition for commercial rezoning of a narrow strip of land, containing 28 lots, where Wilke rd. joins Kirchoff rd.

Westgate residents strongly protested rezoning at a hearing late last month and the zoning board referred the matter to Kincaid.

The subdivision is also expected to fight rezoning for business of the Meyer residence, near the shopping center. The home stands on a 4-acre lot.

THE MEYER rezoning petition comes before the board December 16, according to Beisler. He said the board has also asked Kincaid to determine how business at that location would fit into the master plan now being drawn for the village.

Both cases will be dealt with at the December 16 hearing, provided Kincaid has completed his findings by that date. (AF

For Village Water Tank

Arlington Heights elevated water tank at Douglas and Northwest hwy. will receive a new coat of aluminum paint next spring.

When the job is completed, the old tank will shine like the new tank in downtown Mt. Prospect—the tank for which Prospectites took a ribbing from Arlington last summer.

A RECENT inspection by the National Tank Maintenance corp. of Des Moines showed the steel tank to be generally in good condition. About 10 per cent of its area is rusted and some painted surfaces are pitted but structurally the tank is solid.

In asking the village board to approve the taking of informal bids on a renovation project, village manager F. R. Buechner said the interior of the tank should receive a finished grease coat of a formula approved by the state health department and American Waterworks association.

Firemen Pay Another Call To Meyers

Firemen were called to the Laura J. Meyer home at 104 S. Wilke rd., Arlington Heights, last week to extinguish the second blaze at the place within 11 days.

The fire in a garage was put out quickly and little damage resulted. A spectacular fire November 15 attracted hundreds of spectators to the home. An old barn burned to the ground in the nighttime blaze.

Firemen cooled off a smoking appliance motor at the Walter R. Barlow home, 726 S. Evergreen, last Tuesday noon and several hours later extinguished a small bedroom fire at the residence of Fred H. Holst, 1120 N. Belmont.

Parties Maintain Holiday Mood after Thanksgiving

Instead of settling back with a sigh after the big day last week many local people maintained the holiday mood with surprise parties, farewell parties and parties just for the fun of it. There was a block party Tuesday night for women of the 300 and 400 blocks of S. Evergreen, the 400 block S. State and the 400 block of S. Duuton. Forty-five ladies met at the home of Mrs. Vernon Pingel, 422 S. Evergreen for a would-be holiday party that, to Mrs. Pingel's surprise, turned into an advance birthday party for her and for Mrs. Walter Clausing whose astonishment at the development matched Mrs. Pingel's.

Although the ladies' birthdays are not until the fourth and fifth of January, their friends took this occasion to honor them and to present them with gifts of punch bowl sets in time for their holiday entertaining. Plans for the party were made by Mrs. M. R. Kephart, Mrs. Louis Schomburg, Mrs. Charles Cronin and Mrs. K. T. Brusa, and each of the guests helped to provide the attractive refreshments.

Saturday night 26 friends gathered at the Lawrence Andersen home, 837 S. Highland, to enjoy smorgasbord, relaxing and just having fun. The Andersens' co-hosts were neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Westfall.

The completion of a major do-it-yourself project is always cause for celebration and Saturday night the Richard Ekstrands initiated and demonstrated their finished product, a new recreation room, in their home at 914 N. Princeton. Ten couples from Arlington Heights, Brookfield, Bensenville and Chicago enjoyed cocktails and a buffet supper with the Ekstrands, and pronounced the project a success.

Thanksgiving Birthdays

Thanksgiving is always Thanksgiving but this year it was also the mutual birthday of father, daughter, daughter-in-law and granddaughter who celebrated the multiple-multiple occasion at a family holiday dinner. The unusual celebration took place in the Bloomington home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Heffernan, parents of Mrs. John Crawford, 921 N. Princeton. The Crawfords joined the family festivities Thursday for the Thanksgiving birthday of Mrs. Crawford's father, her own birthday, that of her daughter, Janet Ann, 14, and of her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Heffernan of Bloomington.

Miss Cathy Dill observed her sixth birthday Saturday at a family party that included her uncle, aunt and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen, Linda and David of St. Charles, Mo. The Allen family arrived in Arlington Heights Wednesday night to spend the Thanksgiving weekend at the Dill home, 526 S. Evergreen, and stayed to help Cathy celebrate her birthday before returning to Missouri.

Dinner Party

Terry Bolain was honored on his 11th birthday Sunday at a dinner party for 14 friends and relatives at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bolain, 824 N. Walnut. Among the guests was a family friend saying farewell to the Bolains, Mrs. Alice Fleischman, formerly of Chicago, en route to California. As Terry was man of the hour Sunday, his big brother, Gerald, was thinking ahead to Tuesday night and his big moment at a father and son get-together at Notre Dame high school. Gerald was manager of the football team, and at the special ceremony Tuesday night was among those receiving letters and numerals for their athletic activities.

Keeping secret an important event like an evening birthday party isn't easy when you're 11, but seven young ladies and gentlemen managed to do just that to completely surprise Daniel Sell on his 11th birthday recently. As pre-plotted with Dan's parents, the young people called at the Sell home, 814 N. Walnut, just as Dan was beginning to think his pals forgot his birthday. The astounded young man recovered to enjoy dancing and refreshments with his guests.

Miss Lynn Mathews recently celebrated her 12th birthday at an afternoon party in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mathews, 711 N. Dunton. Guests were 30 fellow girl scouts and the Girl Scout theme was carried out in the favors, decorations and refreshments.

Family Reunions

Byron Crain and Paul Crommelin, who have been recently transferred to Cleveland, Ohio, spent the holiday weekend with their families, still in residence here. They were guests with their wives at a farewell dinner party at the James Stoll home Saturday night and the men returned to Cleveland Sunday. The 2 families have been neighbors on the 800 block of S. Mitchell and each plans to leave for a Cleveland home about the same time, shortly after the Christmas holidays.

The traditional big family-reunion-kind of a Thanksgiving dinner was given by the James Weidners, 1427 N. Dunton, for 40 local relatives. Among the guests were Ronny Herff, home from his studies at Marquette university, and Tom Muran who arrived Wednesday from DeKalb university to have Thanksgiving dinner at Aunt Marge's, and enjoy the holiday weekend with their families.

Thanksgiving day at the Wayne Holloways' was by way of a double celebration as it marked the return home of Mrs. Holloway's sister and brother-in-law, the Horace Millers from Wooster, Ohio, where Mr. Miller has been recovering from a heart attack suffered there a month ago. Other members of the family welcoming the Millers were Mr. and Mrs. George Weisenbach and sons of Lake Bluff, and Miss Jane Holloway, home with the family from the University of Kentucky for the long weekend.

Holiday dinner guests at the Norman Bauske home were Mr. and Mrs. James Sutton and Shelley of Arlington Heights, Mrs. Bauske's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Jablonski of Chicago, and Mr. Bauske's parents and his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bauske and Duane, who arrived Wednesday from Florida for the family get-together. Duane, a student at the University of Miami, returned to Florida Sunday, and the senior Bauskes, who have been in Florida since September, plan to remain at their Des Plaines home through the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walters attended the Thanksgiving Ball given a week ago Saturday night at the Northwest Military and Naval academy at Lake Geneva. They were accompanied by Miss Judy May, 800 N. Pine, guest of their son, Fred, a cadet at the academy.

Holiday Out of Town

Mrs. Marie Arnold, 530 N. Walnut, enjoyed Thanksgiving and the holiday weekend in Macomb with her sons, Robert and Donald, and their families. She was accompanied by her daughters, Miss Dorothy Arnold, and Mrs. Jean Schoeninger and Mrs. Schoeninger's young sons, Donald and Robert.

Back home with the folks were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nastos who spent the holiday weekend in Manitowac, Wis., with Mrs. Nastos' family, Mr. and Mrs. George Tesopels.

The William Gish family enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner and the long weekend with Mrs. Gish's parents, the William Nordins in South Bend.

Mrs. Martin Bliese spent the early part of last week in Grafton, Wis., with her son, John and his family, and was joined by Mr. Bliese for the family Thanksgiving celebration, returning home with him Sunday.

Nancy Kovar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan E. Kovar, 431 Windsor, celebrated her fifth birthday Sunday, Nov. 24, with a supper party from 4 to 6 p.m. Highlights of the party were games and the showing of cartoons. Nancy's guests were Jo Albertson, Debbie Leydig, Judy Riederer, Celeste Landon, Lynnie White, Nancy Colianni, Debbie Coughlin and her brother, Craig Kovar.

James Bergstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Bergstrom, 507 E. Grove, celebrated his seventh birthday Saturday, Nov. 23, with a "space" supper party. James' invitations and games carried out the space theme. One of the games was "pin the spaceship on the moon". The 8 young friends James invited to his party were Guy McMillan, Kurt Hilarides, Chris Buttenob, Chuck McMillan, Keith Schneider, George Bergstrom, David Keys and Paul Stevens.

Parties Maintain Holiday Mood after Thanksgiving

Instead of settling back with a sigh after the big day last week many local people maintained the holiday mood with surprise parties, farewell parties and parties just for the fun of it. There was a block party Tuesday night for women of the 300 and 400 blocks of S. Evergreen, the 400 block S. State and the 400 block of S. Duuton. Forty-five ladies met at the home of Mrs. Vernon Pingel, 422 S. Evergreen for a would-be holiday party that, to Mrs. Pingel's surprise, turned into an advance birthday party for her and for Mrs. Walter Clausing whose astonishment at the development matched Mrs. Pingel's.

Although the ladies' birthdays are not until the fourth and fifth of January, their friends took this occasion to honor them and to present them with gifts of punch bowl sets in time for their holiday entertaining. Plans for the party were made by Mrs. M. R. Kephart, Mrs. Louis Schomburg, Mrs. Charles Cronin and Mrs. K. T. Brusa, and each of the guests helped to provide the attractive refreshments.

Saturday night 26 friends gathered at the Lawrence Andersen home, 837 S. Highland, to enjoy smorgasbord, relaxing and just having fun. The Andersens' co-hosts were neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Westfall.

The completion of a major do-it-yourself project is always cause for celebration and Saturday night the Richard Ekstrands initiated and demonstrated their finished product, a new recreation room, in their home at 914 N. Princeton. Ten couples from Arlington Heights, Brookfield, Bensenville and Chicago enjoyed cocktails and a buffet supper with the Ekstrands, and pronounced the project a success.

Thanksgiving Birthdays

Thanksgiving is always Thanksgiving but this year it was also the mutual birthday of father, daughter, daughter-in-law and granddaughter who celebrated the multiple-multiple occasion at a family holiday dinner. The unusual celebration took place in the Bloomington home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Heffernan, parents of Mrs. John Crawford, 921 N. Princeton. The Crawfords joined the family festivities Thursday for the Thanksgiving birthday of Mrs. Crawford's father, her own birthday, that of her daughter, Janet Ann, 14, and of her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Heffernan of Bloomington.

Miss Cathy Dill observed her sixth birthday Saturday at a family party that included her uncle, aunt and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen, Linda and David of St. Charles, Mo. The Allen family arrived in Arlington Heights Wednesday night to spend the Thanksgiving weekend at the Dill home, 526 S. Evergreen, and stayed to help Cathy celebrate her birthday before returning to Missouri.

Dinner Party

Terry Bolain was honored on his 11th birthday Sunday at a dinner party for 14 friends and relatives at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bolain, 824 N. Walnut. Among the guests was a family friend saying farewell to the Bolains, Mrs. Alice Fleischman, formerly of Chicago, en route to California. As Terry was man of the hour Sunday, his big brother, Gerald, was thinking ahead to Tuesday night and his big moment at a father and son get-together at Notre Dame high school. Gerald was manager of the football team, and at the special ceremony Tuesday night was among those receiving letters and numerals for their athletic activities.

Keeping secret an important event like an evening birthday party isn't easy when you're 11, but seven young ladies and gentlemen managed to do just that to completely surprise Daniel Sell on his 11th birthday recently. As pre-plotted with Dan's parents, the young people called at the Sell home, 814 N. Walnut, just as Dan was beginning to think his pals forgot his birthday. The astounded young man recovered to enjoy dancing and refreshments with his guests.

Miss Lynn Mathews recently celebrated her 12th birthday at an afternoon party in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mathews, 711 N. Dunton. Guests were 30 fellow girl scouts and the Girl Scout theme was carried out in the favors, decorations and refreshments.

Family Reunions

Byron Crain and Paul Crommelin, who have been recently transferred to Cleveland, Ohio, spent the holiday weekend with their families, still in residence here. They were guests with their wives at a farewell dinner party at the James Stoll home Saturday night and the men returned to Cleveland Sunday. The 2 families have been neighbors on the 800 block of S. Mitchell and each plans to leave for a Cleveland home about the same time, shortly after the Christmas holidays.

The traditional big family-reunion-kind of a Thanksgiving dinner was given by the James Weidners, 1427 N. Dunton, for 40 local relatives. Among the guests were Ronny Herff, home from his studies at Marquette university, and Tom Muran who arrived Wednesday from DeKalb university to have Thanksgiving dinner at Aunt Marge's, and enjoy the holiday weekend with their families.

Thanksgiving day at the Wayne Holloways' was by way of a double celebration as it marked the return home of Mrs. Holloway's sister and brother-in-law, the Horace Millers from Wooster, Ohio, where Mr. Miller has been recovering from a heart attack suffered there a month ago. Other members of the family welcoming the Millers were Mr. and Mrs. George Weisenbach and sons of Lake Bluff, and Miss Jane Holloway, home with the family from the University of Kentucky for the long weekend.

Holiday dinner guests at the Norman Bauske home were Mr. and Mrs. James Sutton and Shelley of Arlington Heights, Mrs. Bauske's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Jablonski of Chicago, and Mr. Bauske's parents and his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bauske and Duane, who arrived Wednesday from Florida for the family get-together. Duane, a student at the University of Miami, returned to Florida Sunday, and the senior Bauskes, who have been in Florida since September, plan to remain at their Des Plaines home through the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walters attended the Thanksgiving Ball given a week ago Saturday night at the Northwest Military and Naval academy at Lake Geneva. They were accompanied by Miss Judy May, 800 N. Pine, guest of their son, Fred, a cadet at the academy.

Holiday Out of Town

Mrs. Marie Arnold, 530 N. Walnut, enjoyed Thanksgiving and the holiday weekend in Macomb with her sons, Robert and Donald, and their families. She was accompanied by her daughters, Miss Dorothy Arnold, and Mrs. Jean Schoeninger and Mrs. Schoeninger's young sons, Donald and Robert.

Back home with the folks were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nastos who spent the holiday weekend in Manitowac, Wis., with Mrs. Nastos' family, Mr. and Mrs. George Tesopels.

The William Gish family enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner and the long weekend with Mrs. Gish's parents, the William Nordins in South Bend.

Mrs. Martin Bliese spent the early part of last week in Grafton, Wis., with her son, John and his family, and was joined by Mr. Bliese for the family Thanksgiving celebration, returning home with him Sunday.

Nancy Kovar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan E. Kovar, 431 Windsor, celebrated her fifth birthday Sunday, Nov. 24, with a supper party from 4 to 6 p.m. Highlights of the party were games and the showing of cartoons. Nancy's guests were Jo Albertson, Debbie Leydig, Judy Riederer, Celeste Landon, Lynnie White, Nancy Colianni, Debbie Coughlin and her brother, Craig Kovar.

James Bergstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Bergstrom, 507 E. Grove, celebrated his seventh birthday Saturday, Nov. 23, with a "space" supper party. James' invitations and games carried out the space theme. One of the games was "pin the spaceship on the moon". The 8 young friends James invited to his party were Guy McMillan, Kurt Hilarides, Chris Buttenob, Chuck McMillan, Keith Schneider, George Bergstrom, David Keys and Paul Stevens.

Friends Re-unite

The holidays are especially fine for renewing old friendships and the James Stoll family enjoyed a reunion in Milwaukee for the big day with Mr. and Mrs. James Munson.

Thanksgiving day and weekend guests at the George Sandy home, 515 S. Chestnut, were Fort Wayne friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McIver and Dan.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmisano of Jefferson City, Mo. enjoyed a week's visit and the holiday dinner here with the Morris McBrides, 2608 Cornell, returning to Missouri Sunday.

Weekend Visitors

Guests for the weekend at the Charles Johnson home, 709 N. Chestnut, were Mr. and Mrs. William Rottmayer and family of Riverdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton Koss of Neenah, Wis., enjoyed the weekend here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walace Sell, 814 N. Walnut, and attended the horse show at the International Amphitheatre in Chicago with their host Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James Buck, 705 S. Vail, enjoyed a visit over the weekend from Detroit friends, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Cook.

November Vacations

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Froembgen have returned home to 823 N. Vail, after nearly a month's visit in Monterey, Cal. with their son, James, and his family. They made the trip to get acquainted with their first grandchild, young James Paul, born in July, and admit to a severe case of love at first sight. They returned from their happy vacation Friner on the train.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Webster were home again at 1244 N. Dunton in time for Thanksgiving with their daughter, Pat, after a 10-day deer hunting trip in Michigan. They enjoyed their vacation at the East Branch Sportsmens club, where they have been member for many years, hunting the Newberry territory in the upper peninsula. Mrs. Webster's parents, the William Pecks of Flint, Mich., visited here with Pat during the hunters' Michigan sojourn, and the Websters report that everyone enjoyed a wonderful rest, especially the deer of northern Michigan. There was no venison on the Webster Thanksgiving menu.

Mrs. R. H. Heberling returned from a 2-week Florida trip for Thanksgiving with the family at home after a pre-holiday visit with her father, C. R. Shuesler of Lakeland, and her daughter, Lynn, a student at Florida Southern university in Lakeland. During her absence, the senior Mrs. R. H. Heberling of Streator came to stay with the family at 819 W. Fairview, and co-incidentally, to enjoy a weekend visit from her brother, H. W. Spink of Kansas City, Mo.

Visits in East

Robert Miles and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Miles, 102 S. Brighton pl., have just returned from the east where Robert visited Brown university at Providence, R. I., Yale at New Haven, Conn., Colgate in Hamilton, N. Y., Harvard at Boston and Trinity in Hartford. Robert, a senior at North Shore Country Day school in Winnetka, stayed at the Alpha Chi Rho fraternity for 3 days with his brother, Richard, a junior at Trinity college. During this time, Mr. and Mrs. Miles went to New York City.

Boonettes

Thanksgiving Day Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leeper, 305 Windsor, entertained as their guests for Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Novak of Hinsdale, and their 3 sons, Joe, Kenneth, and Rocky. Joe was home from Northwestern for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce H. Rasmussen, 202 Windsor, entertained family and friends Thanksgiving day. Among those present were Mr. Rasmussen's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rasmussen and their sons, Erik and Craig, and Mrs. Harry Wood of Chicago.

Away For Thanksgiving

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moore, 311 Windsor, were guests at the home of the latter's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Maynard of Rockford, and their children, Jackie and Elsa, for the Thanksgiving weekend. Thanksgiving day, 25 members of the family gathered at the Maynard home for a family reunion.

Laura Bergstrom, 5-year-pld daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Bergstrom, 507 E. Grove, was the Thanksgiving weekend guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Chessman of Sheldon Hts.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Husty, 908 S. Beverly, and their 3 sons, Cam, Todd and Kip, made several stops on their Thanksgiving trip. The first visit was to see Mrs. Husty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas of Windsor, Canada. From Windsor Mr. and Mrs. Husty made a side trip to Ann Arbor, Mich., where they attended the Ohio State vs. Michigan football game. After returning to Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. Husty, with their sons, went to Cleveland where they were the guests of Mr. Husty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Husty, and also his sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whitney and their 3 daughters, Laurie, Janie and Amy.

Home For The Holidays

Mimi Mc Donald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Mc Donald, 631 S. Burton pl., was home from Purdue university in Lafayette, for the Thanksgiving weekend. Mimi, a freshman at Purdue, returned to school Sunday evening. Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. Mc Donald had a family dinner at home with Mimi and their 2 other children, Barbara and Bill.

Linda Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Mann, 304 E. Fairview, was home for the Thanksgiving holidays from Marquette university in Milwaukee, where she is in her freshman year. Thanksgiving day Mr. and Mrs. Mann and their 3 children, Linda, Ginny and Bill, were guests of Mr. Mann's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mann of Chicago.

Janet and Bob Siegel, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Siegel, 316 E. Park st., were home from Denison university for the Thanksgiving weekend. Janet is a senior at Denison and Bob is in his freshman year. Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. Siegel, with Janet and Bob, attended a family reunion at the home of Mr. Siegel's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Siegel of Marengo.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ball, 454 Banbury, with 3 other couples, were recent weekend guests at the Wagon Wheel in Rockton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lips, 608 Newbury, are home from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where they were guests for 2 weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Lips, who flew both ways, also took a side trip to Delray Beach before returning to Arlington Heights.

Maryjane Kleisner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Kleisner, 602 E. Park, and Patricia Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Jacobs, 826 S. Highland, co-hostessed a coketail party Wednesday evening for 24 guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kleisner. From the party the young people went to the St. Patrick academy dance.

Marilyn Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard N. Nelson, 701 E. Davis, hostessed a surprise birthday dinner party in honor of Jane Harris, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Irwin T. Harris, 717 S. Belmont, Wednesday evening before the "Sleighbell" basketball game. The 7 girls attending, all sophomores at the Arlington high school, wore bells and presented Jane with individual gifts in honor of her 15th birthday.

Sidelights Of Arlington Heights

Friends Re-unite

The holidays are especially fine for renewing old friendships and the James Stoll family enjoyed a reunion in Milwaukee for the big day with Mr. and Mrs. James Munson.

Thanksgiving day and weekend guests at the George Sandy home, 515 S. Chestnut, were Fort Wayne friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McIver and Dan.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmisano of Jefferson City, Mo. enjoyed a week's visit and the holiday dinner here with the Morris McBrides, 2608 Cornell, returning to Missouri Sunday.

Weekend Visitors

Guests for the weekend at the Charles Johnson home, 709 N. Chestnut, were Mr. and Mrs. William Rottmayer and family of Riverdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton Koss of Neenah, Wis., enjoyed the weekend here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walace Sell, 814 N. Walnut, and attended the horse show at the International Amphitheatre in Chicago with their host Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James Buck, 705 S. Vail, enjoyed a visit over the weekend from Detroit friends, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Cook.

November Vacations

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Froembgen have returned home to 823 N. Vail, after nearly a month's visit in Monterey, Cal. with their son, James, and his family. They made the trip to get acquainted with their first grandchild, young James Paul, born in July, and admit to a severe case of love at first sight. They returned from their happy vacation Friner on the train.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Webster were home again at 1244 N. Dunton in time for Thanksgiving with their daughter, Pat, after a 10-day deer hunting trip in Michigan. They enjoyed their vacation at the East Branch Sportsmens club, where they have been member for many years, hunting the Newberry territory in the upper peninsula. Mrs. Webster's parents, the William Pecks of Flint, Mich., visited here with Pat during the hunters' Michigan sojourn, and the Websters report that everyone enjoyed a wonderful rest, especially the deer of northern Michigan. There was no venison on the Webster Thanksgiving menu.

Mrs. R. H. Heberling returned from a 2-week Florida trip for Thanksgiving with the family at home after a pre-holiday visit with her father, C. R. Shuesler of Lakeland, and her daughter, Lynn, a student at Florida Southern university in Lakeland. During her absence, the senior Mrs. R. H. Heberling of Streator came to stay with the family at 819 W. Fairview, and co-incidentally, to enjoy a weekend visit from her brother, H. W. Spink of Kansas City, Mo.

Visits in East

Robert Miles and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Miles, 102 S. Brighton pl., have just returned from the east where Robert visited Brown university at Providence, R. I., Yale at New Haven, Conn., Colgate in Hamilton, N. Y., Harvard at Boston and Trinity in Hartford. Robert, a senior at North Shore Country Day school in Winnetka, stayed at the Alpha Chi Rho fraternity for 3 days with his brother, Richard, a junior at Trinity college. During this time, Mr. and Mrs. Miles went to New York City.

Boonettes

Thanksgiving Day Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leeper, 305 Windsor, entertained as their guests for Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Novak of Hinsdale, and their 3 sons, Joe, Kenneth, and Rocky. Joe was home from Northwestern for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce H. Rasmussen, 202 Windsor, entertained family and friends Thanksgiving day. Among those present were Mr. Rasmussen's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rasmussen and their sons, Erik and Craig, and Mrs. Harry Wood of Chicago.

Away For Thanksgiving

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moore, 311 Windsor, were guests at the home of the latter's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Maynard of Rockford, and their children, Jackie and Elsa, for the Thanksgiving weekend. Thanksgiving day, 25 members of the family gathered at the Maynard home for a family reunion.

Laura Bergstrom, 5-year-pld daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Bergstrom, 507 E. Grove, was the Thanksgiving weekend guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Chessman of Sheldon Hts.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Husty, 908 S. Beverly, and their 3 sons, Cam, Todd and Kip, made several stops on their Thanksgiving trip. The first visit was to see Mrs. Husty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas of Windsor, Canada. From Windsor Mr. and Mrs. Husty made a side trip to Ann Arbor, Mich., where they attended the Ohio State vs. Michigan football game. After returning to Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. Husty, with their sons, went to Cleveland where they were the guests of Mr. Husty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Husty, and also his sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whitney and their 3 daughters, Laurie, Janie and Amy.

Home For The Holidays

Mimi Mc Donald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Mc Donald, 631 S. Burton pl., was home from Purdue university in Lafayette, for the Thanksgiving weekend. Mimi, a freshman at Purdue, returned to school Sunday evening. Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. Mc Donald had a family dinner at home with Mimi and their 2 other children, Barbara and Bill.

Linda Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Mann, 304 E. Fairview, was home for the Thanksgiving holidays from Marquette university in Milwaukee, where she is in her freshman year. Thanksgiving day Mr. and Mrs. Mann and their 3 children, Linda, Ginny and Bill, were guests of Mr. Mann's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mann of Chicago.

Janet and Bob Siegel, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Siegel, 316 E. Park st., were home from Denison university for the Thanksgiving weekend. Janet is a senior at Denison and Bob is in his freshman year. Thanksgiving day, Mr. and Mrs. Siegel, with Janet and Bob, attended a family reunion at the home of Mr. Siegel's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Siegel of Marengo.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ball, 454 Banbury, with 3 other couples, were recent weekend guests at the Wagon Wheel in Rockton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lips, 608 Newbury, are home from Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where they were guests for 2 weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Lips, who flew both ways, also took a side trip to Delray Beach before returning to Arlington Heights.

Maryjane Kleisner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Kleisner, 602 E. Park, and Patricia Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Jacobs, 826 S. Highland, co-hostessed a coketail party Wednesday evening for 24 guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kleisner. From the party the young people went to the St. Patrick academy dance.

Marilyn Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard N. Nelson, 701 E. Davis, hostessed a surprise birthday dinner party in honor of Jane Harris, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Irwin T. Harris, 717 S. Belmont, Wednesday evening before the "Sleighbell" basketball game. The 7 girls attending, all sophomores at the Arlington high school, wore bells and presented Jane with individual gifts in honor of her 15th birthday.

Arlington Heights Greets South African Newcomers

Adjustments are a dime a dozen for an Arlington Heights family of 4 which until 2 months ago had spent its entire life in the Union of South Africa.

CANDIOTES IS HAPPY investigating the whys and wherefores at Eimco research laboratory in Palatine. His wife, Constance, finds U.S. supermarts and stores a paradise. Their 14-year-old daughter, Penny, is amazed by American schools and students. And Penny's sister, Alethea, 12, is fast becoming a TV fan.

The relocation came about last summer when Eimco, which has a plant in South Africa, offered Candiotes a job in the United States. After talking over the offer, the Candiote (pronounced Candy-otis) family decided to go to America, a land about which so many people in South Africa talk.

Selling their home in Johannesburg, the Candiotes packed 3 trunks and 6 suitcases. The trunks were filled with encyclopedias and engineering books, and the suitcases packed with personal belongings.

TAKING A FREIGHTER from Cape Town to Houston, Tex., the Candiotes arrived in the U.S. after nearly a month's sea voyage, which gave them a chance to get used to hotcakes for breakfast.

Having been in Arlington Heights for 2 months, Mrs. Candiotes says her husband and their 2 daughters are adjusting excellently. Mrs. Candiotes remarks she's the only one having trouble.

"What do people do indoors?" she inquired. "In South Africa we see the sun almost daily," Mrs. Candiotes said. "Here we see it so seldom."

SHE WENT ON to explain that in South Africa people do not have furnaces in their homes. It's a rare day when temperatures hit the freezing level. In fact, Mrs. Candiotes is the only one to have ever seen snow before coming here. That day in 1936 made news in South Africa.

Comparing prices, Mrs. Candiotes was astounded by how much higher housing and food costs are in this country. However, she notes a housewife here can get practically anything she wants and still have a high quality.

She cited the cost of bread. A pound and a half loaf at the local supermart costs about 20 cents. In South Africa the cost is ninepence, about 9 cents. And that's for a 2 pound loaf. The loaf is the same size but the texture heavier.

SHE DIDN'T HAVE to worry about a turkey for Thanksgiving dinner. She won one at a local grocery store.

Daughter Penny was in for one of the biggest jolts when she attended freshman classes at Prospect high school. Girls in South Africa don't date nor wear lipstick until they're 18. She's been getting "instructions" in American teen-age social customs since the first day of classes.

American slang is already a part of Penny's vocabulary. She enjoys television, of which there is none in South Africa, but labels some programs as "junk." She's also thankful there are several channels in order to get an acceptable program.

WHEN TOLD THAT she speaks with an English accent, Mrs. Candiotes said, "Why Englishmen speak much different." Even Penny's beginning to speak American, she added. Penny now says last instead of "lost."

The Candiotes family seems far from lost in America and Arlington Heights and someday hopes to make the change permanent. (B-8

Marine Reservists Begin Annual 'Toys for Tots'

"Toys For Tots" is the theme of the Glenview Marine Air Reserve units as they begin their annual drive to collect and distribute toys to the needy children of the Chicagoland area.

The 1957 toy program sponsored Chicagoland Marine Reserve units with the cooperation of the Shell Oil company which is again making available its service stations as collection points.

The drive concludes on December 21, which gives the Marines 3 days to complete their toy deliveries to the needy children.

THE MARINES will play the role of Santa Claus as they collect and prepare the toys for distribution on their own time. Many of the toys will be repaired by the Marines with the necessary materials so that they will be suitable for use.

This nation-wide program last year collected over 5,300,000 toys. The Chicagoland Marine Reserves collected 250,000 of the national total.

ANYONE WISHING to assist the "Toys For Tots" program should take his new or like new toys to the nearest Shell oil station. At these collection points the Marines will collect the toys and then distribute them to needy children of the Chicagoland area.

When toys are wrapped, the age and whether for a boy or girl should be noted on the wrapping.

For further information, the inquirer should call Sgt. James R. Smallridge, Glenview 4-1000, ext. 422. (B8

Pure Oil Donates To School

Pure Oil company has placed in escrow with the village of Mt. Prospect a check for $1,000 to be donated to school district 56 (Forest View) when and if the county board approves a plat of subdivision of land at the northeast corner of Golf and Arlington Heights rds.

DIVIDING THE land into 2 parcels, the corner lot will be used for a Pure Oil gas station, and a trailer park exists on the other lot.

Mt. Prospect plan commission asked for the donation for schools in lieu of dedication of land for public purposes.

The company has placed a 90 day time limit on their agreement. (ACM

Did you know that your laughing and chuckling at a comedy TV program isn't always caused directly by what you see and hear?

Actually, sometimes a psychological trick is being played on you. Some networks are using a record sounding gadget which can be tuned-in on various kinds of laughs, giggles, snickers, and hysterical guffaws. Set-off at the right moment, you hear a presumably good response from the invisible audience. Actually, you are hearing this laughing machine.

This gadget is used because of the theory that laughing is contagious like measles. The more response you hear, the more chances that you'll laugh, too, even if the program is mediocre. But even with this 'make believe', your TV receiver must co-operate with a clear, steady picture. If you don't have this, Phone CLearbrook 5-0700. LANDWEHR TV & APPLIANCES will give you satisfactory results (not psychological) with the latest, electronic testing and servicing instruments.

Speed Construction Of 2 Expressways

(CNS)—More than $8.5 million worth of work for the Edens and Northwest expressways are at the contract stage.

The county board last week awarded contracts totaling $4,079,336 for additional work on Edens and added up low bids on a host of contracts for Northwest expressway totaling $4,507,742. This grand total is $8,587,078.

HERE ARE THE latest projects under contract on Edens:

—Paving and grading for the Montrose avenue grade separation over the Edens-Northwest expressways interchange near Kenton ave., Chicago; contract awarded to Thomas McQueen company, $1,069,623.

—Paving and grading for the Forest Preserve drive grade separation over Edens expressway at a point 1,053 feet north of Foster ave., Chicago; Thomas McQueen company, $211,951.

—Paving of Edens expressway from a point 605 feet north of Bryn Mawr ave. to Lawrence ave., Chicago; Palumbo Excavating company, $1,188,108.

—Paving and grading for the Edens-Northwest expressways interchange from Lawrence to Kostner, Chicago; Thomas McQueen company, $1,610,654.

THE FOLLOWING projects for Northwest expressway, with the apparent low bids and the bidders, are under detailed tabulation for a report and recommendation to be made by County Highway Superintendent William Mortimer:

—Construction of a storm sewer along the Northwest expressway from Foster to Sunnyside aves. Chicago: S. A. Healy company, $1,593,080.

—Storm sewer along expressway between Foster and Nashville aves., in Chicago and Norwood Park township; Paschen Contractors, Inc., $1,009,760.

—Steel for the intersection of Northwest expressway with Foster and Central aves., Chicago; Allied Structural Steel company, $544,789.

—Steel for a 1,000 foot overpass for the expressway at Ainslie st. and Lawrence, Chicago; American Bridge company, division of U.S. Steel corporation, $460,706.

—Concrete girders for Northwest expressway pedestrian bridge at Austin ave. and for a grade separation at Nagle ave., Chicago; Material Service corporation, $136,014.

—Concrete girders for Northwest expressway structures at Natoma and Sayre aves. in Chicago and at East River rd., Norwood Park township; Material Service corporation, $280,264.

—Concrete girders for Northwest expressway structures at Harlem, Oriole and Canfield aves. in Chicago and at Cumberland ave., Norwood Park township; Material Service corporation, $483,129.

DANIEL RYAN, board president, said bids on steel and precast girders were taken now so that there wouldn't be a wait for the material on further superhighway construction scheduled to begin next spring.

Bids on the Northwest expressway involves the section leading to O'Hare airport, a stretch returned to freeway status by the state toll commission after northwest side protests against paying tolls on a highway within the city. (B8

60 Arlington Teens Make TV Appearance Dec. 21

Sixty Arlington Heights teens are to make a TV guest appearance Saturday, Dec. 21 from 5-6 p.m. on channel 7, WBKB according to announcement made by Muriel Mills and Peter Lund, local dance instructors. The teens, who will dance on the "Jim Lounsbury Record Hop," are participating in response to an invitation issued by Lounsbury and his staff.

Try-outs for this show were held November 17 at Arlington high school and rehearsals, under the direction of Mrs. Mills and Mr. Lund, are being held weekly at Pioneer park. Previous appearances by local young people on "teen" TV shows originating in Chicago, were on Christmas day, 1956 on "Bandstand Matinee," and last Thursday, Thanksgiving day, on "Teen Club." Freshman and sophomores, who are members of the dance group "Saramba club," participated in the Thanksgiving day show, while try-outs for the "Record Hop" billing were open to all high school young people.

Various dances which are to be featured on the "Record Hop" are tango, fox trot, waltz, swing, rumba and cha-cha. (B8

—Paving of Edens expressway from a point 605 feet north of Bryn Mawr ave. to Lawrence ave., Chicago; Palumbo Excavating company, $1,188,108.

—Paving and grading for the Edens-Northwest expressways interchange from Lawrence to Kostner, Chicago; Thomas McQueen company, $1,610,654.

THE FOLLOWING projects for Northwest expressway, with the apparent low bids and the bidders, are under detailed tabulation for a report and recommendation to be made by County Highway Superintendent William Mortimer:

—Construction of a storm sewer along the Northwest expressway from Foster to Sunnyside aves. Chicago: S. A. Healy company, $1,593,080.

—Storm sewer along expressway between Foster and Nashville aves., in Chicago and Norwood Park township; Paschen Contractors, Inc., $1,009,760.

—Steel for the intersection of Northwest expressway with Foster and Central aves., Chicago; Allied Structural Steel company, $544,789.

—Steel for a 1,000 foot overpass for the expressway at Ainslie st. and Lawrence, Chicago; American Bridge company, division of U.S. Steel corporation, $460,706.

—Concrete girders for Northwest expressway pedestrian bridge at Austin ave. and for a grade separation at Nagle ave., Chicago; Material Service corporation, $136,014.

—Concrete girders for Northwest expressway structures at Natoma and Sayre aves. in Chicago and at East River rd., Norwood Park township; Material Service corporation, $280,264.

—Concrete girders for Northwest expressway structures at Harlem, Oriole and Canfield aves. in Chicago and at Cumberland ave., Norwood Park township; Material Service corporation, $483,129.

DANIEL RYAN, board president, said bids on steel and precast girders were taken now so that there wouldn't be a wait for the material on further superhighway construction scheduled to begin next spring.

Bids on the Northwest expressway involves the section leading to O'Hare airport, a stretch returned to freeway status by the state toll commission after northwest side protests against paying tolls on a highway within the city. (B8

Sixty Arlington Heights teens are to make a TV guest appearance Saturday, Dec. 21 from 5-6 p.m. on channel 7, WBKB according to announcement made by Muriel Mills and Peter Lund, local dance instructors. The teens, who will dance on the "Jim Lounsbury Record Hop," are participating in response to an invitation issued by Lounsbury and his staff.

Try-outs for this show were held November 17 at Arlington high school and rehearsals, under the direction of Mrs. Mills and Mr. Lund, are being held weekly at Pioneer park. Previous appearances by local young people on "teen" TV shows originating in Chicago, were on Christmas day, 1956 on "Bandstand Matinee," and last Thursday, Thanksgiving day, on "Teen Club." Freshman and sophomores, who are members of the dance group "Saramba club," participated in the Thanksgiving day show, while try-outs for the "Record Hop" billing were open to all high school young people.

Various dances which are to be featured on the "Record Hop" are tango, fox trot, waltz, swing, rumba and cha-cha. (B8

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Nellie Jenson

Exactly one year to the day, December 2, Mrs. Nellie J. Jenson followed her husband, Otto, in death. She died in her home at 319 N. Wille st., Mt. Prospect and leaves a daughter, Francis Holdiman of Mt. Prospect, and a grandson, Allan.

Mrs. Jenson was born January [illegible], 1889 in Dunkerton, Iowa, where services and burial will be held December 6.

Rose Scheithauer

Rose Scheithaur, late resident of N. Chestnut rd., Arlington Heights, died November 26 in Sherman hospital, Elgin. Funeral services were held November 29 in Black's Memorial home, Arlington Heights, with burial in Memory Gardens cemetery. Rev. Luther V. Stephan officiated.

Mrs. Scheithauer was born October 4, 1884, in Austria and was a member of the League of Americans of Ukranian Descent, Inc. of Chicago. She and her husband, Albin, who survives her, had made their home in this area for the last 25 years.

Louisa Friederichs

Funeral services for Mrs. Louisa Friederichs, 415 N. Haddow, Arlington Heights, a resident of Arlington Heights for 35 years, were held December 3 in St. John United Church of Christ with Rev. Armin Limper officiating. Burial was in St. John cemetery.

Mrs. Friederichs was born April 25, 1874 in Germany and was preceded in death by her husband, Edward, who died in 1932. She leaves a daughter, Laura Hartmann; a son, Arnold Friederichs; and 3 grandchildren.

She was in state in the Lauterburg and Oehler chapel in Arlington Heights.

Albert E. Busse

Funeral services for Albert E. Busse, 8 W. Busse, Mt. Prospect, oldest Buick dealer in Cook county, were held November 30 in St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran church, Mt. Prospect. Rev. E. A. Zeile officiated and Black's Memorial home was in charge. Burial was in St. Paul cemetery, Mt. Prospect.

Mr. Busse was born in Elk Grove township January 10, 1891 and was married to Emma Schaeffer in St. Paul church by Rev. J. E. Mueller in September, 1914. The couple had made their home in Mt. Prospect since their marriage. Mr. Busse was a charter member and past president of Mt. Prospect Lions club, a charter member of St. Paul church, secretary and treasurer of Busse Motor Sales and a 30-year member of the National Auto Dealer association.

He died November 27 in Resurrection hospital and leaves his wife, Emma; a son, Wilbert Busse; 2 daughters, Mrs. Marion Wille and Mrs. Norma Hasz; his father-in-law, Henry C. Schaeffer; 5 grandchildren; and 4 sisters, Mrs. Martha Froemling, Mrs. Mathilda Ehard, Mrs. Sophie Mueller and Mrs. Helen Biermann. He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Busse and 2 brothers, William Jr. and Fred Busse.

Curt Gfroerer

Services for Curt Gfroerer of Inverness who died Sunday were held Sunday in his home at 1881 Stuart lane. Burial was in Memorial park, Evanston.

Prior to his death, Mr. Gfroerer was a staff artist for the Chicago Tribune, having drawn sketches for a health column. Survivors include his wife, Margaret; and a sister, Mrs. Elsie Reynolds, Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Minnie Bartels

Services for Mrs. Minnie Bartels, 73, of 8 Guth st., East Dundee, Palatine township native who died Friday in her home after a long illness were held Monday in the Miller funeral home, Dundee.

The Rev. E. H. Happel, officiated. Burial was in East Dundee cemetery.

Mrs. Bartels was born Jan. 8, 1884, in Palatine township and had resided in the Palatine-Dundee area all her life. She was a member of Immanuel Lutheran church. Her husband, William H. Bartels, preceeded her in death in 1940.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Fred Kleinschmidt, Dundee; a son, William C. Bartels, Dundee; a sister, Mrs. Annie Frost, Palatine; 2 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Werner Infant

Services for Vickie Lynn Werner, 5-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Werner, 710 Echo lane, Palatine, who died Sunday of pneumonia, were held Tuesday in Tharp's funeral home.

The Rev. Glenn G. Gumm, pastor of St. Paul Evangelical and Reformed church, officiated. Burial was in Rand Hill cemetery. Vickie Lynn was born June 21, 1957, in Evanston.

Survivors include her father and her mother, the former Virginia Christophersen; a sister, Debbie Jean; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Werner, Palatine; and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Christophersen, Palatine.

John H. Piepenbrink

John H. Piepenbrink, a retired farmer who was born June 18, 1891 in Wheeling township, died in his home at 614 S. State rd., Arlington Heights, November 29.

Services for Mr. Piepenbrink were held Monday, Dec. 2, in St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, with Rev. Luther V. Stephan officiating. He was buried in St. Peter cemetery and had been in state in the Lauterburg and Oehler chapel in Arlington Heights.

Mr. Piepenbrink was married July 2, 1927 in Mt. Prospect, to Mathilda Winkelman and besides his wife, leaves a son, Erwin of Bensenville; a daughter, Lorraine Horn of Arlington Heights; 4 grandchildren; 6 brothers: William, Fred, Edward and George of Mt. Prospect, Herman of Arlington Heights and Henry of Chicago; and 7 sisters: Anna Niemeyer, Elizabeth Niemeyer, Emma Runge and Mathilda Stoeckel of Arlington Heights, Caroline Greinke of Mt. Prospect, Marie Schwartz of Chicago and Martha Heimsoth of Union.

Arvid A. Seurbom

Arvid A. Seurbom, manager of Rolling Meadows Singer Sewing Machine office, died suddenly December 1 in his home in Des Plaines. He was born April 6, 1899 in Chicago and was a veteran of World War I, with the marine corps. He was with Singer for 40 years and was Newsette chairman of the Des Plaines Elks.

Under the auspices of Des Plaines lodge 1526 BPOE, services were held Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. in the Oehler chapel in Des Plaines. Funeral services were held at 3 p.m. December 4 at the same chapel with Rev. Theodore Potter officiating. Interment was in Ridgewood cemetery.

He leaves his wife, Merinda; 2 daughters, Delma McAloon of Mont Clair, N.J. and Carol Erlandson of Des Plaines; 3 grandchildren; 2 brothers, Anton and Arthur of Chicago; and 2 sisters, Antoinette Cluff of Chicago and Adina Yerkes of Charlotte, Mich.

DAMP Water Commission Near Agreement on Study

(CNS) — Chairman Robert E. Angley of the DAMP Water Commission says the northwest suburban group is near agreement with a Chicago consulting firm on a contract to study the water needs of Des Plaines, Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Palatine and neighboring communities.

THE COMMISSION has had a number of meetings with representatives of Consoer Townsend and Associates, 360 E. Grand ave., Chicago. It expects to have that firm prepare a preliminary report on the feasibility and estimated costs of alternative plans for obtaining an increased water supply for the area.

Angley pointed out, however, that before the commission can sign a contract it must establish that it has authority. Attorneys are checking into that now, he said.

AFTER CONSOER Townsend's report has been studied and approved, DAMP will have the task of getting contracts for the sale of water to the municipalities involved. Only after the commission has such contracts signed can it hope to sell revenue bonds and proceed with the construction of pipelines or other water supply sources.

Consoer Townsend or another firm will be retained at that point, Angley said, for the preparation of detailed plans and specifications for the construction that will be needed to insure an adequate water supply for this fast-growing area. (B8

Stacks of topnotch platters this week, all tested on a system highly rated by the hi-fi experts at the recent Chicago show: the Miraphone manual turntable with Miratwin cartridge, the Stromberg-Carlson AE-426 preamplifier with versatile controls and the same firm's clean-powered 25-watt basic amplifier; and the Bozak B-310 speaker system. Like having Orchestra Hall in your room as regards clarity!

FIRST, CAPITOL brings us a magnificent 12-inch waxing by Leopold Stokowski and his orchestra entitled "Landmarks of a Distinguished Career." Appropriately, it programs those works which Stokowski has made famous by his interpretations, starting with the mighty Toccata and Fugue in D Minor of Bach. Indeed, Stokowski, during the early Thirties, did more to show the lay music lover that Bach's music was eloquent and far from mathematical than any other conductor, and this beautiful, noble composition is a case in point. Then Debussy's "Clair de lune" and the exquisite "Afternoon of a Faun," Strauss' "Blue Danube Waltz" and Jan Sibelius' "Swan of Tuonela and "Finlandia". These last two workes, too, are appropriate, for the recent death of Sibelius at the age of 92 reminds us that with "Finlandia" he won a lifelong subsidy from the grateful Finnish government who made "Finlandia" the country's national anthem. The entire disc is a treasure of lovely music, stunningly performed and recorded.

CAPITOL IS A LEADER in "pops," and space hardly permits listing all the treats in store for you this month. We'd like to recommend most enthusiastically the new Les Baxter 12 incher, "Ports of Pleasure," even better than "Tamboo!" and "Caribbean Moonlight," for it's exotic, haunting music, ideal for background listening. Tennessee Ernie Ford's new "Ol' Rockin' Ern" is another Capitol must, with Ernie's inimitable folk-flavored singing of tunes like "Blackberry Boogie" and his tender spiritual-like "The Lord's Lariat." A really great Capitol platter is that of the soundtrack of the film "Pal Joey," with Frank Sinatra, Kim Novak and Rita Hayworth, and the "Voice" singing, as only he can, "I Could Write a Book" and "Bewitcher," along with a galaxy of great Rodgers and Hart hits. And if you've visited Chicago's London House, you know what a fine jazz pianist and arranger Marian McPartland is; well, she has a new Capitol 12 incher "With You in Mind," with string quartet and harp added to her original trio. It's a gem for relaxed, pleasant listening. More about Capitol "pops" next week.

FROM MERCURY, three superb 12-inch classical albums, leading off with a magnificent pairing of Haydn's 96th ("Miracle") Symphony and Mozart's engaging "Haffner" by the Detroit Symphony under Paul Paray Then there's Antal Dorati and the Minneapolis Symphony in a brilliant reading of Albeniz' colorful rhythmic "Iberia," a musical picture of Spain, and the exciting "Interlude and Dance No. 1" from Manuel de Falla's "La Vida Breve. Finally, Frederick Fennell and the topnotch Eastman Symphonic Wind Ensemble thrills us sonically with a 12-incher lp pairing first-time discings of Hindemoth's vivid and spicy Symphony in B Flat, Schonberg's "Theme and Variations" and the powerful Stravinsky "Symphony for Winds." All three are models of hi-fi at its very finest, and great music to boot.

KAPP RECORDS of New York City are to be congratulated for issuing a series of 12-inch waxings by the Rome Symphony Orchestra under Domenico Savino of "Opera Without Words." Many a music lover shies away from opera — though he shouldn't — and these albums, offering only the orchestral highlights, will make many converts. Our favorite is the Puccini "Turandot" album, probably because it contains some of the most thrilling and exotic and dramatic music Puccini ever wrote. There's one of Verdi's "Forza del Destino," another of "Cavalleria Rusticana" and a fourth pairing highlights of "Andrea Chenier" and "I Pagliacci." All are beautifully played and reproduced. (B12

All three are models of hi-fi at its very finest, and great music to boot.

KAPP RECORDS of New York City are to be congratulated for issuing a series of 12-inch waxings by the Rome Symphony Orchestra under Domenico Savino of "Opera Without Words." Many a music lover shies away from opera — though he shouldn't — and these albums, offering only the orchestral highlights, will make many converts. Our favorite is the Puccini "Turandot" album, probably because it contains some of the most thrilling and exotic and dramatic music Puccini ever wrote. There's one of Verdi's "Forza del Destino," another of "Cavalleria Rusticana" and a fourth pairing highlights of "Andrea Chenier" and "I Pagliacci." All are beautifully played and reproduced. (B12

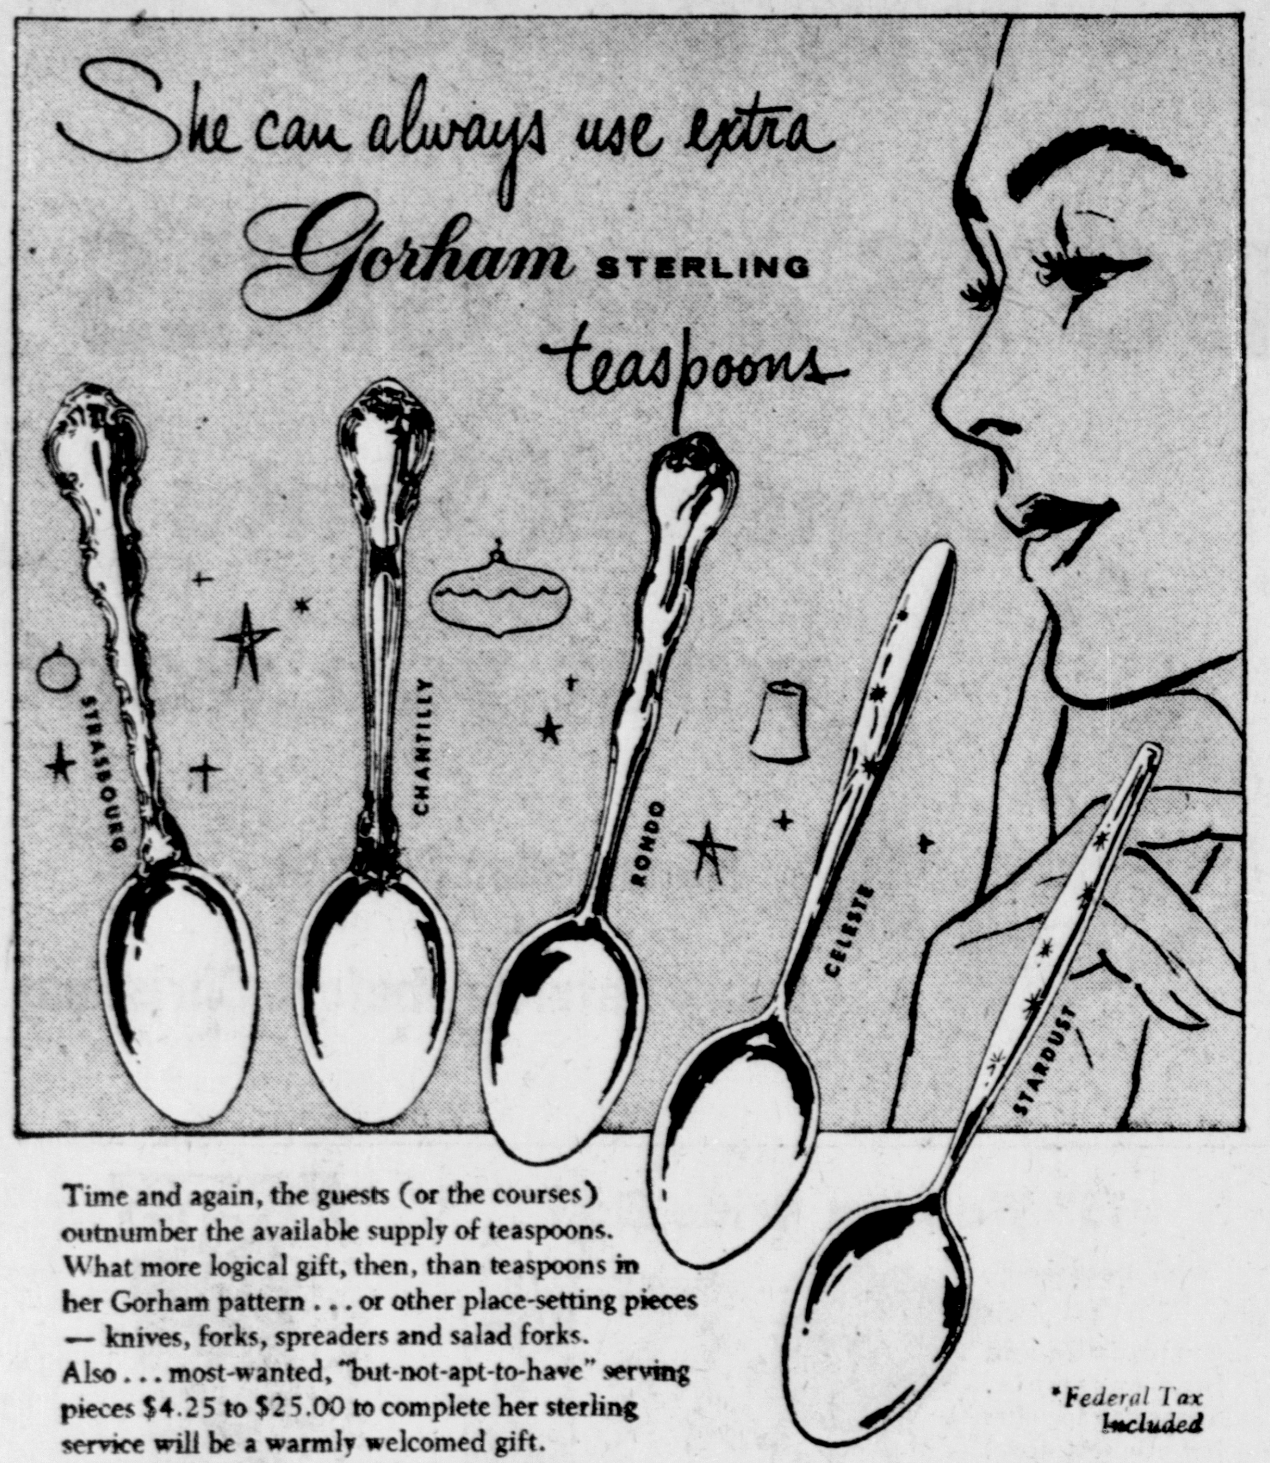
LAST MINUTE GIFT SUGGESTION!



Time and again, the guests (or the courses) outnumber the available supply of teaspoons. What more logical gift, then, than teaspoons in her Gorham pattern . . . or other place-setting pieces — knives, forks, spreaders and salad forks. Also . . . most-wanted, "but-not-apt-to-have" serving pieces $4.25 to $25.00 to complete her sterling service will be a warmly welcomed gift. Remember, Gorham Sterling teaspoons start as low as $3.75*

Christmas Parties Planned By Arlington Heights Ladies

A volunteer group of members of the Arlington Heights Womans club, who meet monthly with patients at Elgin State hospital, will hold a Christmas party there Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Local girl scouts and camp fire girls have made 100 Christmas corsages and another group of camp fire girls and bluebirds are making plastic comb cases. In addition to these gifts, each patient in the ward assigned to the volunteer group will receive a box containing useful items and jewelry, donated by club members and their friends.

Another party has been planned for Saturday, Dec. 14, according to Mrs. A. M. Gammill, chairman of the veterans' service committee. This will be a tree trimming party at the Nike base in Arlington Heights at 1:30 p.m. The soldiers will join the women in trimming the tree.

There will be holly wreaths for the windows and centerpieces and candles for the mess hall tables.

The Arlington high school Harmonettes will sing for both occasions and refreshments of homemade cookies and coffee will be served.

Although the number of members attending the hospital is limited, members are urged to attend the tree trimming party.

Mothers' Club Plans Square Dance Party

Square dancing, cards, gifts and refreshments will be highlights of Forest View Mothers' club anniversary party at 8 p.m. December 7. The affair will be held in the Forest View school with Tom Powers as caller.

Tickets are being sold by Mothers' club members or may be purchased at the door. (A

Arlington Heights Federal Savings Ups Interest Rate

An increase in savings rate to 3½ per cent has been approved by the board of directors of the Arlington Heights federal savings and Loan association, president Charles H. Wilson has announced.

The new rate, representing an increase of 16 2/3 per cent over the current 3 per cent rate, will become effective January 1, 1958.

"Despite vigorous competition for savings and the 'tightest' money market in years, the association has continued its record of steady growth and will show a substantial rise in assets during 1957," Wilson said.

THIS IS A significant contribution to the community, he pointed out.

"Most savers do not stop to realize that their thrift, expressed in gradually growing savings reserves, is beneficial not only to themselves but the the community as well," he said.

"When they place their savings in a convenient, local institution like Arlington Heights Federal, they help to ease the 'tight' money situation in this area and provide the funds needed by home buyers to establish themselves in the community.

"Savings thus are not only insured safe, conveniently available, and dividend-earning reserves for the saver, they are also the community's 'money reservoir' that is necessary for its growth and prosperity."

IN REVIEWING business prospects for 1958, Wilson said the outlook for savings and availablity of home credit is more favorable than during 1957.

He predicted the housing industry would fare somewhat better in 1958, with production above 1 million units. The rise would be due, he said to a greater supply of mortgage money, the desire of families with rising incomes for larger homes, a continued high rate of family migration, and a slight rise in new family formations. St. James Men Day Of Recollection Sunday, Dec 8

St. James Catholic men will hold a Day of Recollection Sunday, Dec. 8, with Rev. Richard Calek conducting the day's activities .The day will begin with the regular monthly Holy Name communion mass at 10 a.m. after which breakfast will be served in the school cafeteria.

A series of sermons and discussion periods will follow throughout the afternoon in the school auditorium, with the day ending at 4 p.m. with Holy Hour in the church.

All men of St. James parish are invited. (A

Master Masons To Hear Pastor

The Rev. Ridell A. Kelsey, minister of the First Methodist church of Evergreen Park, will address a group of master Masons tonight following a meeting of the Arlington Heights Masonic lodge.

The minister is a member of Compass lodge No. 922 of Chicago, a member of the speakers' bureau of the Grand Lodge committee on Masonic Information and was the principal speaker at the 30-district Masonic Memorial service.

THE REV. HUGHES B. Morris, minister of the Arlington Heights First Methodist church and a master Mason, will introduce the Rev. Kelsey. The meeting, open to all master Masons, is the first in a series of special programs planned by the local lodge.

Worshipful Master Russell R. Robertson and other 1958 officers were installed at public ceremonies in Palatine Masonic temple November 23. George L. Pfingsten served as installing master, Burkett A. Davis as installing marshal; David E. Wennerstrand, installing chaplain; Edmund R. Schmidt, installing secretary; and Elmer M. Beckwith of Des Plaines as installing organist.

HANS ALMGREN of Park Ridge, district deputy grand master, and presiding officers of Masonic organizations in neighboring communities saw Harry R. Whittington installed senior warden; Thomas H. Threlkeld, junior warden; Raoul H. Peeters, treasurer; and Gustav J. Albrecht, secretary.

Burkett A. Davis, 1950 Master of the lodge officiated in presenting to outgoing Master Charles R. Carlson his past master's apron. Also installed were William J. B. Roberts, senior deacon; Joseph H. Haynsworth, junior deacon; Robert W. Malcomson and George A. Sharp, stewards; Marvin A. Henrickson, marshall; and Neil W. Livingston, chaplain.

Anniversary Party For Mothers' Club

Forest View Mothers' club will hold its anniversary party at 8 p.m. December 7 in Forest View school. Highlights of the event will be square dancing and cards.

Refreshments will be available and tickets for the affair are now being sold by members of the club. Tickets may also be purchased at the door the night of the party.

The school is located ½ block north of Algonquin rd. on S. Arlington Heights rd. (A

Seeks ICC Approval As Mover

(CNS)—The Edwin C. Piepenbrink Delivery service, 1015 N. Kaspar ave., Arlington Heights, has asked the Illinois commerce commission to extend its authority as a common carrier to haul household goods, appliances, wardrobes, store fixtures, and office equipment in a 50 mile radius of the village.

The firm's owner, Edwin C. Piepenbrink, 302 N. Evergreen ave., Arlington Heights, sought the extension October 29 in a hearing before Assistant Commissioner Edward Whelan. The delivery service is represented by attorney William Walsh, also present at the hearing.

The Pitzen Cartage company, 308 S. Walnut st., Arlington Heights, and Ardmore Movers, 2804 Sigwalt st., Rolling Meadows, both opposed the proposed action; claiming they could handle the work of transporting the items listed by Piepenbrink in its application. (AK

Seeks ICC Approval As Mover

(CNS)—The Edwin C. Piepenbrink Delivery service, 1015 N. Kaspar ave., Arlington Heights, has asked the Illinois commerce commission to extend its authority as a common carrier to haul household goods, appliances, wardrobes, store fixtures, and office equipment in a 50 mile radius of the village.

The firm's owner, Edwin C. Piepenbrink, 302 N. Evergreen ave., Arlington Heights, sought the extension October 29 in a hearing before Assistant Commissioner Edward Whelan. The delivery service is represented by attorney William Walsh, also present at the hearing.

The Pitzen Cartage company, 308 S. Walnut st., Arlington Heights, and Ardmore Movers, 2804 Sigwalt st., Rolling Meadows, both opposed the proposed action; claiming they could handle the work of transporting the items listed by Piepenbrink in its application. (AK

TV VIEWERS will see these Arlington high school students December 21 on the Jim Lounsbury Record Hop program. Brenda Rudolph, Tom Gray, Burma Suhr, Wayne Thomson, Skip Meyer and Gloria Schamne were among the dancers chosen at the tryout held November 17 at the high school. Arlington high schoolers danced on TV last Christmas and the TV studio was so impressed with the group that Muriel Mills, local dance instructor, was contacted this year for a repeat performance. Local residents can be justly proud of its young people as most groups apply for an appearance on the show and wait many weeks before the date is confirmed. Another group of Miss Mills' students, the Saramba club made of high school freshmen and sophomores, appeared on TV Thanksgiving day.

Science, Society Is League Topic

John L. Kuranz of Prospect Heights will address the League of Woman Voters in Pioneer field house, Arlington Heights, Thursday night, December 12, on the subject "Science and Society."

Kuranz "doubles in brass" as a scientist and business executive in the development of nuclear instrumentation and isotope applications. He is vice president of Nuclear Chicago corporation.

For the last 12 years he has been working on nuclear instrumentation and isotope applications. He was connected with the Manhattan Project doing research on nuclear instrumentation at the University of Chicago. He received his BS in engineering from Marquette University in 1942. In 1944 he received a MS in engineering from the University of Oklahoma.

KURANZ AND HIS wife, Georgia, have just returned from a European tour where he gave lectures on industrial uses of isotopes in Belgium and participated in the UNESCO conference on research application of radio isotopes. Mrs. Kuranz has been active in the league and is currently serving as hospitality chairman.

League members are inviting their husbands to the meeting. All interested citizens are cordially invited. (ACM

Five Burglaries In Rural Areas

Three homes and 2 gas stations were broken into during the past week in unincorporated northwest suburban Cook county areas and goods and cash valued at $500 taken.

The 5 break-ins this week brings to a total of 12 the number in the unincorporated areas within the past 3 weeks. Also it brings the amount of loss to $6,500.

Hardest hit was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Hogreve, 2214 E. Palatine rd., Arlington Heights. Saturday night burglars took $300 in cash and a new sewing machine which was given to Mrs. Hogreve as a birthday present.

Two Sinclair gas stations near Palatine suffered $110 loss. The Les Floberg Sinclair station at Baldwin and Quintens rd. had $19 in change and 2 tires and a battery valued at $70 stolen Monday, Nov. 25. Thanksgiving night burglars invaded the Helgeson Bros. service station on Rand rd. west of Hicks rd., taking $20 in currency and $1.50 in stamps.

Arlington Terrace News

Anniversary Party

Ray and Ginny Nitch, 813 N. Hickory, and Ginny's mother, Mrs. Alice Bauer of Virginia Terrace, were guests at a party November 22 at the home of Ginny's sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. John Evers of Prospect Heights, who celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nitch of Coleman, Wis., visited their son, Ray Nitch, and family, 813 N. Hickory, the weekend of November 23. Sunday Ray's sister, Mrs. Rich Maitzen, of Scarsdale joined them for dinner at the Nitch home.

Welcome World

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Schoneck, 1022 N. Beverly announce the birth of their fifth child born in St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, November 15. The baby weighed 6 pounds 14 ounces and was named Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Glassie, 922 N. Beverley, are parents of a third child born in Elmhurst Memorial hospital November 18. The baby weighed 6 pounds 8 ounces and was named Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kaminski, 926 N. Beverly, have a second son born November 23 in St. Joseph hospital, Elgin. They named him Alan Joseph and he was welcomed home by his 6-year-old brother, Stevie.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ludwig, 827 N. Hickory announce the arrival of their first child Thanksgiving day. The baby weighed 6 pounds 14 ounces and was born in Resurrection hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton George and daughter, Madeline, of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kuenstler were Thanksgiving dinner guests at the Kuenstler home, 915 N. Haddow.

Dave and Pat Almblad, 947 N. Haddow, had dinner guests Saturday night. They were Phil and Frank Reeves and Ed and Hazel Slezek from Chicago. The group also enjoyed a game of cards and refreshments.

Wedding Bells

Bernadette Johanna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wrobleski, 927 N. Haddow, was married to Rich Becker Saturday in St. John United Church of Christ. A reception, at which dinner was served, was held at 6 p.m. at the Jolly club in Chicago.

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended the Ken Kunestler family, 951 N. Haddow, on the death of their grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Oliver, who died November 19 in Des Moines.

THRONGS OF SCHOOL CHILDREN and parents swarmed into downtown Arlington Heights Friday and Saturday as the official Christmas shopping season got under way. One of those who just came along for an eyeful was the tot in the foreground, studiously wondering if this is the real Santa.

This Week with PTA

Nativity Story At South Junior High

The Christmas season will be celebrated in song and pageantry at South Junior high school Tuesday, Dec. 10 at 8:15 p.m.

Mrs. Ruth Raasch, vocal music instructor, will direct 140 students in the nativity production.

How to be a More Effective Parent

To a near-capacity audience at Miner school November 26, Dr. Harold G. Shane, professor of education at Northwestern university, suggested 20 ways to be a more effective parent.

Among suggestions were: Be as considerate and courteous to children as it is hoped they will be to parents in return. Treat them as we wish them to treat others. Set an example in speech and manner for the child to follow. Be certain he is ready to master a new technique before insisting that he accomplish a new skill. Be careful to do things with the child as well as for him. Use the dinner hour conversation to enrich his thinking and experience and choose words and expressions that will "sparkle" his vocabulary. Avoid foisting personal prejudices and fears on children. Recognize the variation in physical coordinaton, individual abilities and interests and do not expect the child to master the parents' shortcomings.

It was pointed out that of the waking hours in a full year, the school only has a child one-fifth of the time, hence the school cannot or should not be held entirely accountable for his behavior.

"Let us give our time and effort now for we are really building the kind of tomorrow there will be," said Dr. Shane in conclusion.

Does Father Know Best?

"Know thyself, and you will know your child, your wife, or your husband." Robert Goodman, director of Family Service in Highland Park, offered this advice to all parents in his address, "Does Father Know Best?" at the South Junior High PTA meeting last Tuesday evening.

The problem of parental authority and its division between the 2 parents is not peculiar to the suburban community, but exists in cities as well, according to Mr. Goodman.

The acceptance of occasional flareups in a family as a more-or-less normal reaction was suggested as a sound basis for dealing with them. These controversies are difficult to avoid and are contributed to by fatigue, the complexity of modern living, the matriarchal position of the mother and the forced absence of the father during much of the day. After acceptance of the problem as normal, the solution comes through a reasonable approach, mutual respect, tolerance, love and understanding.

A constructive attitude is helpful, concentrating on the strength, rather than the weakness, of each family member.

Mrs. Ruth Raasch and a sextet of junior high girls entertained with several selections and Mrs. Raasch played "Romance" on the violin accompanied by her daughter at the piano.

Discipline, Domination or Direction?

Dr. Ledford J. Bischof in his talk "Discipline—Domination or Direction?" pointed out in a very entertaining, but also informative talk, that all 3 of these points are necessary to achieve a good result when working with a child. Dr. Bischof, associate professor of education at Northern Illinois State college, spoke before a PTA meeting at Westgate school last week.

Discipline he defines as "to train or drill," domination as "to chastise or punish," and direction as "to develop by instruction and exercise." Discipline and domination are fairly quick methods, but direction is very slow. Punishment is one of the quick ways, but does not last long.

Philip Breiding, speech correctionist, gave a short talk to familiarize parents with the speech program at Westgate school.

Legislation Workshop

Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers will hold a legislation workshop for this area Friday, Dec. 6, in the Prudential building auditorium, Chicago.

Supt. Ralph E. Clabaugh will participate as a panel member in the afternoon session. (A

Anniversary Party

Ray and Ginny Nitch, 813 N. Hickory, and Ginny's mother, Mrs. Alice Bauer of Virginia Terrace, were guests at a party November 22 at the home of Ginny's sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. John Evers of Prospect Heights, who celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nitch of Coleman, Wis., visited their son, Ray Nitch, and family, 813 N. Hickory, the weekend of November 23. Sunday Ray's sister, Mrs. Rich Maitzen, of Scarsdale joined them for dinner at the Nitch home.

Welcome World

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Schoneck, 1022 N. Beverly announce the birth of their fifth child born in St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, November 15. The baby weighed 6 pounds 14 ounces and was named Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Glassie, 922 N. Beverley, are parents of a third child born in Elmhurst Memorial hospital November 18. The baby weighed 6 pounds 8 ounces and was named Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kaminski, 926 N. Beverly, have a second son born November 23 in St. Joseph hospital, Elgin. They named him Alan Joseph and he was welcomed home by his 6-year-old brother, Stevie.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ludwig, 827 N. Hickory announce the arrival of their first child Thanksgiving day. The baby weighed 6 pounds 14 ounces and was born in Resurrection hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton George and daughter, Madeline, of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kuenstler were Thanksgiving dinner guests at the Kuenstler home, 915 N. Haddow.

Dave and Pat Almblad, 947 N. Haddow, had dinner guests Saturday night. They were Phil and Frank Reeves and Ed and Hazel Slezek from Chicago. The group also enjoyed a game of cards and refreshments.

Wedding Bells

Bernadette Johanna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wrobleski, 927 N. Haddow, was married to Rich Becker Saturday in St. John United Church of Christ. A reception, at which dinner was served, was held at 6 p.m. at the Jolly club in Chicago.

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended the Ken Kunestler family, 951 N. Haddow, on the death of their grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Oliver, who died November 19 in Des Moines.

THRONGS OF SCHOOL CHILDREN and parents swarmed into downtown Arlington Heights Friday and Saturday as the official Christmas shopping season got under way. One of those who just came along for an eyeful was the tot in the foreground, studiously wondering if this is the real Santa.

THURSDAY DEC. 5, 1957

This Week with PTA

Nativity Story At South Junior High

The Christmas season will be celebrated in song and pageantry at South Junior high school Tuesday, Dec. 10 at 8:15 p.m.

Mrs. Ruth Raasch, vocal music instructor, will direct 140 students in the nativity production.

How to be a More Effective Parent

To a near-capacity audience at Miner school November 26, Dr. Harold G. Shane, professor of education at Northwestern university, suggested 20 ways to be a more effective parent.

Among suggestions were: Be as considerate and courteous to children as it is hoped they will be to parents in return. Treat them as we wish them to treat others. Set an example in speech and manner for the child to follow. Be certain he is ready to master a new technique before insisting that he accomplish a new skill. Be careful to do things with the child as well as for him. Use the dinner hour conversation to enrich his thinking and experience and choose words and expressions that will "sparkle" his vocabulary. Avoid foisting personal prejudices and fears on children. Recognize the variation in physical coordinaton, individual abilities and interests and do not expect the child to master the parents' shortcomings.

It was pointed out that of the waking hours in a full year, the school only has a child one-fifth of the time, hence the school cannot or should not be held entirely accountable for his behavior.

"Let us give our time and effort now for we are really building the kind of tomorrow there will be," said Dr. Shane in conclusion.

Does Father Know Best?

"Know thyself, and you will know your child, your wife, or your husband." Robert Goodman, director of Family Service in Highland Park, offered this advice to all parents in his address, "Does Father Know Best?" at the South Junior High PTA meeting last Tuesday evening.

The problem of parental authority and its division between the 2 parents is not peculiar to the suburban community, but exists in cities as well, according to Mr. Goodman.

The acceptance of occasional flareups in a family as a more-or-less normal reaction was suggested as a sound basis for dealing with them. These controversies are difficult to avoid and are contributed to by fatigue, the complexity of modern living, the matriarchal position of the mother and the forced absence of the father during much of the day. After acceptance of the problem as normal, the solution comes through a reasonable approach, mutual respect, tolerance, love and understanding.

A constructive attitude is helpful, concentrating on the strength, rather than the weakness, of each family member.

Mrs. Ruth Raasch and a sextet of junior high girls entertained with several selections and Mrs. Raasch played "Romance" on the violin accompanied by her daughter at the piano.

Discipline, Domination or Direction?

Dr. Ledford J. Bischof in his talk "Discipline—Domination or Direction?" pointed out in a very entertaining, but also informative talk, that all 3 of these points are necessary to achieve a good result when working with a child. Dr. Bischof, associate professor of education at Northern Illinois State college, spoke before a PTA meeting at Westgate school last week.

Discipline he defines as "to train or drill," domination as "to chastise or punish," and direction as "to develop by instruction and exercise." Discipline and domination are fairly quick methods, but direction is very slow. Punishment is one of the quick ways, but does not last long.

Philip Breiding, speech correctionist, gave a short talk to familiarize parents with the speech program at Westgate school.

Legislation Workshop

Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers will hold a legislation workshop for this area Friday, Dec. 6, in the Prudential building auditorium, Chicago.

Supt. Ralph E. Clabaugh will participate as a panel member in the afternoon session. (A

School News

Sue Hollister, ticket chairman for the "Holiday Hop" December 13, has announced that more than 75 per cent of available tickets have been sold. The dance, sponsored by the Virginia Terrace Improvement association, will benefit the Wilson Community kindergarten. Anyone wishing further details may contact Sue at 1211 Race.

This month there will be no Wilson school PTA meeting or parent-education meeting, announced Gerry Williams, PTA president.

Assuming the secretarial duties of the cooperative baby-sitting club is Jo Hult, Cl 5-0428.

New Residents

Former Iowans are new Terrace residents at 1252 Chicago. Robert and Jeanette Westmark are natives of Dubuque, but moved here 2 weeks ago from Ames, Iowa. Their family includes 5 children: Judy, 7; Patty, 5; Shirl Ann, 3; Bobby, 19 months; and Kathy, 8 months. Mr. Westmark is a field engineer for Electro-Data Co., a division of Burroughs.

Frank and Julie Fietsch are newcomers who moved in 1110 Yale, formerly owned by the Kelly Forsbergs. The Fietsch family moved from California and they have 2 sons, Mark, 2½, and Douglas, 15 months. Mr. Fietsch is employed by the Color Print Corp.

Sophomores Carl Massa, 1710 Olive, and Leslie Silver, 1247 Chicago, were named on the high school scholastic honor roll.

Married Saturday

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fredericksen, 1216 Race, was married at 11 a.m. Saturday in St. James church. Mary Ann became the bride of Anthony Heiberger. Father Lane officiated at the ceremony. A breakfast was held at the Fredericksen home for the bridal party and immediate family and a reception was held at the American Legion Hall.

Carol and Bruce Williams, 1215 Race, are recuperating from tonsillectomies performed in St. Francis hospital November 29.

A baby shower was held Tuesday evening at the home of Carol Clarkson, 1259 Chicago, in honor of Jackie Koenig, 1255 Chicago. Women who presented Jackie with a new stroller were Grace Abbott, Adele Yore, Doris Silver, Jerry Rix, Hal Trowe, Betty Gumz, Dee Perry, Monica Slaight, Dorothy Catlin, Gianna Riefstahl, Donna Garland and Marcy Munk.

Thanksgiving Guests

Thanksgiving guests of Evelyn and Albert Schmitt, 1321 Illinois, included Evelyn's nephew, Dave Hilgers, a junior at Beloit college, and a friend of his, Gean Pierre Nathusius of Guatemala. Other guests, Dave's parents, grandmother and brother, Robert, were entertained by the boys singing fraternity songs.

Visiting Herb and Hal Trowe, 1240 Chicago, was Hal's sister from Norfolk, Va. The Trowes spent Thanksgiving weekend in Rockford with Herb's parents.

Weekend guests of Ray and Vaneta Kellogg, 1341 Wilke, were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Whitney of Elgin.

Traveling from Chetek, Wis., were the parents of Lloyd Abbott, 1251 Chicago. The families then joined his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Ward for Thanksgiving dinner in Lincoln, Ill.

Joint Celebration

Shirlee Pircher, 1330 Illinois, and Addie Fairfield, 1333 Illinois, gave a party in honor of their husbands' birthdays Saturday evening. Besides guests of honor, Frank Pircher and John Fairfield, the couples attending were LaRue and Andy Reed, Doris and Ken Koser and Helen and Virgil Marineau.

Queen-of-hearts was the theme of a birthday party November 23 in honor of Carol Williams, 1215 Race. Her guests were presented with gold sequined crowns, gold jewel boxes and golden wands and the birthday cake was heart-shaped to carry out the theme. Celebrating Carol's ninth birthday were Jane Hult, Linda Miller, Leslie Bewley, Betty Fredericksen, Janet Crowe, Patty Van de Merkt, Donna O'Brien, Tina Kottke, Carol Klyde and Barbara Walters.

An excursion to the fire station was a treat for guests of Whitney Kellogg, 1341 Wilke, to observe his eighth birthday. Examining the fire equipment were Scotty Poklen, Larry Larson, Robert and Ronald Doljes and Dave Griffith. (A

"SHHH—DON'T WAKE THE GIANT. His stick is close at hand!", the giant's wife warns Jack. This is a glimpse of the fun in store for local youngsters Sunday, Dec. 8, when Village Theatre Inc. will present "Jack and the Beanstalk" at 2 and 4 o'clock in the Arlington high school gym, under the direction of Kay Hawley. Ted Suhr is the sleeping giant who has just been lured to sleep by Alice Scheske as the golden harp. Jane Miller is the giant's timid wife, and Carol Frederick is portraying Jack.

Tickets, which are 35 cents, are available now at: 722 E. Euclid, 733 S. Highland; 2705 Oriole lane in Rolling Meadows; Red Robin Cleaners on Campbell and Westgate Home Furnishings in the Westgate shopping center.

Open House

Florence Gordon had open house Tuesday for friends who were interested in buying candles for the oncoming holidays.

Holiday Guests

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. House are happy to have his mother, Mrs. Inez House of Chicago, with them through Thanksgiving and the following week.

The Arthur Leus' Thanksgiving guests were the senior Arthur Leus and the great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leu of Des Plaines.

Norma and Al Snap took their son, Steve, to Freeport for Thanksgiving dinner with Al's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Davidson, who have just moved into their new home. The balance of their visit was spent with Al's mother in Freeport.

The John O. Millers had out-of-town company for the holiday. Mrs. Miller's parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Horsley and her niece, Miss Bonnie Gillingham, came from Bay Village, Ohio. It was Bonnie's first visit to Chicago and she especially enjoyed the sightseeing trip the family took.

Initiated at U. of Ill.

Doug Mockenhaupt, son of the Jerry Mockenhaupts, was home from the University of Illinois for the holiday weekend. When he went back to school he was initiated into an honorary engineering fraternity. Jerry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Mockenhaupt were with them for the Thanksgiving dinner, together with their daughter and son, Ann and Dick, Father Robert Mockenhaupt and Ann's brother, Jerry Hanney of Evanston.

The Walter Munsons entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Large of Chicago, and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Tracey and 3 children of Park Ridge, for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sorensen were among those attending the square dance Saturday night at the high school for the benefit of the new hospital. After the dance the Sorensens brought 16 guests to their house for coffee and cake.

The Eldon Robsons had a family Thanksgiving dinner at their home for Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kinne and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Robson Jr. and son, Evanston; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coles, Mt. Prospect; and Judge and Mrs. E. A. Robson, Wilmette.

Moved to Barrington

Monday the Frank Widbins moved into their new home in Barrington. They formerly lived at 836 N. Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rubenking had her parents with them for Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Kindred came from Beason and Mrs. Rubenking's sister and family, the Charles W. Nicholsons, were here from Jacksonville, Ill.

Sunday the Casimer Nastals had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Walters and daughter of Arlington Heights.

The R. A. Beckmans went to Flossmor for Thanksgiving in the home of their oldest daughter, Mrs. Robert Soderborg, and family. Another daughter, Mrs. Jack Kiely and her family were there from Chicago. (A

Married Saturday

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fredericksen, 1216 Race, was married at 11 a.m. Saturday in St. James church. Mary Ann became the bride of Anthony Heiberger. Father Lane officiated at the ceremony. A breakfast was held at the Fredericksen home for the bridal party and immediate family and a reception was held at the American Legion Hall.

Carol and Bruce Williams, 1215 Race, are recuperating from tonsillectomies performed in St. Francis hospital November 29.

A baby shower was held Tuesday evening at the home of Carol Clarkson, 1259 Chicago, in honor of Jackie Koenig, 1255 Chicago. Women who presented Jackie with a new stroller were Grace Abbott, Adele Yore, Doris Silver, Jerry Rix, Hal Trowe, Betty Gumz, Dee Perry, Monica Slaight, Dorothy Catlin, Gianna Riefstahl, Donna Garland and Marcy Munk.

Thanksgiving Guests

Thanksgiving guests of Evelyn and Albert Schmitt, 1321 Illinois, included Evelyn's nephew, Dave Hilgers, a junior at Beloit college, and a friend of his, Gean Pierre Nathusius of Guatemala. Other guests, Dave's parents, grandmother and brother, Robert, were entertained by the boys singing fraternity songs.

Visiting Herb and Hal Trowe, 1240 Chicago, was Hal's sister from Norfolk, Va. The Trowes spent Thanksgiving weekend in Rockford with Herb's parents.

Weekend guests of Ray and Vaneta Kellogg, 1341 Wilke, were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Whitney of Elgin.

Traveling from Chetek, Wis., were the parents of Lloyd Abbott, 1251 Chicago. The families then joined his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Ward for Thanksgiving dinner in Lincoln, Ill.

Joint Celebration

Shirlee Pircher, 1330 Illinois, and Addie Fairfield, 1333 Illinois, gave a party in honor of their husbands' birthdays Saturday evening. Besides guests of honor, Frank Pircher and John Fairfield, the couples attending were LaRue and Andy Reed, Doris and Ken Koser and Helen and Virgil Marineau.

Queen-of-hearts was the theme of a birthday party November 23 in honor of Carol Williams, 1215 Race. Her guests were presented with gold sequined crowns, gold jewel boxes and golden wands and the birthday cake was heart-shaped to carry out the theme. Celebrating Carol's ninth birthday were Jane Hult, Linda Miller, Leslie Bewley, Betty Fredericksen, Janet Crowe, Patty Van de Merkt, Donna O'Brien, Tina Kottke, Carol Klyde and Barbara Walters.

An excursion to the fire station was a treat for guests of Whitney Kellogg, 1341 Wilke, to observe his eighth birthday. Examining the fire equipment were Scotty Poklen, Larry Larson, Robert and Ronald Doljes and Dave Griffith. (A

"SHHH—DON'T WAKE THE GIANT. His stick is close at hand!", the giant's wife warns Jack. This is a glimpse of the fun in store for local youngsters Sunday, Dec. 8, when Village Theatre Inc. will present "Jack and the Beanstalk" at 2 and 4 o'clock in the Arlington high school gym, under the direction of Kay Hawley. Ted Suhr is the sleeping giant who has just been lured to sleep by Alice Scheske as the golden harp. Jane Miller is the giant's timid wife, and Carol Frederick is portraying Jack.

Tickets, which are 35 cents, are available now at: 722 E. Euclid, 733 S. Highland; 2705 Oriole lane in Rolling Meadows; Red Robin Cleaners on Campbell and Westgate Home Furnishings in the Westgate shopping center.

Open House

Florence Gordon had open house Tuesday for friends who were interested in buying candles for the oncoming holidays.

Holiday Guests

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. House are happy to have his mother, Mrs. Inez House of Chicago, with them through Thanksgiving and the following week.

The Arthur Leus' Thanksgiving guests were the senior Arthur Leus and the great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leu of Des Plaines.

Norma and Al Snap took their son, Steve, to Freeport for Thanksgiving dinner with Al's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Davidson, who have just moved into their new home. The balance of their visit was spent with Al's mother in Freeport.

The John O. Millers had out-of-town company for the holiday. Mrs. Miller's parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Horsley and her niece, Miss Bonnie Gillingham, came from Bay Village, Ohio. It was Bonnie's first visit to Chicago and she especially enjoyed the sightseeing trip the family took.

Initiated at U. of Ill.

Doug Mockenhaupt, son of the Jerry Mockenhaupts, was home from the University of Illinois for the holiday weekend. When he went back to school he was initiated into an honorary engineering fraternity. Jerry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Mockenhaupt were with them for the Thanksgiving dinner, together with their daughter and son, Ann and Dick, Father Robert Mockenhaupt and Ann's brother, Jerry Hanney of Evanston.

The Walter Munsons entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Large of Chicago, and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Tracey and 3 children of Park Ridge, for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sorensen were among those attending the square dance Saturday night at the high school for the benefit of the new hospital. After the dance the Sorensens brought 16 guests to their house for coffee and cake.

The Eldon Robsons had a family Thanksgiving dinner at their home for Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kinne and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Robson Jr. and son, Evanston; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coles, Mt. Prospect; and Judge and Mrs. E. A. Robson, Wilmette.

Moved to Barrington

Monday the Frank Widbins moved into their new home in Barrington. They formerly lived at 836 N. Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rubenking had her parents with them for Thanksgiving. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Kindred came from Beason and Mrs. Rubenking's sister and family, the Charles W. Nicholsons, were here from Jacksonville, Ill.

Sunday the Casimer Nastals had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Walters and daughter of Arlington Heights.

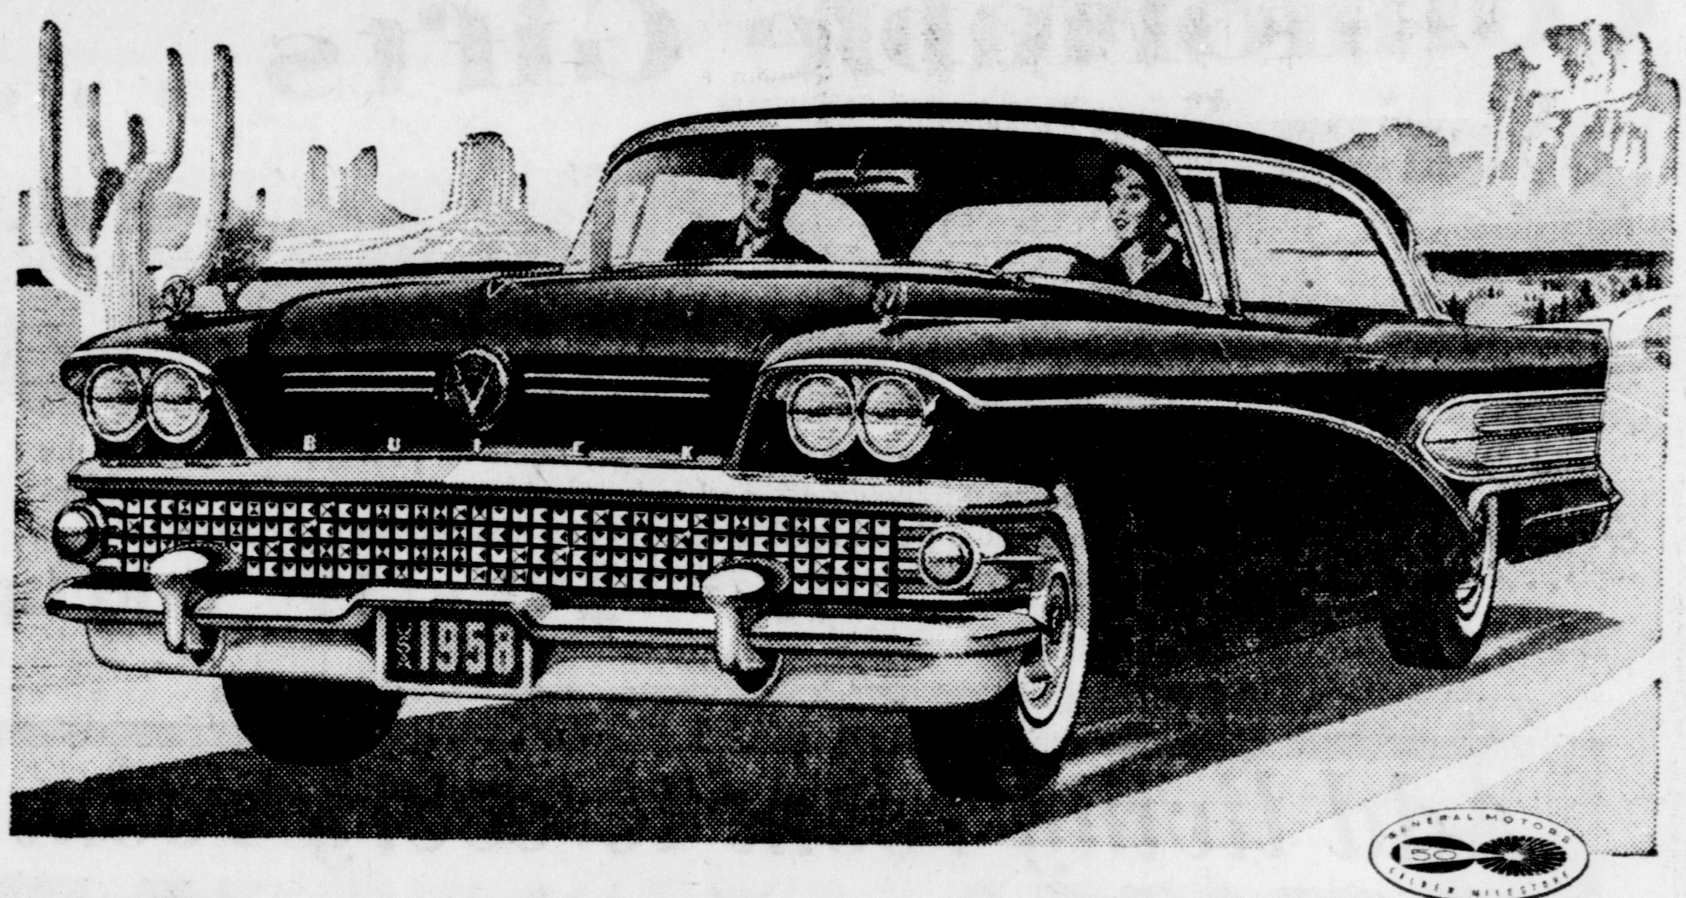
B-58 BUICK



First Big Car that's light on its feet

—and light on your budget too!

Look it over. Big—brawny—room for the Marines.

Step in. Turn the key. Get braced for a surprise.

In your first mile of driving, you discover the first big car in history that really is nimble, easy to handle, light on its feet.

You boss a B-12000 engine. You command a Flight Pitch Dynaflow.* You switch the pitch a million ways for performance that's next to perfection.

You find a Miracle Ride plus Air-Poise Suspension* that floats you like silk on the breeze.

But that's nothing to the discovery you make about this '58 Buick when you get back to the showroom.

You learn you can own this 1958 Buick SPECIAL—this bottom-priced of the B-58 Buick line—for just a fraction more than the well-known smaller cars would cost you.

So come drive the B-58 Buick SPECIAL. It's based on more aviation principles than any car in history. It makes your heart take wing. Try it today.

Flight Pitch Dynaflow standard on* LIMITED and ROADMASTER 75, optional at extra cost on other Series. Advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow optional on SPECIAL Series. Air-Poise Suspension optional at extra cost on all Series.

the myth of "greater selection out of town"

The dictionary defines a myth as "a thing whose existence is imaginary." And nothing is more imaginary than the idea that if you shop in some BIG CITY many miles from here you will have a wider choice of merchandise than in our local stores.

True, the metropolitan stores may show more individual items, but they're more of the same! In some cases they may not even have as much variety as your hometown merchants.

And when it comes to style, our storekeepers are just as up to the minute as their big-town brethren. That's because they send buyers to the same markets! The big stores have no monopoly on sources of supply.

When you compare local prices with those of out-of-town stores, don't forget what it costs you in gasoline, oil, car depreciation, parking fees and other expenses when you drive long distances. What might seem like a saving often turns into a loss.

CONSTRUCTION of a small metal maintenance building (at left) on the grounds of Arlington Heights South junior high school has been halted by village officials until a dispute about whether or not a building permit should be issued for it can be ironed out.

Boy Scout Fund Canvass Slated

Scouting fund drive canvassers will intensify their efforts in Arlington Heights during the next 2 weeks.

The campaigners hope to successfully wind up activities before the arrival of the Christmas season. In the 3 weeks since the start of the local appeal some $5,500 has been raised, according to a Scouting executive.

This sum represents about 52 per cent of the $10,500 goal within the village. The overall goal in the Blackhawk district, which also includes Mount Prospect, Prospect Heights and Elk Grove, is $18,500.

Collections have lagged behind the pace of last year because of a shortage of manpower to call on prospective donors, added the Scout leader.

Last year, by comparison, Arlington Heights donated $8500 to help offset the costs of providing adequate facilities.

THE DRIVE has gone well in Mount Prospect, with a total of $5,500 turned in and the campaign nearly over. Mount Prospect gave only about $4,000 last year, so the present drive has shown a net increase of about 50 per cent.

Prospect Heights has not turned in a compaign report yet and Elk Grove will conduct a drive Saturday.

In October the Blackhawk district gained its 2,000th boy in the cub, boy and explorer movements. Eighteen months ago there were only 1,400 boys active.

Birth of Christ Devotionals Feature Circle Yule Parties

Yule parties are being planned by 5 evening circles and one daytime group of the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights to be held at various times during the month in the homes of members. A devotional program on the birth of Christ is to be presented in each circle by the Bible leaders. Those participating will be Mrs. E. P. Jordan Jr., Mrs. Edward G. Carlisle, Mrs. William Willy, Mrs. Charles A. Opela, Mrs. R. N. Bergstrom and Mrs. Ivan Quackenbush.

Circle 2 is planning a pre-Christmas potluck Wednesday, Dec. 11, at 12:30 p.m. at the home of its chairman, Mrs. H. A. Burnett, 317 Derbyshire. Mrs. Charles F. Klement, co-chairman of circle 2, is to be co-hostess for the afternoon. Instead of a gift-exchange, members are contributing money for a picture which will be presented to the Niki base for use in the chapel.

MRS. EDWARD Carlisle, 1006 S. Vail, is to open her home Wednesday, Dec. 18, at 8 p.m. for the Christmas meeting of circle 8, the business and professional group. Mrs. Jennie McInnes and Miss Gertrude Adam are to be co-hostesses at the meeting which will feature a white elephant gift exchange.

Mrs. William Willy, 807 E. Olive, with Mrs. Robert Vanek as co-hostess, is planning to entertain at her home Wednesday, Dec. 11, at an 8 p.m. Christmas party for members of circle 9. Members are planning to purchase games for the Niki base rather than exchange Christmas gifts this year.

Members of circle 10 are to meet this month in the home of Mrs. Ralph Ruthenberg, 747 S. Walnut, Wednesday, Dec. 11, at 8 p.m. for a Christmas party. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Ruthenberg are to be Mrs. Bruce Moore and Mrs. N. L. Bronson.

MRS. E. S. REINHART, 801 S. Walnut, is to be hostess at her home this month at a Christmas party to be held Wednesday, Dec. 18, at 8 p.m. planned for members of circle 11. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. James Lee and Mrs. Henry Taylor.

Mrs. B. L. Buxton, 41 S. Glenwood, Palatine, with Mrs. John Warder as co-hostess, is planning to entertain with a Christmas party at her home at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 11, for members of circle 12. A grab-bag exchange will be featured during the evening. (A

Continue Edwards Hearing

Hearing of a case involving Mrs. H. L. Edwards, charged with leaving the scene of an accident, versus the state of Illinois, was postponed again Wednesday, until Jan. 18. A $5,000 surety bond has been posted. The charge is being heard in Arlington Heights police court.

According to assistant state's attorney W. F. Levander, police have not completed their examination of 7-year-old Johnny Skallerup, who is still at Resurrection hospital.

JOHNNY IS NOW off the critical list, according to hospital authorities. He suffered severe internal injuries as a result of being struck down, while riding his bicycle, at Princeton ave. and Oakton st. Nov. 5.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Skallerup, 1511 Oakton st., Arlington Heights, and is a second grade pupil at Ridge school.

Mrs. Edwards, 59, lives at 1112 N. Princeton, Arlington Heights.

Thanksgiving Trips

A trip to Cleveland enabled Dot and Bob Agnes and youngsters, Roberta and Dennis, 1503 Fremont, to visit friends and relatives. They stayed with Bob's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Agnes.

The Townsend family of 1517 Fremont visited in Dearborn, Mich., with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Higgins. Betty Lou, Bill and daughters, Pamela and Patricia, were much impressed during their tour of the Ford Foundation.

Elinor and Howard Huff, daughter, Sharon, and pet, "Ginger," motored to Toledo to spend 4 days with Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Huff.

Milwaukee was the destination of Jean and Ray Collins and 4 youngsters of 1604 Fremont. They were guests of Jean's uncle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Alexander.

House guests for several days with Jane and Don Rice, 403 Reuter, were Don't parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rice of Erlanger, Ky., sister, Clarissa Rice, a student at Marquette university, and brother, Richard Rice, who is attending Northwestern.

Recently returned from Germany and in the process of separation from the army at Ft. Sheridan are Mr. and Mrs. David Peirick and 18-month-old Scott of Alton, Ill. They spent 6 days with Mrs. Peirick's sister and husband, Joan and Fred Miller, 505 Yale. After their visit, the Millers left for Alton to spend the holiday with Jo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wright.

Weekend Guests

Weekend guests with Carol and Bill Franck, 504 Yale, were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Frymire and 3 youngsters, former neighbors from Lansing, Mich. Previous guests, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Jennison of Bangor, Me., helped Carol and Bill celebrate their 11th wedding anniversary.

While in town for TV and radio shows, Buddy Greco spent several days with Carolyn and Dick Burkett, 1405 Euclid. Buddy and the Burketts had Thanksgiving dinner with Louise and Ken Smith, 1515 Euclid, initiating their recreation room.

Birthdays

Lunch and the movies with his "gang" celebrated the 10th birthday of Skip DeRosa, son of Dolly and Frank DeRosa, 235 Yale. Guests included Jim Baschleben, Ed Johnson, Jim Welton, Darryl Burkett, Jeff McCulloch and Robert and Richard Herigodt.

Similar entertainment was the choice of Don Fiduccia when he turned 8 last Saturday. Parents, Jane and Sal, 1615 Johanna terr., treated the following to lunch and movies: Kathy Ann Schillen, Susan Conroy, Jerry Smith, Ken and Alan Van Bladel.

Birthday "gal," Eleanor DeZonna was guest of honor at a kaffee klatsch hosted by Lou Kuharich, 1701 Fremont. Among the well wishers were Jackie Rudolphy, Elaine Maley, Bert Graczyck, Elaine Hoppe and Estelle Baranowski.

Christening

Rev. Luther V. Stephan of St. Peter Lutheran church officiated November 24 at the christening of Cynthia June Sievert, 2-month-old daughter of Dorothy and Kurt Sievert, 204 S. Reuter dr. Godparents were Lois and Ross Kerr of Chicago. Present besides brother, Henry, 14 months, were Linda and Diane Kerr and aunt, Elizabeth Sievert.

Parties

Elaine and Bob Maley, 305 Reuter, arranged a surprise farewell party for Carol and Chris Lorenzen, soon to leave for their new home in New Orleans. A gift was presented to the Lorenzens by Ellie and Bud DeZonna, Kay and Marty Pattyn, Lou and Chuck Kuharich, Bert and Andy Graczyk, Jackie and George Rudolphy and Jean and Dick Bennett. Sharing with the gift but unable to attend were Elaine and Dick Hoppe, Jane and Don Rice and Bari and Pat O'Dea.

A neighborhood get-together at the home of Bert and Andy Graczyk, 1417 Fremont, was enjoyed by Jeanne and Ed Huster, Estelle and Chuck Baranowski, Jackie and George Rudolphy, Ellie and Bud DeZonna, Jane and Lou Bolus, Lou and Chuck Kuharich, Elaine and Bob Maley, Carolyn and Dick Burkett and Buddy Greco.

The association urges all residents to return immediately to Ralph Hawkes their reservations for the children's Christmas party to be held at Pioneer Park from 3 to 6 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 22. This information is needed to expedite purchase of gifts and refreshments.

Begin Construction of New Underground Phone Cable

The noise of air hammers and the rumble of giant digging machines will be heard in the Arlington Heights area for about 3 weeks.

Illinois Bell Telephone company manager R. E. Kozeliski said excavation work began last week on a major telephone project — addition of underground cables to provide additional long distance service between Arlington Heights and Wheeling. It will also serve the residential development of 250 Harris Prospect Homes.

ACCORDING TO Kozeliski, route of the cables will be east along the north side of Palatine road from Arlington Heights road to Buffalo Grove road. The cable

"We hope our friends in the Arlington Heights area will excuse the commotion, dust, and noises this work will probably bring," said Kozeliski. "We certainly appreciate the patience and cooperation of our friends in the inconvenience this work may cause."

THE CABLE will be installed in the trench, protected by 23,442 duct-feet of conduit. Five manholes will also be constructed to through and spliced, and to provide access for future maintenance work on the circuits.

The work of digging trenches and replacing the pavement will be performed by the Lyman Construction company of Chicago under the supervision of Illinois Bell technicians.

The trench work is scheduled to be completed by the middle of December and the cable will be installed and operating by the middle of March, Kozeliski said.

Got the Christmas spirit yet? Man, if you haven't you're really not livin'. Honestly, fellows, if you want to do some shopping for the family and can use some help, try one of our locations. We have so many items that will fit your budget and will make wonderful gifts.

The person who said, "It isn't the gift, it's the thought behind it" certainly said something. Actually, one doesn't have to spend a lot of money to make other people happy. We have a marvelous selection of gift items this year and most of them are priced so reasonably. Then you can get into the colognes and perfumes; naturally, those will run a little higher. We have plenty of help this Christmas, and they will be glad to help you with your selections. Of course, this column isn't only for the fellows, but for the gals also, but it usually seems the fellows need more help in making their selections.

You'll be welcome at any of our locations whether your purchases are large or small, so why not come in real soon, browse around and get your shopping completed before the big rush.

Democrats Form New State Group

The Highland Park organizing conference of the Democratic Federation of Illinois will be held at the Recreation center, 1850 Green Bay rd., Highland Park, at 8 p.m., Tuesday, Dec. 10, to begin the organization of Democratic clubs in Lake county and the north and northwest suburbs of Cook county.

Tyler Thompson, president of the Evanston Democratic club, will be chairman of the conference.

Serving on the planning committee is Walter P. Dahl, 1111 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights.

THE STATEWIDE Democratic Federation of Illinois was formed at an organizing conference in Springfield, September 28, 1957, at which more than 400 persons from all sections of the state were present and participated.

The primary purpose of the federation is to encourage and assist in the organization of Democratic clubs in every community in the state. These clubs will provide individual Democrats, and Democratically-inclined independents, with a chance to participate personally in politics. The clubs, by their members' votes, will control the future policies of the Democratic Federation of Illinois at an annual convention.

Already, the federation has received wide political and editorial approval. Similar Democratic clubs in Pennsylvania, Michigan, California, Colorado and other states have given powerful assistance in recent campaigns. The Democratic National committee is encouraging party in advance of the 1958 and 1960 elections. (B8

Arlington SPEBSQSA Sings To 'Packed House' Nov. 23

Arlington Heights chapter of SPEBSQSA presented its seventh annual "Night of Harmony" November 23 to a packed auditorium at Arlington high school. The audience heard songs sung in the barber shop harmony style by the Arlingtone chorus and 4 of the best barber shop quartets in the district.

These quartets were the Timber Kings from Rockford, the Four Tissimos from Skokie, the Barber-Q-Four from Oak Park and the Kord Kutters from Pekin.

This annual program and the hundreds like it throughout the United States are fulfilling the organization's theme song which is "Keep America Singing."

AFTER THE SHOW the Arlingtones performed for the patients of the Forest sanitarium in Des Plaines. Arlington Heights chapter membership has undergone a tremendous growth since last September. Under the leadership of President John Roberts and Director Chuck Lukes, the membership has grown more than 50 per cent. Some of the more recent members are: Ernest Robb and Phil Breiding both basses and from Arlington Heights; Mort Burt, baritone; Leonard Straub, lead; both from Mt. Prospect and Kieth Cary, bass from Wheeling.

With this membership growth the chapter is now looking forward to winning the forthcoming area championship. The chapter extends an invitation to all men who like to sing or listen to barber shop singing to attend the chorus meetings held every Monday at 8:15 p.m. in the Old Orchard country club. No auditions are held. Further information can be obtained by calling CL 5-1797. (B8

Newcomers Plan Christmas Party

Newcomers club of Arlington Heights will hold its regular luncheon meeting Wednesday, Dec. 11, at Grier's Supper club, Palatine. A Christmas party has been planned with decorations, souvenirs and card prizes in the yuletide theme. After a short business meeting, bridge, pinochle and canasta will be played.

President Mrs. Henry Moore will turn the gavel over to the newly-elected President, Mrs. Donald Whiting, who will introduce the other new officers to the club; vice president, Mrs. Robert Fritz; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Moore; recording secretary, Mrs. C. I. Brask, and treasurer Mrs. Richard Abbott.

Eight couples were entertained recently at a "surprise" cocktail party at the home of Mrs. Donald Whiting and on the same night, 11 couples attended the home of Mrs. Richard Abbott to help members' husbands meet and become better acquainted.

Mrs. Glenn Luster, CLearbrook 5-5914 is taking reservations for the December 11 luncheon. (A

Singer Visits Here

BUDDY GRECO

Buddy Greco, who has recently signed with Kapp Records, where he has recorded an outstanding album of Broadway hit songs, spent a few days visiting friends, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Burkett, 1405 W. Euclid, Arlington Heights. He was in the area for TV guest spots on the Howard Miller and In Town Tonight shows. Greco, who lives on Long Island with his wife and 3 children, is better known today as a singer, however, he is a singer, pianist and arranger in his own right. (A

Modern Ettiquette

Q. When is the double card for man and wife in good taste?

A. It is sent with wedding presents, with flowers to a funeral, with gifts to high school or college graduates, or with any other gift that comes from both. It is, of course, used also for formal visits.

Q. Is it still considered necessary for a man to ask permission to smoke when with a group of women who he knows do not smoke?

A. Yes, this is still the courteous and thoughtful thing to do.

AN AMERICAN FLAG containing 34 stars was presented to the Arlington Heights Historical society last week by William F. Meyer (left), former village treasurer. Accepting it was society president A. F. Volz. Townspeople bought the flag after a public subscription and flew it at the time of Lincoln's assassination in 1865. It has been in the possession of the Meyer family since.

Some of the Oldls Part of 'New'

Old counters and sorting cases followed Arlington Heights postal employees into the new Wing st. quarters last week.

The building opened Friday but the move wasn't completed until Mondy. New waist-level counters and other equipment are expected to arrive about the middle of this month.

"It won't be installed un-til next month, however, because postal technicians are busy overhauling cancelling machines in December," said a local postal official.

THE FORMER BUILDING on Campbell st. is being used as headquarters for outgoing mail this month, he added. With the greater space available in the 2 buildings, leasing of other space will be unnecessary this year.

As Palatine's post office is in cramped quarters, secondary sorting of outgoing Palatine mail will be carried on at Arlington.

This will probably mean that the numbers of temporary employees to work here during the Christmas rush will be slightly higher than the 100 of last year. (AF

Democrats Form New State Group

The Highland Park organizing conference of the Democratic Federation of Illinois will be held at the Recreation center, 1850 Green Bay rd., Highland Park, at 8 p.m., Tuesday, Dec. 10, to begin the organization of Democratic clubs in Lake county and the north and northwest suburbs of Cook county.

Tyler Thompson, president of the Evanston Democratic club, will be chairman of the conference.

Serving on the planning committee is Walter P. Dahl, 1111 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights.

THE STATEWIDE Democratic Federation of Illinois was formed at an organizing conference in Springfield, September 28, 1957, at which more than 400 persons from all sections of the state were present and participated.

The primary purpose of the federation is to encourage and assist in the organization of Democratic clubs in every community in the state. These clubs will provide individual Democrats, and Democratically-inclined independents, with a chance to participate personally in politics. The clubs, by their members' votes, will control the future policies of the Democratic Federation of Illinois at an annual convention.

Already, the federation has received wide political and editorial approval. Similar Democratic clubs in Pennsylvania, Michigan, California, Colorado and other states have given powerful assistance in recent campaigns. The Democratic National committee is encouraging party in advance of the 1958 and 1960 elections. (B8

Arlington SPEBSQSA Sings To 'Packed House' Nov. 23

Arlington Heights chapter of SPEBSQSA presented its seventh annual "Night of Harmony" November 23 to a packed auditorium at Arlington high school. The audience heard songs sung in the barber shop harmony style by the Arlingtone chorus and 4 of the best barber shop quartets in the district.

These quartets were the Timber Kings from Rockford, the Four Tissimos from Skokie, the Barber-Q-Four from Oak Park and the Kord Kutters from Pekin.

This annual program and the hundreds like it throughout the United States are fulfilling the organization's theme song which is "Keep America Singing."

AFTER THE SHOW the Arlingtones performed for the patients of the Forest sanitarium in Des Plaines. Arlington Heights chapter membership has undergone a tremendous growth since last September. Under the leadership of President John Roberts and Director Chuck Lukes, the membership has grown more than 50 per cent. Some of the more recent members are: Ernest Robb and Phil Breiding both basses and from Arlington Heights; Mort Burt, baritone; Leonard Straub, lead; both from Mt. Prospect and Kieth Cary, bass from Wheeling.

With this membership growth the chapter is now looking forward to winning the forthcoming area championship. The chapter extends an invitation to all men who like to sing or listen to barber shop singing to attend the chorus meetings held every Monday at 8:15 p.m. in the Old Orchard country club. No auditions are held. Further information can be obtained by calling CL 5-1797. (B8

Newcomers club of Arlington Heights will hold its regular luncheon meeting Wednesday, Dec. 11, at Grier's Supper club, Palatine. A Christmas party has been planned with decorations, souvenirs and card prizes in the yuletide theme. After a short business meeting, bridge, pinochle and canasta will be played.

President Mrs. Henry Moore will turn the gavel over to the newly-elected President, Mrs. Donald Whiting, who will introduce the other new officers to the club; vice president, Mrs. Robert Fritz; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William Moore; recording secretary, Mrs. C. I. Brask, and treasurer Mrs. Richard Abbott.

Eight couples were entertained recently at a "surprise" cocktail party at the home of Mrs. Donald Whiting and on the same night, 11 couples attended the home of Mrs. Richard Abbott to help members' husbands meet and become better acquainted.

Mrs. Glenn Luster, CLearbrook 5-5914 is taking reservations for the December 11 luncheon. (A

Atomic Rockets For Nike Site

The Arlington Heights Army Nike site, presently the "brains" of the Chicago area missile defense, will take on added responsibility next spring by the addition of Nike-Hercules anti-aircraft rockets with atomic warheads.

Announcement that Chicago and 22 other American cities would be ringed by Nike bases equipped with the ultimate in destroying enemy bombers was made early this week by the Pentagon.

It also may be anticipated that the number of Chicago Nike bases, 24 batteries of 12 launchers each at 20 sites, may be decreased due to the added range of the Nike-Hercules over the Nike-Ajax which is presently on the launchers for firing at a moment's notice.

The Nike-Hercules, a dart-shaped rocket, 27 feet long and 2 feet in diameter, has a range of 75 to 100 miles. The Ajax, which is 20 feet in length, has a range of about 30 miles.

OFFICIALS HAVE not said whether both the Hercules and the Ajax will be used to defend metropolitan Chicago.

However, because of atomic warheads, it is considered unlikely that the weapons will be stored near the batteries and unlikely that batteries in or near populated areas will be equipped with nuclear weapons.

Exactly how this will affect the Arlington Heights site is not known. (AF

Garden Club Plans Christmas Workshop

Roy Anderson, program chairman of Arlington Heights Garden club, announces there will not be a regular December meeting but instead the club will have a "Christmas Decorations Workshop" Friday, December 13, in the north room of Pioneer Park, Arlington Heights, at 7:30 p.m.

Any member or guest who has not made reservations for pine greens may contact Anderson at CL 5-3190 before Saturday, Dec. 7.

Misses Helen Hirt and Maxine Miller will be hostesses for the evening with Mrs. J. W. Sholder, social chairman. (A

Girl Scouts Purchase 700 Acres for New Camp Site

Girl Scout council of Northwest Cook county announced this week that 700 acres of heavily wooded property has been purchased for a new Girl Scout camp site. The property is located 40 miles north of Chippewa Falls, Wis. on Herde lake, a continuation of Long lake, according to Mrs. H. G. Mackintosh, council president. Purchase negotiations were completed October 23.

A development committee will be formed in January, 1958, and work will begin at once to offer at least primitive camping to some advance scout patrols next summer, in preparation for the next national senior roundup in 1959.

The property boasts a 3000 foot shore line on Herde lake. The land encompasses nine small lakes, which cover 40 acres each and run to depths of 20 feet and less. The lakes will afford interesting unit sites, as well as boating and portage facilities, reports Mrs. Mackintosh.

TREES, WILD LIFE, fishing, boating, swimming, sailing and outdoor life enhance the beauty of the new Girl Scout site.

The council hopes to make this camp a place where parents can learn with their girls the freedom and relaxation of outdoor life in the "Girl Scout way."

Until the new camp site is completed, Northwest Cook council will continue to offer summer camping at Camp Hickory Hill, Edgerton, Wis. (AMPhW

Pinewood Derby Highlights Cub Pack Meeting

Arlington Heights Cub Scout pack 232 held its regular monthly meeting Friday evening November 22 at North school. A pinewood derby was the main highlight of the evening. Each boy, including Assistant Cubmaster Ed Moeller's Webelo den, fashioned race cars from a do-it-yourself kit and participated in racing their models on a regulation 32' track.

Final winners were: first, Robert Orlowski from den 12, second, Ray Hearl from den 6, and third, Conley Stewart from den 7.

Den 11 presented a skit which followed the theme of the month, "Cub Scout Achievement Show." Den 7 presented and retired colors, den 12 won the award banner for the month and den 7 took first place in its handicraft display.

Cubmaster Don Tiedmond introduced the guest for the evening, Richard Spirek, neighborhood commissioner. (A

Family Service To Open

This program is for boys and girls 8 to 13 years of age. The group is always under adult supervision and travels by chartered bus. The bus makes pick-ups in Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect and Des Plaines.

THE FIRST TRIP of the series will be to the Arlington Nike Missile Battery where the club will see how our missile defense network operates. On the 14th we will travel down to Santa's Toyland at Amling's huge flowerland. We'll celebrate an early Christmas with a party at West School in Des Plaines on December 21.

After our big holiday rest and rewards we'll kick off the ice skating season at the beautiful indoor rink at the Tower Cabana. Bring your own skates to this affair, but if you don't have skates bring some money to rent them.

On January 25 we'll go up to Great Lakes Naval Training center to see how our sailors train.

THE TRIPS will be wrapped up with an all day winter outing at Camp Hastings where we'll toboggan, skate and warm up around a big fireplace with a cup of hot chocolate.

Anyone can take these trips. The only specification is that the children be between the ages of 8 and 13. Cost for "Y" members $4.50, non-members $7.50.

Join by calling the "Y" at VA 4-4156. Registrations are limited so sign up right away. (ACM

Atomic Rockets For Nike Site

The Arlington Heights Army Nike site, presently the "brains" of the Chicago area missile defense, will take on added responsibility next spring by the addition of Nike-Hercules anti-aircraft rockets with atomic warheads.

Announcement that Chicago and 22 other American cities would be ringed by Nike bases equipped with the ultimate in destroying enemy bombers was made early this week by the Pentagon.

It also may be anticipated that the number of Chicago Nike bases, 24 batteries of 12 launchers each at 20 sites, may be decreased due to the added range of the Nike-Hercules over the Nike-Ajax which is presently on the launchers for firing at a moment's notice.

The Nike-Hercules, a dart-shaped rocket, 27 feet long and 2 feet in diameter, has a range of 75 to 100 miles. The Ajax, which is 20 feet in length, has a range of about 30 miles.

OFFICIALS HAVE not said whether both the Hercules and the Ajax will be used to defend metropolitan Chicago.

However, because of atomic warheads, it is considered unlikely that the weapons will be stored near the batteries and unlikely that batteries in or near populated areas will be equipped with nuclear weapons.

Exactly how this will affect the Arlington Heights site is not known. (AF

Garden Club Plans Christmas Workshop

Roy Anderson, program chairman of Arlington Heights Garden club, announces there will not be a regular December meeting but instead the club will have a "Christmas Decorations Workshop" Friday, December 13, in the north room of Pioneer Park, Arlington Heights, at 7:30 p.m.

Any member or guest who has not made reservations for pine greens may contact Anderson at CL 5-3190 before Saturday, Dec. 7.

Misses Helen Hirt and Maxine Miller will be hostesses for the evening with Mrs. J. W. Sholder, social chairman. (A

Pinewood Derby Highlights Cub Pack Meeting

Arlington Heights Cub Scout pack 232 held its regular monthly meeting Friday evening November 22 at North school. A pinewood derby was the main highlight of the evening. Each boy, including Assistant Cubmaster Ed Moeller's Webelo den, fashioned race cars from a do-it-yourself kit and participated in racing their models on a regulation 32' track.

Final winners were: first, Robert Orlowski from den 12, second, Ray Hearl from den 6, and third, Conley Stewart from den 7.

Den 11 presented a skit which followed the theme of the month, "Cub Scout Achievement Show." Den 7 presented and retired colors, den 12 won the award banner for the month and den 7 took first place in its handicraft display.

Cubmaster Don Tiedmond introduced the guest for the evening, Richard Spirek, neighborhood commissioner. (A

Girl Scouts Purchase 700 Acres for New Camp Site

Girl Scout council of Northwest Cook county announced this week that 700 acres of heavily wooded property has been purchased for a new Girl Scout camp site. The property is located 40 miles north of Chippewa Falls, Wis. on Herde lake, a continuation of Long lake, according to Mrs. H. G. Mackintosh, council president. Purchase negotiations were completed October 23.

A development committee will be formed in January, 1958, and work will begin at once to offer at least primitive camping to some advance scout patrols next summer, in preparation for the next national senior roundup in 1959.

The property boasts a 3000 foot shore line on Herde lake. The land encompasses nine small lakes, which cover 40 acres each and run to depths of 20 feet and less. The lakes will afford interesting unit sites, as well as boating and portage facilities, reports Mrs. Mackintosh.

TREES, WILD LIFE, fishing, boating, swimming, sailing and outdoor life enhance the beauty of the new Girl Scout site.

The council hopes to make this camp a place where parents can learn with their girls the freedom and relaxation of outdoor life in the "Girl Scout way."

Until the new camp site is completed, Northwest Cook council will continue to offer summer camping at Camp Hickory Hill, Edgerton, Wis. (AMPhW

No Woodpeckers

There are about 300 species of woodpeckers in the world, but none are known to be in Australia or Madagascar.

Most Difficult

The violin is considered to be the most difficult musical instrument to master.

Family Service To Open

This program is for boys and girls 8 to 13 years of age. The group is always under adult supervision and travels by chartered bus. The bus makes pick-ups in Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect and Des Plaines.

THE FIRST TRIP of the series will be to the Arlington Nike Missile Battery where the club will see how our missile defense network operates. On the 14th we will travel down to Santa's Toyland at Amling's huge flowerland. We'll celebrate an early Christmas with a party at West School in Des Plaines on December 21.

After our big holiday rest and rewards we'll kick off the ice skating season at the beautiful indoor rink at the Tower Cabana. Bring your own skates to this affair, but if you don't have skates bring some money to rent them.

On January 25 we'll go up to Great Lakes Naval Training center to see how our sailors train.

THE TRIPS will be wrapped up with an all day winter outing at Camp Hastings where we'll toboggan, skate and warm up around a big fireplace with a cup of hot chocolate.

Anyone can take these trips. The only specification is that the children be between the ages of 8 and 13. Cost for "Y" members $4.50, non-members $7.50.

Join by calling the "Y" at VA 4-4156. Registrations are limited so sign up right away. (ACM

Developer Tells Advantages of Suburban Industry

by BRAN FREVERT

What are some of the advantages of bringing industry into a village? How is a certain type of industry encouraged or discouraged?

Joseph A. Weber, owner of Weber Addressograph Co. and developer of an industrial park at Prospect ave. and E. Maple st., Mt. Prospect, believes industry promotes good will for a town and supports civic improvement.

FOR INSTANCE, industries in Mt. Prospect are currently supporting new lighting for the downtown.

Weber believes the village could use more industry from the tax standpoint, especially in view of the rising cost of education today. He said villages are in a much better position to support their schools when they have ready sources of industrial tax income.

Weber said he favored clean, light industry. He believes dirty, heavy industries depreciate a city.

THE INDUSTRIES in Weber's industrial park development are of the clean, light variety. They are: Arnar-Stone laboratories, manufacturers of ethical (prescription) drugs: Simmons Engineering Co., manufacturers of knives for bread-cutting machines; Burhke Engineering Co., manufacturers of tools and dies.

International Cash Register & Parts Co. now occupies Weber's old building at 207 E. Evergreen.

Other industries that have come into the Mt. Prospect area in the last 5 years are:

ALPHA ENGINEERING Co., which specializes in machine design; one of its products is the machine that creates the pressure in the whip-cream dispenser.

Bruning, which manufactures copying machines under the trade name, "Copyflex" — it is one of the largest plants in the world devoted to the manufacture of such machines.

A branch of Ross Engineering Co. now in the Chicago loop will soon be moving to Weber industrial park. The local operation will consist mainly of engineering design and sales.

FIVE YEARS AGO only 3 industries were located in or near the village, including Crowfoot, makers of furniture staplers, Illinois Range Co., makers of Stainless steel cabinets, etc., and Weber Addressograph, makers of marking equipment, addressing machines, etc.

Asked if industry has come to Mt. Prsopect as the result of a concerted drive or an accidental process, Weber replied that it has been the result of a "natural flow."

WEBER SAID THE village board apparently has adopted a selective attitude toward the kind of industry to be encouraged and supported. He added Village President Theodore Lams is in favor of industry coming into Mt. Prospect.

Restrictions as to the type of plant, manufacturing, etc., are largely dependent on the village zoning code, observed Weber. Of course, he said, if a fertilizer plant wished to locate in the area there would be no question of desirability.

Other safeguards include the villagers' recourse to petition regarding type of industry, etc. For instance, in September of 1955, 116 residents presented a petition to the village board claiming Matisa Equipment Co. should not be classified as light industry.

SENTIMENTS of civic leaders interested in the development and welfare of Mt. Prospect might also be brought to bear upon the type of industry desired.

Weber briefly touched on the labor supply problem, especially as it affected Mt. Prospect industry. He said VP's were readily available, but it's difficult to get the fellow who knows how to run a machine.

Jury Rules Suicide In Teenager Death

A Palatine township high school freshman, reprimanded by his brother-in-law, committed suicide Friday in Hoffman Estates home.

The death of 14-year-old Oda Nelson Baxter, 513 Ash rd., Hoffman Estates, was ruled suicide by a Cook county coroner's jury Saturday as the result of a self-inflicted wound caused by the blast from a .16 gauge shotgun.

KARL WAGENKNECHT, 18-year-old brother-in-law of Baxter, told the jury that he and his wife, Nancy, 16, had just returned from a Kentucky vacation the night before the incident.

Nelson, as he was called, was told to clean the house by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Chism, before she left for Chicago with her husband, William.

An argument between Wagenknecht and Baxter followed. After Wagenknecht told Baxter he couldn't play a radio while washing dishes because Baxter's 5-year-old stepsister, Theresa Chism, wanted to watch television, Baxter went to his bedroom.

WHEN WAGENKNECHT entered the room, he told the jury, Baxter pointed a .16 gauge shotgun at him. Wagenknecht, who lived at 712 W. Ardmore st., Roselle, before his wife, Nancy, was injured in an auto accident on their wedding night, Oct. 12, said he backed his brother-in-law in a corner before taking the shotgun away without force.

He then took the shells out of the gun and put them on a cedar chest. Wagenknecht then left the room, he testified, at which time Baxter was crying on the bed for fear of having lost Wagenknecht and his sister's friendship.

Ten to 15 minutes later Wagenknecht heard a thud and yell. He told the jury he thought Theresa had fallen. Finding her all right, Wagenknecht rushed into the bedroom to find Baxter on the floor with a stomach wound.

FORTY MINUTES later the youth was pronounced dead. His death was the first one in Hoffman Estates requiring an inquest.

Wagenknecht's wife, and two friends, Terry Seeden, 17, of 56 E. Hattendorf, Roselle, and Sandra Selke, 16, of 109 Cumberland, Hoffman Estates, both told almost the same story to the jury. The three and Wagenknecht were in another bedroom watching television at the time of the shooting.

THE INVESTIGATION was made by Deputy Sheriffs Carlos Banks and Edward Quedens who said their office received a call of the shooting at 2:53 p.m. Friday.

Baxter was born January 1, 1943, in Clark county, Kentucky. He came to Hoffman Estates in September 1956. Services will be held in Winchester, Ky. Arrangements were made in the Tharp funeral home, Palatine. Survivors include his mother and stepfather and 2 sisters. (B-8

Seek New Man For 'Bug Board'

Charles E. Zanzie, first president of the Northwest Mosquito Abatement district board of trustees, resigned from the board last month.

Since that time the trustees have sent letters to communities within the abatement district seeking names of candidates to fill the vacancy. County Judge Otto Kerner will decide on the appointment.

PRESENTLY SERVING on the first board since the Northwest Mosquito Abatement district was formed following the April 1956 referendum at which time it was authorized are Dr. Henry Chakoian, Mt. Prospect; Matt Cockrell, Arlington Heights; Walter Christopher, Park Ridge; and Victor Petersen, Wheeling.

The trustees are due to select a new slate of officers but will postpone voting until Judge Kerner selects the fifth member.

ZANZIE, who lives at 54 E. Daniels rd., Palatine, has been very active in establishing the abatement district, but due to the press of business he felt he was not able to give the position the full amount of time necessary. (B8

Toll Road Communications System Awarded to RCA

The Radio Corporation of America (RCA) was awarded a contract Monday in the amount of $898,798 for furnishing microwave trunk communications equipment together with a complete mobile communications system for Illinois' 187-mile tollway.

Charles L. Dearing, executive director of the Illinois Toll Highway Commission, in recommending the contract for purchase of the tollway's communication equipment, said that the Commission staff had carefully studied bids submitted for purchase of equipment and for leasing.

"THE PURCHASE of the equipment results in a saving to the commission of $250,000 as compared with leasing arrangements proposed," Dearing said. "Further, a leasing arrangement would result in the mortgaging of a sizable amount of future revenues to pay for the system over the first few years of operation."

Dearing said that the commission staff had obtained the advice of other tollway authorities based on their experience with communications problems, had conferred with the special committee on communications of the American Bridge, Tunnel & Turnpike association, and organized its own staff committee to study and evaluate bids received by the Commission on October 24, 1957.

The contract with RCA, in addition to installation of the complete system, calls for maintenance of the equipment for a period of three years at a cost of $5,609 per month.

A. H. KNAUERHAZE, comptroller and chairman of the commission's special negotiating committee on communications, said that the network would be used for general administration purposes, for police communication, and for the transmission of toll collection data.

This system will make it possible to report toll collection data to the administration building by micro-wave radio and enable us to have each day's final unaudited reports on indicated revenue, traffic volumes at each toll plaza, and collector's performance information printed the following day," he said.

With all roadway and bridge construction contracts awarded and construction underway throughout the 187-mile toll highway, today's contract award for communications equipment is one of the last few contracts remaining. The Commission previously has awarded contracts for the Construction of an adminstration building and central shop, for toll collection equipment, for toll booths and toll plazas, and for various other supplemental and supply services. Palatine Lawyer In Senate Race

Francis E. Kelly, Palatine township justice of the peace, last week was selected as the Republican organization candidate for the third senatorial district seat in the Illinois legislature.

He will be seeking the seat occupied by Jackson L. Boughner of Palatine who has declined to run for re-election on the Republican ticket due to personal reasons.

HOWEVER, Boughner was nominated for Palatine township Republican committeeman, filling the vacancy left by the retirement of George W. Howest, committeeman for the last 25 years.

As one of his last acts as committeeman, Howes put the name of Francis Kelly in nomination for the senatorial seat before the township precinct captains at the Palatine fire hall Nov. 26. Kelly's selection was unanimous by the regular Republican organization in Palatine township.

Ken Gobeyn, 2703 George court, Rolling Meadows, was elected president of the Palatine township Republican club, succeeding Boughner who has headed the organization for the last 3 years.

KELLY and Boughner's names will appear on the Republican primary ballot in the Tuesday, April 8, primary. The general election is Tuesday, Nov. 4.

The senatorial term of office runs for 4 years from 1959 through 1962 with the legislature meeting for 6 month periods beginning in January 1959 and 1961. The senatorial district, which was created 2 years ago under reapportionment, covers Palatine, Schaumburg, Barrington, and Hanover townships in Cook county. (ACM

Announce Teen Tour to Capitol

Some Arlington high school students are collecting Christmas and graduation presents early this year in the form of an educational trip to Washington, D.C.

It may be the dead of winter but some juniors and seniors have visions of cherry blossoms in bloom as plans for the annual spring trip to the nation's capital.

Inequal Industrial Wealth Plagues School Districts

Inequal Industrial —3 tempo

by BRAN FREVERT

A major problem still plaguing a number of school districts, despite mergers, is inequality of educational opportunity.

A major factor causing this condition is concentration of industrial wealth in small areas which are often not too desirable a place in which to live. Fewer children mean lower taxes for school purposes.

IN MORE CROWDED residential areas there may be many children and little industrial wealth.

One way to help alleviate the problem was suggested by Mt. Prospect Village President Theodore Lams during the school session of the Suburban Problems Clinic sponsored by Paddock Publications in October.

Briefly, pool all county industrial tax income, possibly excluding Chicago, and spread it equally among schools.

The key; distribution of said income would be set up on a basis similar to that of motor fuel tax income.

VILLAGES receive roughly $5 per capita from the state over a period of one year. Illinois collects 5 cents per gallon of gasoline in motor fuel taxes. Money is used for maintenance and improvement of arterial streets.

Total allotment of industrial taxes for schools only, grade and high, could be distributed on the basis of actual enrollment, or "X dollars per child," according to Mayor Lams.

He suggested that the system, as set up on a county basis, could be handled through the county assessors office.

School districts 133 and 149 provide a glaring example of the inequalities which now exist.

DISTRICT 133, which includes Riverdale, gets its wealth mainly from Acme steel and other industries. Assessed valuation for each school child is $172,169; the education tax rate a low 23 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

District 148, immediately south of Riverdale and adjoining 133, has an assessed valuation of $20,826 for each school child; and educational tax rate of 90 cents.

District 110, in the wealthy Clearing Industrial district (Calumet township), has an assessed valuation for each child of $213,933; and educational tax rate of 40 cents. Neighboring poor district 111, $16,752 assessed valuation for each child, $1.13 educational tax rate.

MEDIAN ASSESSED valuation per attendance pupil is $22,800, according to the office of the county superintendent of schools.

Assessed valuation for each school child in Mt. Prospect is $16,167, well below the median, the educational tax rate $1. In Wheeling, assessed valuation per pupil is around $17,600 the tax rate $1.25.

IN CICERO, which has a lot of industry, assessed valuation per child is $53,458, the tax rate 66 cents.

The hope is that the pooling of industrial tax income will help to bring assessed valuations per school child and eduational tax rates more into line. (B8

YMCA Bowling Begins For Children 10 to 14

The second session of the YMCA bowling will begin on Thursday, Dec. 5, and continue for 7 weeks. Each session lasts approximately 2 hours and begins at 4 p.m. each Thursday.

Instruction and league play are conducted at Beverly Lanes, Arlington Heights. Shoes are furnished. Bowlers are transported from the "Y" office in Des Plaines and the Village Hall in Mt. Prospect.

THE COST FOR "Y" members is $7.75, non-members $10.50. This fee includes transportation and a free tee shirt.

Forty-four boys and girls just concluded a 7-week session with the awarding of trophies to each child on the first and second place teams. Abilities differed greatly as averages ranged from 30 to 110. Teams were equal and handicaps were given.

Register by calling the "Y" office at VA 4-4156. (ACM

YMCA Swim Classes Start

The second session of YMCA swimming lessons for boys and girls between 8 and 14 begin December 10 and 11.

Highlights of the session are the forming of a boys' swimming team for many levels of ability and the continuance of water ballet practice by the girls. It is still not too late to register for make-up sessions will be offered.

THE SERIES of 7 lessons are held on Tuesday evenings for boys and Wednesday evenings for girls, at the Maine township high school pool. Cost for these lessons is $3 for members and $6.50 for non-members. This cost includes bus transportation from the YMCA and return.

Expert instruction is given by 3 adult YMCA certified instructors who are aided by numerous senior high school boys and girls with a great deal of ability and experience. Beginners are especially welcome.

Two class times are available. One group of boys meets at the "Y" office at 5:30 p.m. and returns at 7 p.m.; the other group meets at the "Y" at 6 p.m. and returns at 7:30 p.m. Girls meet at 6:45. (ACM

Formosa Is Timely Topic For Travel and Adventure

Formosa, exotic spot on the far side of the world, will be the locale of the Travel and Adventure series when Margaret Baker presents her film-lecture Tuesday at Arlington high school.

Presented at 8 p.m. in the boys' gym of the school, the lecture features the far Pacific island on which the eyes of the world have been focusing for some time.

INFORMAL CAMERA studies of the descendants of Confucius, an aboriginal king and his daughters, and many visits with Chiang Kai-Shek provide visual proof of the contrasts of the ancient world and the strife of modern civilization existing in this spot, named "The Beautiful" by its Portuguese discoverers hundreds of years ago.

A successful industrialist and international business woman, Margaret Baker abandoned her early career on the stage to carry on the family business. During World War II, she was appointed by the governor of Ohio to the post of director of women for Ohio's defense council.

Since the war her interest in America's present world-position has taken her on many trips thru Europe, Africa and Asia and has provided material for many fascinating lectures. (B8

Christmas Tree Grading Starts

Federal Christmas tree grades that became effective Nov. 1, should in the long run benefit growers, retailers and buyers.

L. B. Culver, extension forester at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, says the new standards define acceptable trees and serve as a guide to tree growers. Cutting only trees of better quality should give growers more income.

RETAILERS won't be so apt to lose money on low quality trees, since they will have an opportunity to specify desired quality.

Consumers will be able to buy a better quality tree — one with more abundant foliage, better taper, more uniform balance, fresher condition and fewer deformities. They will be better assured of getting a tree that is typical of its species.

Grades include U. S. Premium, U. S. No. 1, and U.S. No. 2. Trees that can't qualify for a grade will be classified as culls.

AT LEAST 90 per cent of the trees in a grade consignment must qualify for that grade. At least half of those that don't qualify must meet requirements for the next lower grade.

To get more detailed information on Christmas tree grade standards, write to the College of Agriculture, Urbana, or to the Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. (Fm

by BRAN FREVERT

What are some of the advantages of bringing industry into a village? How is a certain type of industry encouraged or discouraged?

Joseph A. Weber, owner of Weber Addressograph Co. and developer of an industrial park at Prospect ave. and E. Maple st., Mt. Prospect, believes industry promotes good will for a town and supports civic improvement.

FOR INSTANCE, industries in Mt. Prospect are currently supporting new lighting for the downtown.

Weber believes the village could use more industry from the tax standpoint, especially in view of the rising cost of education today. He said villages are in a much better position to support their schools when they have ready sources of industrial tax income.

Weber said he favored clean, light industry. He believes dirty, heavy industries depreciate a city.

THE INDUSTRIES in Weber's industrial park development are of the clean, light variety. They are: Arnar-Stone laboratories, manufacturers of ethical (prescription) drugs: Simmons Engineering Co., manufacturers of knives for bread-cutting machines; Burhke Engineering Co., manufacturers of tools and dies.

International Cash Register & Parts Co. now occupies Weber's old building at 207 E. Evergreen.

Other industries that have come into the Mt. Prospect area in the last 5 years are:

ALPHA ENGINEERING Co., which specializes in machine design; one of its products is the machine that creates the pressure in the whip-cream dispenser.

Bruning, which manufactures copying machines under the trade name, "Copyflex" — it is one of the largest plants in the world devoted to the manufacture of such machines.

A branch of Ross Engineering Co. now in the Chicago loop will soon be moving to Weber industrial park. The local operation will consist mainly of engineering design and sales.

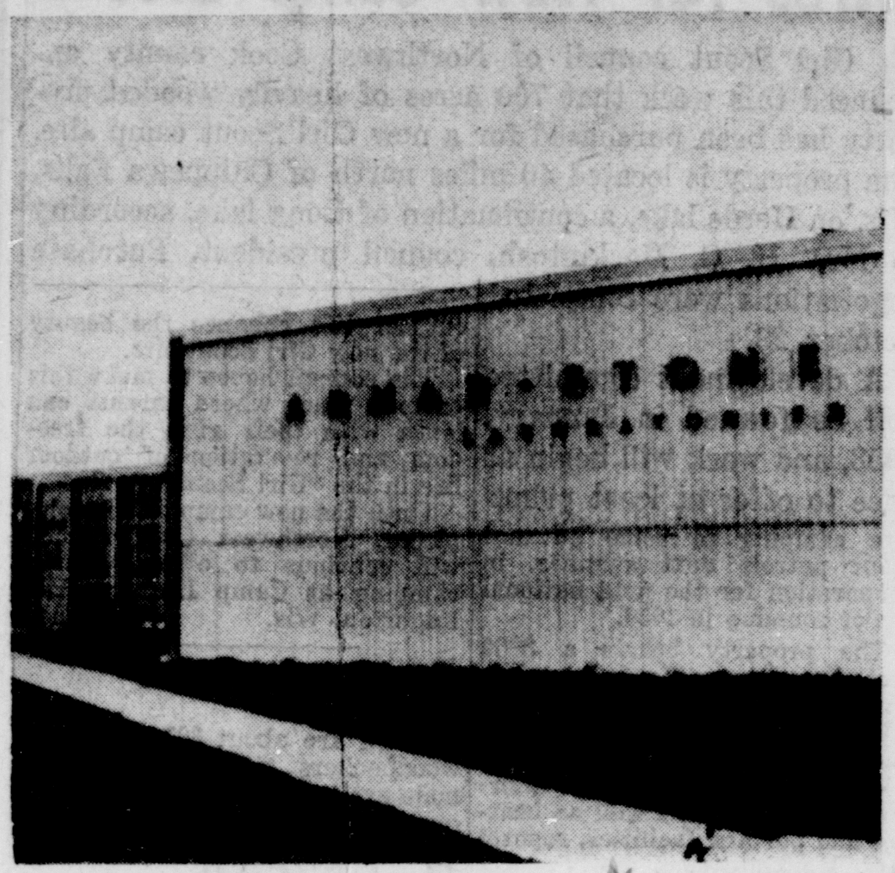
FIVE YEARS AGO only 3 industries were located in or near the village, including Crowfoot, makers of furniture staplers, Illinois Range Co., makers of Stainless steel cabinets, etc., and Weber Addressograph, makers of marking equipment, addressing machines, etc.



Asked if industry has come to Mt. Prsopect as the result of a concerted drive or an accidental process, Weber replied that it has been the result of a "natural flow."

WEBER SAID THE village board apparently has adopted a selective attitude toward the kind of industry to be encouraged and supported. He added Village President Theodore Lams is in favor of industry coming into Mt. Prospect.

Restrictions as to the type of plant, manufacturing, etc., are largely dependent on the village zoning code, observed Weber. Of course, he said, if a fertilizer plant wished to locate in the area there would be no question of desirability.

Other safeguards include the villagers' recourse to petition regarding type of industry, etc. For instance, in September of 1955, 116 residents presented a petition to the village board claiming Matisa Equipment Co. should not be classified as light industry.

SENTIMENTS of civic leaders interested in the development and welfare of Mt. Prospect might also be brought to bear upon the type of industry desired.

Weber briefly touched on the labor supply problem, especially as it affected Mt. Prospect industry. He said VP's were readily available, but it's difficult to get the fellow who knows how to run a machine.

Jury Rules Suicide In Teenager Death

A Palatine township high school freshman, reprimanded by his brother-in-law, committed suicide Friday in Hoffman Estates home.

The death of 14-year-old Oda Nelson Baxter, 513 Ash rd., Hoffman Estates, was ruled suicide by a Cook county coroner's jury Saturday as the result of a self-inflicted wound caused by the blast from a .16 gauge shotgun.

KARL WAGENKNECHT, 18-year-old brother-in-law of Baxter, told the jury that he and his wife, Nancy, 16, had just returned from a Kentucky vacation the night before the incident.

Nelson, as he was called, was told to clean the house by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Chism, before she left for Chicago with her husband, William.

An argument between Wagenknecht and Baxter followed. After Wagenknecht told Baxter he couldn't play a radio while washing dishes because Baxter's 5-year-old stepsister, Theresa Chism, wanted to watch television, Baxter went to his bedroom.

WHEN WAGENKNECHT entered the room, he told the jury, Baxter pointed a .16 gauge shotgun at him. Wagenknecht, who lived at 712 W. Ardmore st., Roselle, before his wife, Nancy, was injured in an auto accident on their wedding night, Oct. 12, said he backed his brother-in-law in a corner before taking the shotgun away without force.

He then took the shells out of the gun and put them on a cedar chest. Wagenknecht then left the room, he testified, at which time Baxter was crying on the bed for fear of having lost Wagenknecht and his sister's friendship.

Ten to 15 minutes later Wagenknecht heard a thud and yell. He told the jury he thought Theresa had fallen. Finding her all right, Wagenknecht rushed into the bedroom to find Baxter on the floor with a stomach wound.

FORTY MINUTES later the youth was pronounced dead. His death was the first one in Hoffman Estates requiring an inquest.

Wagenknecht's wife, and two friends, Terry Seeden, 17, of 56 E. Hattendorf, Roselle, and Sandra Selke, 16, of 109 Cumberland, Hoffman Estates, both told almost the same story to the jury. The three and Wagenknecht were in another bedroom watching television at the time of the shooting.

THE INVESTIGATION was made by Deputy Sheriffs Carlos Banks and Edward Quedens who said their office received a call of the shooting at 2:53 p.m. Friday.

Baxter was born January 1, 1943, in Clark county, Kentucky. He came to Hoffman Estates in September 1956. Services will be held in Winchester, Ky. Arrangements were made in the Tharp funeral home, Palatine. Survivors include his mother and stepfather and 2 sisters. (B-8

Charles E. Zanzie, first president of the Northwest Mosquito Abatement district board of trustees, resigned from the board last month.

Since that time the trustees have sent letters to communities within the abatement district seeking names of candidates to fill the vacancy. County Judge Otto Kerner will decide on the appointment.

PRESENTLY SERVING on the first board since the Northwest Mosquito Abatement district was formed following the April 1956 referendum at which time it was authorized are Dr. Henry Chakoian, Mt. Prospect; Matt Cockrell, Arlington Heights; Walter Christopher, Park Ridge; and Victor Petersen, Wheeling.

The trustees are due to select a new slate of officers but will postpone voting until Judge Kerner selects the fifth member.

ZANZIE, who lives at 54 E. Daniels rd., Palatine, has been very active in establishing the abatement district, but due to the press of business he felt he was not able to give the position the full amount of time necessary. (B8

Toll Road Communications System Awarded to RCA

The Radio Corporation of America (RCA) was awarded a contract Monday in the amount of $898,798 for furnishing microwave trunk communications equipment together with a complete mobile communications system for Illinois' 187-mile tollway.

Charles L. Dearing, executive director of the Illinois Toll Highway Commission, in recommending the contract for purchase of the tollway's communication equipment, said that the Commission staff had carefully studied bids submitted for purchase of equipment and for leasing.

"THE PURCHASE of the equipment results in a saving to the commission of $250,000 as compared with leasing arrangements proposed," Dearing said. "Further, a leasing arrangement would result in the mortgaging of a sizable amount of future revenues to pay for the system over the first few years of operation."

Dearing said that the commission staff had obtained the advice of other tollway authorities based on their experience with communications problems, had conferred with the special committee on communications of the American Bridge, Tunnel & Turnpike association, and organized its own staff committee to study and evaluate bids received by the Commission on October 24, 1957.

The contract with RCA, in addition to installation of the complete system, calls for maintenance of the equipment for a period of three years at a cost of $5,609 per month.

A. H. KNAUERHAZE, comptroller and chairman of the commission's special negotiating committee on communications, said that the network would be used for general administration purposes, for police communication, and for the transmission of toll collection data.

This system will make it possible to report toll collection data to the administration building by micro-wave radio and enable us to have each day's final unaudited reports on indicated revenue, traffic volumes at each toll plaza, and collector's performance information printed the following day," he said.

With all roadway and bridge construction contracts awarded and construction underway throughout the 187-mile toll highway, today's contract award for communications equipment is one of the last few contracts remaining. The Commission previously has awarded contracts for the Construction of an adminstration building and central shop, for toll collection equipment, for toll booths and toll plazas, and for various other supplemental and supply services. Inequal Industrial Wealth Plagues School Districts

by BRAN FREVERT

A major problem still plaguing a number of school districts, despite mergers, is inequality of educational opportunity.

A major factor causing this condition is concentration of industrial wealth in small areas which are often not too desirable a place in which to live. Fewer children mean lower taxes for school purposes.

IN MORE CROWDED residential areas there may be many children and little industrial wealth.

One way to help alleviate the problem was suggested by Mt. Prospect Village President Theodore Lams during the school session of the Suburban Problems Clinic sponsored by Paddock Publications in October.

Briefly, pool all county industrial tax income, possibly excluding Chicago, and spread it equally among schools.

The key; distribution of said income would be set up on a basis similar to that of motor fuel tax income.

VILLAGES receive roughly $5 per capita from the state over a period of one year. Illinois collects 5 cents per gallon of gasoline in motor fuel taxes. Money is used for maintenance and improvement of arterial streets.

Total allotment of industrial taxes for schools only, grade and high, could be distributed on the basis of actual enrollment, or "X dollars per child," according to Mayor Lams.

He suggested that the system, as set up on a county basis, could be handled through the county assessors office.

School districts 133 and 149 provide a glaring example of the inequalities which now exist.

DISTRICT 133, which includes Riverdale, gets its wealth mainly from Acme steel and other industries. Assessed valuation for each school child is $172,169; the education tax rate a low 23 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

District 148, immediately south of Riverdale and adjoining 133, has an assessed valuation of $20,826 for each school child; and educational tax rate of 90 cents.

District 110, in the wealthy Clearing Industrial district (Calumet township), has an assessed valuation for each child of $213,933; and educational tax rate of 40 cents. Neighboring poor district 111, $16,752 assessed valuation for each child, $1.13 educational tax rate.

MEDIAN ASSESSED valuation per attendance pupil is $22,800, according to the office of the county superintendent of schools.

Assessed valuation for each school child in Mt. Prospect is $16,167, well below the median, the educational tax rate $1. In Wheeling, assessed valuation per pupil is around $17,600 the tax rate $1.25.

IN CICERO, which has a lot of industry, assessed valuation per child is $53,458, the tax rate 66 cents.

The hope is that the pooling of industrial tax income will help to bring assessed valuations per school child and eduational tax rates more into line. (B8

YMCA Bowling Begins For Children 10 to 14

The second session of the YMCA bowling will begin on Thursday, Dec. 5, and continue for 7 weeks. Each session lasts approximately 2 hours and begins at 4 p.m. each Thursday.

Instruction and league play are conducted at Beverly Lanes, Arlington Heights. Shoes are furnished. Bowlers are transported from the "Y" office in Des Plaines and the Village Hall in Mt. Prospect.

THE COST FOR "Y" members is $7.75, non-members $10.50. This fee includes transportation and a free tee shirt.

Forty-four boys and girls just concluded a 7-week session with the awarding of trophies to each child on the first and second place teams. Abilities differed greatly as averages ranged from 30 to 110. Teams were equal and handicaps were given.

Register by calling the "Y" office at VA 4-4156. (ACM

YMCA Swim Classes Start

The second session of YMCA swimming lessons for boys and girls between 8 and 14 begin December 10 and 11.

Highlights of the session are the forming of a boys' swimming team for many levels of ability and the continuance of water ballet practice by the girls. It is still not too late to register for make-up sessions will be offered.

THE SERIES of 7 lessons are held on Tuesday evenings for boys and Wednesday evenings for girls, at the Maine township high school pool. Cost for these lessons is $3 for members and $6.50 for non-members. This cost includes bus transportation from the YMCA and return.

Expert instruction is given by 3 adult YMCA certified instructors who are aided by numerous senior high school boys and girls with a great deal of ability and experience. Beginners are especially welcome.

Two class times are available. One group of boys meets at the "Y" office at 5:30 p.m. and returns at 7 p.m.; the other group meets at the "Y" at 6 p.m. and returns at 7:30 p.m. Girls meet at 6:45. (ACM

Formosa Is Timely Topic For Travel and Adventure

Formosa, exotic spot on the far side of the world, will be the locale of the Travel and Adventure series when Margaret Baker presents her film-lecture Tuesday at Arlington high school.

Presented at 8 p.m. in the boys' gym of the school, the lecture features the far Pacific island on which the eyes of the world have been focusing for some time.

INFORMAL CAMERA studies of the descendants of Confucius, an aboriginal king and his daughters, and many visits with Chiang Kai-Shek provide visual proof of the contrasts of the ancient world and the strife of modern civilization existing in this spot, named "The Beautiful" by its Portuguese discoverers hundreds of years ago.

A successful industrialist and international business woman, Margaret Baker abandoned her early career on the stage to carry on the family business. During World War II, she was appointed by the governor of Ohio to the post of director of women for Ohio's defense council.

Since the war her interest in America's present world-position has taken her on many trips thru Europe, Africa and Asia and has provided material for many fascinating lectures. (B8

Dance Tickets

Residents are reminded of the dance sponsored by the Wilson school kindergarten December 13 at Old Orchard country club. Tickets may be purchased from parents of kindergarten pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Eino Seppala and 4 children moved to Phoenix, Ariz., November 30. They formerly lived at 205 Waverly rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Yahnke and 2 children celebrated the 100th birthday of Mrs. Yahnke's grandfather, Anton Schaeffer, at Bee Dozier's home for the aged, Palatine.

Jerry Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lee, celebrated his fifth birthday Monday with a party for 9 playmates.

New Look

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Griffith have donated a davenport to the faculty-board room. Mrs. Steiger and Mrs. Schammier of the PTA are busy making slipcovers for the furniture and curtains for the windows.

Art Award

Judy Van deMerkt, an eighth grade student of Mrs. Hannafin, was informed this week that her entry in the "Better Breakfast" contest was one of 6 runners-up. Since there were 165 posters entered in the county and more than 8000 in the state, Judy was outstanding among keen competition. The contest was sponsored by the Farm Bureau. (B-7

Christmas Tree Grading Starts

Federal Christmas tree grades that became effective Nov. 1, should in the long run benefit growers, retailers and buyers.

L. B. Culver, extension forester at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, says the new standards define acceptable trees and serve as a guide to tree growers. Cutting only trees of better quality should give growers more income.

RETAILERS won't be so apt to lose money on low quality trees, since they will have an opportunity to specify desired quality.

Consumers will be able to buy a better quality tree — one with more abundant foliage, better taper, more uniform balance, fresher condition and fewer deformities. They will be better assured of getting a tree that is typical of its species.

Grades include U. S. Premium, U. S. No. 1, and U.S. No. 2. Trees that can't qualify for a grade will be classified as culls.

AT LEAST 90 per cent of the trees in a grade consignment must qualify for that grade. At least half of those that don't qualify must meet requirements for the next lower grade.

To get more detailed information on Christmas tree grade standards, write to the College of Agriculture, Urbana, or to the Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. (Fm

6 ft. 5 in.	195 "	250 "	42 "

Applicants must have a chest expansion of not less than 3 inches.

The starting salary of firemen is $4,800 per year. Successful applicants will have Civil Service Status, be entitled to two weeks vacation after 12 consecutive months of employment, sick leave benefits and to liberal allowances pertaining to duty uniforms.

Such examination will be conducted at the Village Hall, Municipal Building, Arlington Heights, Illinois, on the 14th day of December, 1957, at the hour of 9 o'clock in the forenoon. Successful applicants shall thereafter be required to pass a medical and physical examination which shall qualify them to sustain the labors and exposures of a fireman.

All applicants who desire to submit themselves for such examination, shall so advise the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners by filing a written application, together with a small photographic picture of applicant securily affixed thereto, with the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners, in care of the Village Clerk, prior to the 13th day of December, 1957. Application blanks may be obtained at the Village Hall.

Twinbrook Congregation Serves Suburban Hebrews

Twinbrook Hebrew congregation, the first and only organized Jewish religious group between Des Plaines and Elgin, has launched an intensive campaign to introduce its services, schooling and social facilities to Jewish families throughout the area.

Although the congregation was established in Hoffman Estates, Higgins and Roselle rds., little more than 6 months ago, member families have participated almost from the beginning in a full program of holiday services, Friday evening services, Hebrew education and Sunday school classes.

DURING THE SUMMER, services were held in makeshift, yet strangely appealing quarters in the old Hammerstein barn. With the onset of cold weather, services were transferred to one of the community's school buildings.

The congregation's first president is Michael Finn. Last month, Mrs. Eddie Deerfield was elected president of the new Sisterhood.

Twinbrook Congregation Serves Suburban Hebrews

Twinbrook Hebrew congregation, the first and only organized Jewish religious group between Des Plaines and Elgin, has launched an intensive campaign to introduce its services, schooling and social facilities to Jewish families throughout the area.

Although the congregation was established in Hoffman Estates, Higgins and Roselle rds., little more than 6 months ago, member families have participated almost from the beginning in a full program of holiday services, Friday evening services, Hebrew education and Sunday school classes.

DURING THE SUMMER, services were held in makeshift, yet strangely appealing quarters in the old Hammerstein barn. With the onset of cold weather, services were transferred to one of the community's school buildings.

The congregation's first president is Michael Finn. Last month, Mrs. Eddie Deerfield was elected president of the new Sisterhood.

Membership information can be secured from Committee Chairman Ralph Gold at TWinbrook 4-3834. (Ch

Walks like his dad...
Acts like his dad...

Chances are, he'll grow up to think like his dad. For Pop's the hero... and the way he does things, the way he acts, is "the right way."

Think of that next time you're tired when it's time to go to church or synagogue... and you'd like to grab forty extra winks. You can't blame him, years from now, if he hasn't faith in God... in life... in himself... if you haven't shown him where to look for it.

"IT WAS A NICE TRY, BUT . . ." seems to sum up public opinion about competitive cars attempting to equal the styling and features of the Swept-Wing 58. They tried to get as low, but had to lower the roof to do it. (Less headroom, same high, boxy, cooped-up look.) Their windshields got smaller, while ours got bigger. Most of them still don't have Total-Contact Brakes to assure smooth, even, safe stops when needed. Nor do they offer push-button TorqueFlite, the proven automatic transmission, and Constant-Control power steering that works full time—not part time as some other systems do. And Dodge no-sway, no-dip Torsion-Aire is standard equipment. (Bus-type air springs offered by some cars cost well over $100.00 extra.) So compare all the 1958 models with Dodge. We think you'll agree: Other cars are catching on, but they can't catch up.

"IT WAS A NICE TRY, BUT . . ." seems to sum up public opinion about competitive cars attempting to equal the styling and features of the Swept-Wing 58. They tried to get as low, but had to lower the roof to do it. (Less headroom, same high, boxy, cooped-up look.) Their windshields got smaller, while ours got bigger. Most of them still don't have Total-Contact Brakes to assure smooth, even, safe stops when needed. Nor do they offer push-button TorqueFlite, the proven automatic transmission, and Constant-Control power steering that works full time—not part time as some other systems do. And Dodge no-sway, no-dip Torsion-Aire is standard equipment. (Bus-type air springs offered by some cars cost well over $100.00 extra.) So compare all the 1958 models with Dodge. We think you'll agree: Other cars are catching on, but they can't catch up.

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by BOB PADDOCK

ANOTHER ARLINGTON boy gained football honors this past season, this time in the private school league. Bob Miles, 102 S. Brighton Place, has been a starting varsity player at North Shore country day school in Winnetka all 4 years of his high school days. He played line backer on defense, and frequently moved to halfback on offense. North Shore copped the private school league title in 1955, but finished third this season.

BOB MILES

Another Arlington youth, this time a grad of AHS last June, has been named frosh swimming captain at Grinnell college. Stan was an outstanding track man in his school, and made all-state track squad last spring. He set a new pool and Midwest conference swim mark in early workouts this weekend.

On the varsity swim squad for Grinnell from the WSC is letterman Dick Bresnahan of Hinsdale, a free style junior. Grinnell is rated 1 of the 3 strongest swim teams in the Midwest league.

BRUCE WILKERSON, Arlington grad from Prospect Heights, is 1 of 2 returning lettermen on Grinnell wrestling squad. . . . He's a ferocious junior heavyweight. . . . Sophomore Dodd Millar of Glenbard is expected to be heard from at 130. . . . Frosh wrestling roster at Grinnell includes Glenn Dierking of Fenton and Dave Grant of Downers at 147, plus Wayne Langguth of Fenton at 191. . . . And on the cage squad is Lee Moses, 6-2 junior forward from Maine. . . . For the freshmen it'll be John Boyles of York and Jack Woods of La Grange.

Among 7 returning cage lettermen at Beloit are seniors Jack Sanders and Lyle Rossiter of Glenbard, both standing 6-5.

Ted Caiazza of La Grange has reinjured his knee in Illini cage workouts and may be out action for the season. . . . Capt. John Paul of St. Edward of Elgin will be seeing plenty of action. . . . One of 4 cross country letters at Illinois went to Jim Bowers of De Kalb. . . . Illini frosh grid numerals went to Joe Geraci of Grayslake and Lars Henriksen of Fenton. . . . Bob Mitchell of Illinois has been named to UCLA all-opponents grid squad. . . . Members of that honor group will be flown to LA Dec. 14 for a big dance, provided with a date, and flown home again.

JOHN SUJACK of Arlington, out for frosh football at Indiana this fall, gained headlines down that way when he gave a rough account of the drop in interest on the Hoosier frosh grid squad from an alleged 103 boys out reduced to 45. . . . Info was contained in a personal letter to Pete Swanson of Heights at Illinois which emerged in public print. . . . John also reported on a 7-foot frosh cager "who outplays Archie Dees in every respect." . . .

Of 33 boys named all-state gridders a year ago in Illinois, 30 are in college, 2 in preparatory schools, and 1 is in the Victorian Seminary at Arlington. . . . Big 10 cage teams have 66 per cent of their scoring punch back from last year, including 93 per cent at Wisconsin, 82 at Ohio State, 81 at Iowa and 76 at Michigan State. . . . Spartans have "1,442 of their 1,895 points back" for another season.

UNDERSTANDING WRESTLING better will be the object of a half hour clinic for fans just ahead of Arlington's opening matches against Glenbrook Saturday, Dec. 7. . . . Demonstration of individual and team scoring is on the agenda starting at 1:30, showing fans what to watch for in the meet starting at 2:00. . . . We've been corrected on the statement "wrestling is not a recognized sport in the WSC." . . . York high school grappling mentor Lee Wachenheim informs us wrestling is a conference sport, but will not count toward the president's cup, symbolic of overall league sports championship. . . . Downers and Glenbard will not be competing.

THE SLEIGHBELLS will stay in the Arlington trophy case for another year, along with a record $1200 in gate receipts. That was "the other story" of the Arlington-Palatine game Wednesday night in the large Heights gym that has never seen its second balcony used before except for basketball tournaments. The crowd was a big one, bringing smiles to the administrative faces at Arlington, where gate receipts for football pays for the entire sports program.

New gross receipts record of $1,205 was established Wednesday night, quite a jump from the previous $812 mark at Arlington, also set in a Palatine contest.

These figures are for regularly scheduled games, not the sectional tournaments. High mark for last season, when the Pirate-Card game was played at Palatine, was $725 total in the York game. Palatine contest 2 years ago brought in $812. All of these figures are exclusive of a share of the season-long student activity books. Those gate receipts are added reasons why the Palatine-Arlington series will never be dropped in spite of which team wins the ball games.

Double Weekend at Home for Card Cagers

R-B Here Friday, Then Glenbrook

It'll be a double weekend at home for Arlington cage teams and fans with the Cardinals opening the conference schedule against R-B Friday and following with a non-league affair against Glenbrook Saturday.

Card varsity polished off Palatine in good fashion last week, then almost upset Elgin in a thriller that went to the home school by 1 point in final seconds. Coach Frank Bohac used unit type of basketball, sending in replacements 5 at a time in both games, giving more boys more experience in preparation for the conference season.

THE GROUPS took turns against Palatine, and did the same the first half at Elgin. Second half, though, Coach Bohac used the boys who appeared to be having the better luck for the evening. He plans to continue that practice during first half of the season.

Probable plans call for Bohac using his best pressing defense to start the games, then pulling them when they begin to tire. Five guards looking best on the press include Bruce Bjorklund, Alan Hutchinson, Lee Magnuson, Dave Varnado and Tom Grey.

TEN BOYS rate equally high in the coach's eyes. Above 5 plus Jack Weber, Bob Lockwood, Dan Borgen, Bob Mors and Pat Corteen rate the nod among the first 10. Others on the squad hoping to move into the first 10 are Don Gerken, Roger Creamer and Ed Whitelaw, the latter currently out with a broken leg bone.

Switching units does help the boys keep on their toes as Coach Bohac keeps an open mind as to just who is leading at what spot. Any boy might be replaced in his unit at any time, depending upon how he looks in both games and practices.

"I'M PLEASED with the determination shown by the boys in the first 2 games," stated Bohac. "They are willing to work and show incentive. If they can keep that attitude we could have a good season.

"It's going to be a stiff year in the WSC though, with several teams having good height and speed. We hope plenty of practice can bring our boys up to their potential, in which case the fans should have an interesting season."

BOHAC HOPES to develop bench strength through the unit system, giving more boys a chance to play. Among those first 5 guards, for instance, are 2 juniors, Magnuson and Varnado, who will gain a lot of experience in preparation for next year.

Just what kind of opposition Riverside-Brookfield will offer Friday night is hard to say. R-B gave a darn good show against New Trier the first quarter, then faltered. If the visitors can reach their potential, it'll be a hard fought game Friday.

Glenbrook doesn't appear to have the strength it has had the past couple of years with lack of height hurting. If the Cardinals do manage to gain a substantial lead Bohac will use as many boys as possible to give them experience. (Sp

Frosh-Sophs Blow Hot and Cold In Openers

Frosh-soph cagers of Arlington hit both ends of the performance chart last week, giving a poor show against a good Palatine soph aggregation, but looking like a completely different ball club in whipping Elgin by 18 points Friday.

Just which way the sophs of Coach Ken Schaller will turn this week against R-B and Glenbrook remains to be seen, though Schaller is hoping he'll see more of the same stuff shown at Elgin.

STARTERS for the Arlington second year team against Palatine were George Bork and Gene Dahlquist at guard, Dan Striegel at center and Bob Inman and Carl Massa at forwards. Striegel and Dahlquist have been replaced as starters, though, for this week's contests by Dundy and Johnson.

Dundy and Johnson showed well in practice this week, and will be given the chance to start Friday and Saturday nights. Some fans expect the local frosh-sophs to have a .500 season this year, though improvement in the boys could mean a better mark than a 9-9 performance. (Sp

Algonquin Stops Prospect Heights

Karkow, the big center from Algonquin, was just too much for the Prospect Heights heavyweights as he controlled the back boards beautifully and then added insult to injury by dropping in 8 points in the third quarter just as the boys from Prospect Heights began knocking on the door with only a 2 point deficit.

Co-Captain Robert Christofferson shared the scoring honors wiht Karkow by throwing in 8 points for the losers. Algonquin won, 30-12.

Prospect Hts: Vaughan 1-0, Christofferson 4-0, Hendrickson 1-0.

Algonquin: Gustas 2-0, Schliechar 3-0, Pryba 3-0, Karkow 4-0, Waters 1-0, Dehlin 2-0.

Algonquin lightweights led by Doug Seagren handed the Prospect Heights lightweights their first loss of the season. It was Seagren's shooting and all-around floor play combined with Bruce Beriet's rebounding that proved to be the thorns for the boys from Prospect Heights.

Captain Luedke led the losers with 6 points while teammate Pudgie Garafolo contributed 5 points. Seagren threw in 8 points to take the scoring honors for the day while Beriet scored 7 points.

Prospect Heights: Garafolo 2-1, Gehrke 0-1, Luedke 3-0, Halverson 1-0, Zaehler 1-0.

Algonquin: Doug Seagren 4-0, Bieret 3-1, Warnicki 1-0, Richards 1-0, Drohan 2-0. (Sp

Wheeling Grade Cagers Win, 38-4

Too much height and speed! That was the story of the Wheeling heavyweight's victory over an outclassed Wilmot 5 from Deerfield. Final score: Wheeling 38, Wilmot 4.

While the score indicates the superiority of the Wheeling 5 over its opponents it does not indicate the caliber of ball played by the Ramblers. The team showed some improvement over its previous effort but it still has a long way to go if it is to become a smooth functioning unit.

The game was ragged throughout marked by bad passing and poor rebounding. Many of the baskets made were the result of stolen passes by Dan Simonsen, the game's high scorer.

Simonsen led all scorers with 21 points followed by Mueller and Krogman of Wheeling with 7 and ski 0-2, Bard 1-0, Mueller 3-1, Simonsen 10-1, Krogman 2-1.

Wilmot: Bergman 1-0, Tess 1-0.

Frosh Opener For Wrestlers At Arlington

Arlington's opening meet for the freshmen wrestlers with Glenbrook will be held in the Heights gym Saturday morning instead of at Glenbrook as originally scheduled.

Coach Maurice Ross has added 4 or 5 more boys to his squad, now numbering 39 in all. The new mats that arrived at the high school this week have meant more workout time for the boys with eliminations held this week to determine the starting lineup for the Glenbrook affair.

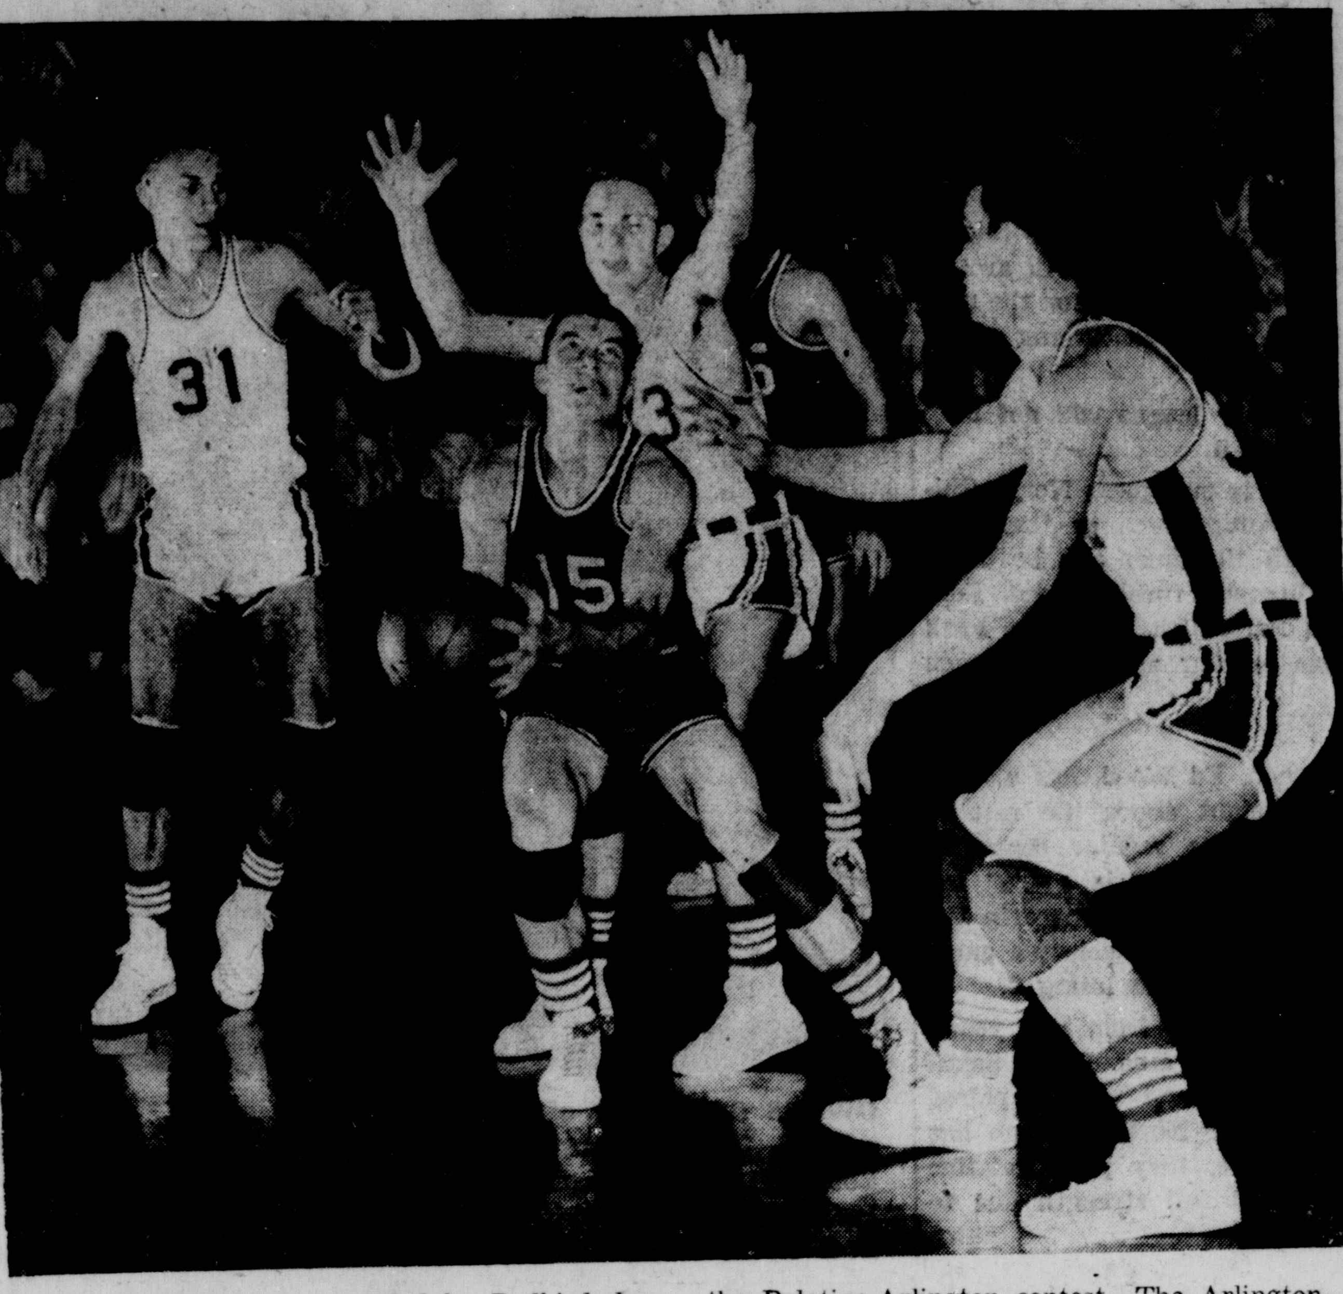
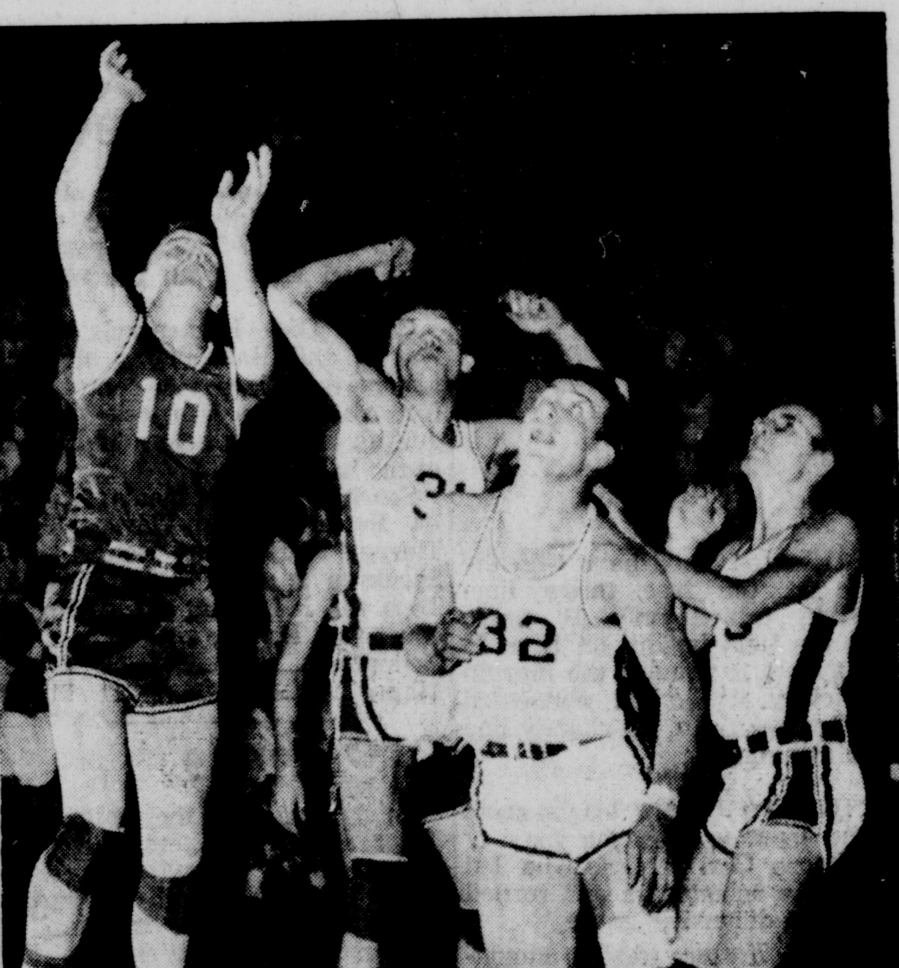
JUST WHICH BOYS will compete at the various weights was not known early this week, but here are the probables.

95—Carl Behrens
103—Tim O'Gorman and John Bergman
112—Dick Ligon and Bill Eaton
120—Mike Koenig and John Lemme
127—Dick Walsh and Bob Kost
133—Dick Leeper
138—Wayne Wilkans
145—Tom Petrosino and Gardiner Simmons
154—George Dilley and Jeff Rudge
165—Robert Wemheuer
175—Bill Zadel and Dennis Herzog
Hvy.—Darrell Phillips, Dale Malzahn and Jim Minikel

New boys who may be of help to the freshmen team as the season progresses include Tim Smith at 103 or 112, Terry Miller at 145 or 154, Mike Hogarty at 145 or 154 and Bradley Blair at 95.



DICK WISNER is surrounded by Redbird defenders as he attempts to get a shot away in the Palatine-Arlington contest. The Arlingtonites won 55-31 despite good showing by Wisner.



PALATINE'S TERRY HICKS vies with Arlington's Pat Corteen, Jack Weber, and Dave Varnado for a rebound in the annual Sleighbells contest in the Redbirds' gym Friday night.

Card Wrestlers to Host Glenbrook This Saturday

Arlington's varsity wrestlers will initiate a new season against Glenbrook Saturday afternoon with a tough meet in prospect. Glenbrook has made a great improvement in grappling the past 2 years, and lost just 4 boys from last year's good team.

Then, too, 3-6 of Arlington's would-be starters will not be available Saturday due to injuries, all pointing to a very rough afternoon for Coach Dick Mudge's varsity grapplers.

DEAN SCHNECK will not be seen at heavyweight due to a leg injury incurred in football. Jeff Heintz will not be on hand because of a tonsillectomy. John Amann has a sore arm, and Clare Trausch suffered a shoulder injury Monday.

Just who will start for Heights Saturday was still very much up for grabs Tuesday morning. Elimination bouts were scheduled to be held throughout this week to pick the actual starters. Here is a probable list of starters and alternates, with final selections not known until Friday.

BOB TRAUSCH is practically a certainty at 95. It will be Lee Wintz or Jose Ortiz at 103. You can bet on Gerry Bonn at 112, Ralph Carlino at 120 and George Steil at 127. It's a toss-up between Mike Zuccero and Al Seiler at 133, with Ed Schumacher and Mike Kauffman trying for the 138 berth.

Ernie Rodriguez rates the edge at 135, Dick Leckband at 154 and John Torrens at 165. It'll be Greg Rose at 175 and Bill Doering at heavyweight.

WRESTLING FANS will get a tip on what to watch for in the way of penalty holds and individual points in a half hour clinic immediately preceding the 2 p.m. meet Saturday afternoon in the Heights gym. A couple of varsity boys will demonstrate holds and how points are scored with the help of some of the coaches. This will start at 1:30.

Parents of the boys are receiving special letters urging their attendance at this opening meet. Two new 30x30 Ensolite mats, made from foam rubber, will be used Saturday. New mats arrived Monday of this week, enabling the 3 squads to gain more time for workouts than previously with a shortage of mats. (Sp

FROSH-SOPHS will also have a rough date with Glenbrook. Heights second year grapplers are not polished enough to date, with a lot of green boys on the squad who will come through later, but presently lack know-how.

Glenbrook varsity whipped Elgin Tuesday, 26-12, and the Spartan frosh-soph took the measure of Elgin, 27-25, to show they are ready for Heights.

Here are the boys expected to be seen in action for the frosh-sophs Saturday against Glenbrook:

95—Jerry Campbell
103—Tom R. Clark
112—Dick Parson or Dick Meyer
120—Bob Prouty
127—Ernie Meyers
133—Terry Harris
138—Don Goetz or Doug Nabb
145—Al Ullrich
154—Tom Wade or Bill Harrington
165—Bill Andrew
175—Denny Schneck
Hvy.—Bob Hacker or Bob Owen

Heights Frosh Cagers Drub Maine Both Games

Arlington's freshman basketball teams won 2 games from Maine on the Heights courts Monday, the 'A' team winning, 44-27, and the 'B' squad taking a 39-25 contest.

Starters for Coach Ted Wissen's 'A' squad from Prospect high school were Empkie and Tuttle at the forwards, Palmer at center, and Lussow and Grams at the guards. Locals forged ahead 9-4 at the quarter and extended this to 22-10 at the half.

Coach Wissen substituted freely the final quarter after Arlington had a 20 point lead going. Scoring for Arlington: Grams 12, Lussow 9, Klement 7, Empkie and Palmer 6, Clabaugh and Newhard 2.

Eight boys scored for Maine.

Arlington	9	22	40	44
Maine	4	10	21	27

THE 'B' SQUAD started slowly 5-5, but racked up a 14-6 margin the second period, plus another 14 points the third segment. That meant a 33-17 margin going into the home stretch for Coach Ozzie Aldrich's Heights 5.

All 19 Arlington boys saw action in the game. Glidden's 16 points were high for the locals. Other scoring: Glaser 7, Thomas 5, Quackenbush and Buick 4, Froyd 2, Anderson 1. For Maine it was Hutmacher with 6, Fridley with 5, plus 6 others making the scoring column.

Glidden's 8 buckets included 2 the first period, 4 the second and 2 more the third.

Gymnastics Team To Show Routines

Gymnastics team at Arlington high school will show its wares to students at an assembly Friday, then hold a black-blue intrasquad meet that afternoon to give Coach Gay Hughes a line on what his boys can do.

The Heights team is preparing for its opener against Proviso Dec. 12, then the Northern Illinois Invitational Dec. 20 with Heights serving as host.

Captaining the 2 squads Friday afternoon will be Bruce Robb and Ed Wilson. Routines Friday will give Coach Hughes an idea as to just who will compete on what equipment in the opening meets.

The assembly will give team members a chance to perform before the students on horizontal and parallel bars, side horse, rings, trampoline and tumbling.

RALPH WILLE received the George Grossi memorial trophy for being named most valuable player of the Arlington football team Wednesday night between halves of the Arlington-Palatine basketball game. Teammates selected Ralph for the award, donated by Arlington VFW Post 981.

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by BOB PADDOCK

ANOTHER ARLINGTON boy gained football honors this past season, this time in the private school league. Bob Miles, 102 S. Brighton Place, has been a starting varsity player at North Shore country day school in Winnetka all 4 years of his high school days. He played line backer on defense, and frequently moved to halfback on offense. North Shore copped the private school league title in 1955, but finished third this season.

BOB MILES

Another Arlington youth, this time a grad of AHS last June, has been named frosh swimming captain at Grinnell college. Stan was an outstanding track man in his school, and made all-state track squad last spring. He set a new pool and Midwest conference swim mark in early workouts this weekend.

On the varsity swim squad for Grinnell from the WSC is letterman Dick Bresnahan of Hinsdale, a free style junior. Grinnell is rated 1 of the 3 strongest swim teams in the Midwest league.

BRUCE WILKERSON, Arlington grad from Prospect Heights, is 1 of 2 returning lettermen on Grinnell wrestling squad. . . . He's a ferocious junior heavyweight. . . . Sophomore Dodd Millar of Glenbard is expected to be heard from at 130. . . . Frosh wrestling roster at Grinnell includes Glenn Dierking of Fenton and Dave Grant of Downers at 147, plus Wayne Langguth of Fenton at 191. . . . And on the cage squad is Lee Moses, 6-2 junior forward from Maine. . . . For the freshmen it'll be John Boyles of York and Jack Woods of La Grange.

Among 7 returning cage lettermen at Beloit are seniors Jack Sanders and Lyle Rossiter of Glenbard, both standing 6-5.

Ted Caiazza of La Grange has reinjured his knee in Illini cage workouts and may be out action for the season. . . . Capt. John Paul of St. Edward of Elgin will be seeing plenty of action. . . . One of 4 cross country letters at Illinois went to Jim Bowers of De Kalb. . . . Illini frosh grid numerals went to Joe Geraci of Grayslake and Lars Henriksen of Fenton. . . . Bob Mitchell of Illinois has been named to UCLA all-opponents grid squad. . . . Members of that honor group will be flown to LA Dec. 14 for a big dance, provided with a date, and flown home again.

JOHN SUJACK of Arlington, out for frosh football at Indiana this fall, gained headlines down that way when he gave a rough account of the drop in interest on the Hoosier frosh grid squad from an alleged 103 boys out reduced to 45. . . . Info was contained in a personal letter to Pete Swanson of Heights at Illinois which emerged in public print. . . . John also reported on a 7-foot frosh cager "who outplays Archie Dees in every respect." . . .

Of 33 boys named all-state gridders a year ago in Illinois, 30 are in college, 2 in preparatory schools, and 1 is in the Victorian Seminary at Arlington. . . . Big 10 cage teams have 66 per cent of their scoring punch back from last year, including 93 per cent at Wisconsin, 82 at Ohio State, 81 at Iowa and 76 at Michigan State. . . . Spartans have "1,442 of their 1,895 points back" for another season.

UNDERSTANDING WRESTLING better will be the object of a half hour clinic for fans just ahead of Arlington's opening matches against Glenbrook Saturday, Dec. 7. . . . We've been corrected on the statement "wrestling is not a recognized sport in the WSC." . . . Coach Maurice Ross has added 4 or 5 more boys to his squad, now numbering 39 in all. The new mats that arrived at the high school this week have meant more workout time for the boys with eliminations held this week to determine the starting lineup for the Glenbrook affair.

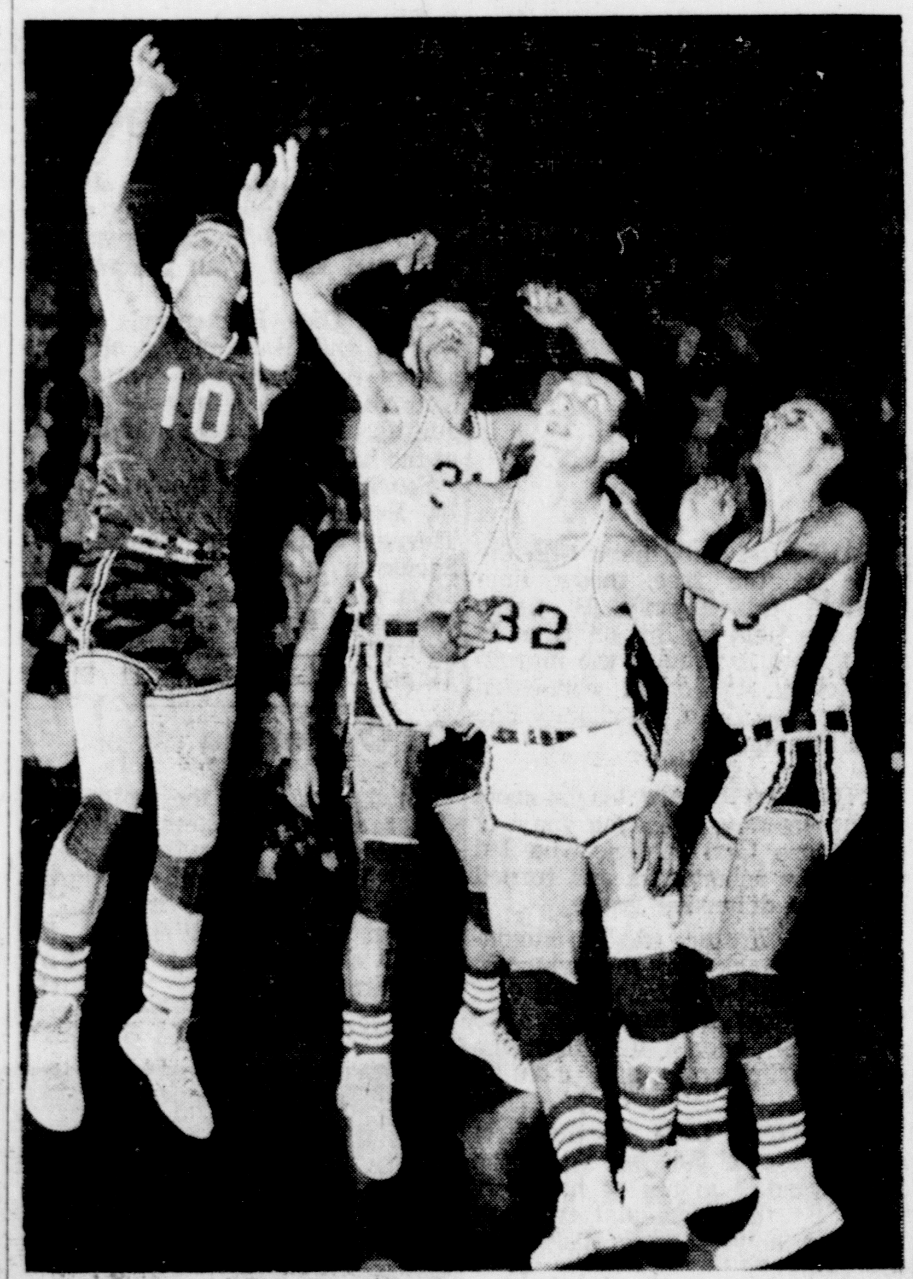
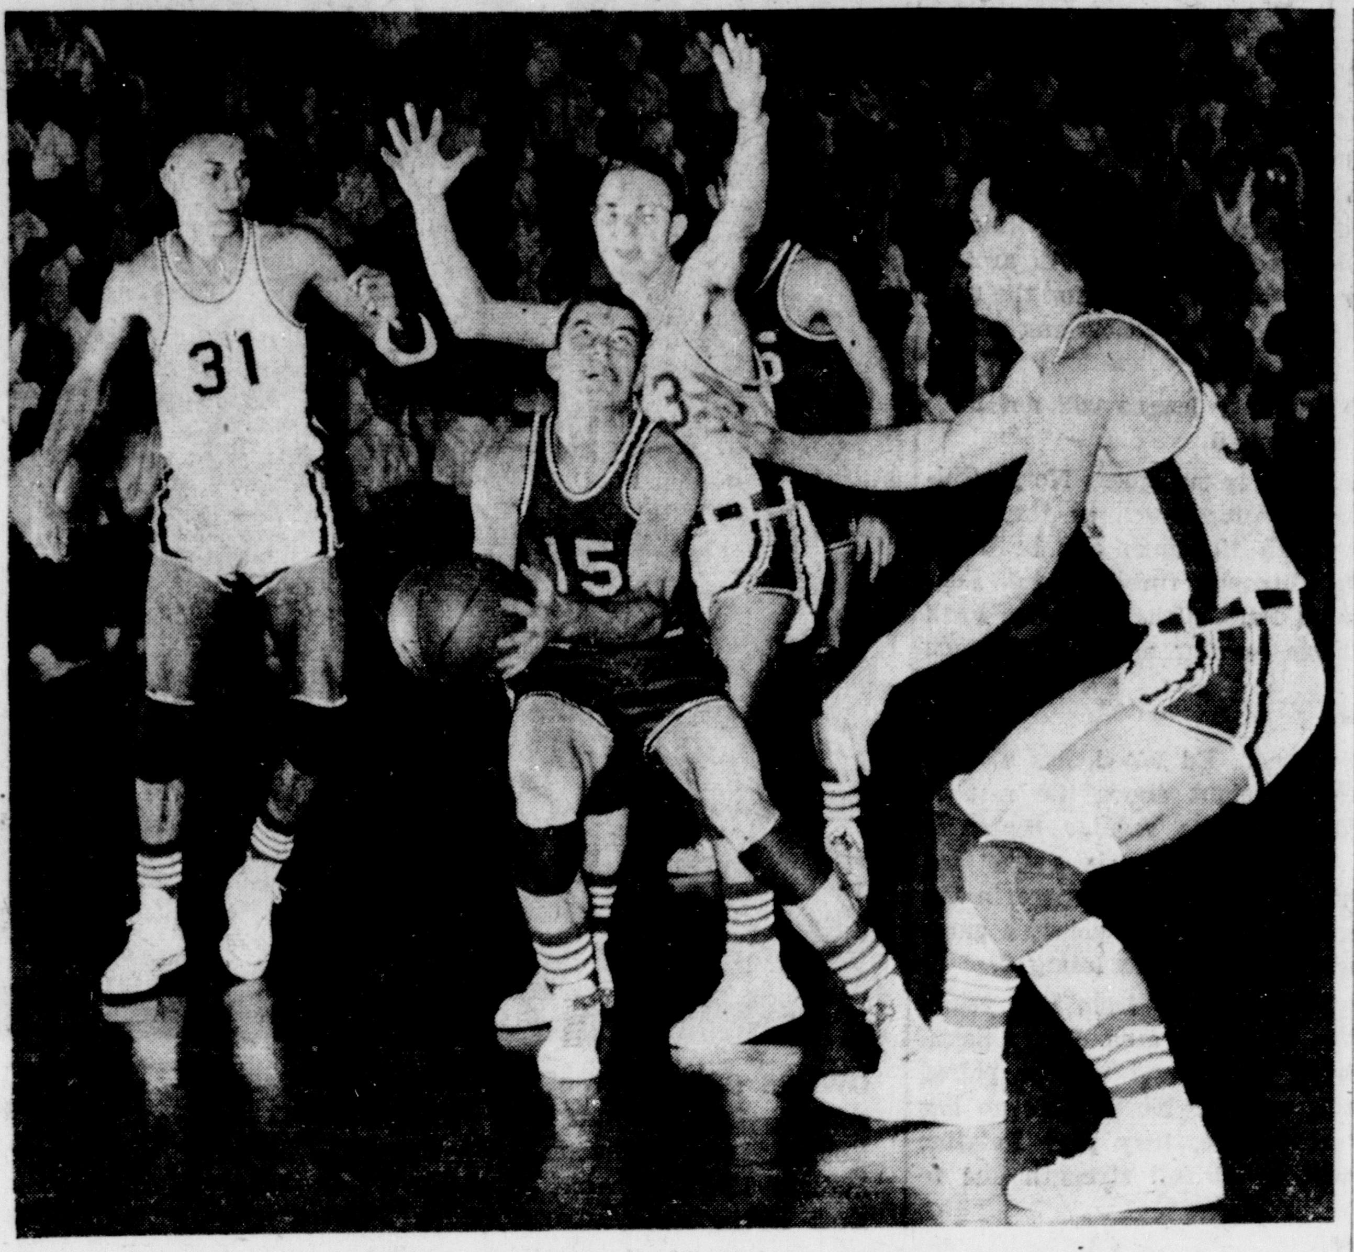
95—Carl Behrens
103—Tim O'Gorman and John Bergman
112—Dick Ligon and Bill Eaton
120—Mike Koenig and John Lemme
127—Dick Walsh and Bob Kost
133—Dick Leeper
138—Wayne Wilkans
145—Tom Petrosino and Gardiner Simmons
154—George Dilley and Jeff Rudge
165—Robert Wemheuer
175—Bill Zadel and Dennis Herzog
Hvy.—Darrell Phillips, Dale Malzahn and Jim Minikel

New boys who may be of help to the freshmen team as the season progresses include Tim Smith at 103 or 112, Terry Miller at 145 or 154, Mike Hogarty at 145 or 154 and Bradley Blair at 95.



PALATINE'S TERRY HICKS vies with Arlington's Pat Corteen, Jack Weber, and Dave Varnado for a rebound in the annual Sleighbells contest in the Redbirds' gym Friday night.



DICK WISNER is surrounded by Redbird defenders as he attempts to get a shot away in the Palatine-Arlington contest. The Arlingtonites won 55-31 despite good showing by Wisner.

Card Wrestlers to Host Glenbrook This Saturday

Arlington's varsity wrestlers will initiate a new season against Glenbrook Saturday afternoon with a tough meet in prospect. Glenbrook has made a great improvement in grappling the past 2 years, and lost just 4 boys from last year's good team.

Then, too, 3-6 of Arlington's would-be starters will not be available Saturday due to injuries, all pointing to a very rough afternoon for Coach Dick Mudge's varsity grapplers.

DEAN SCHNECK will not be seen at heavyweight due to a leg injury incurred in football. Jeff Heintz will not be on hand because of a tonsillectomy. John Amann has a sore arm, and Clare Trausch suffered a shoulder injury Monday.

Just who will start for Heights Saturday was still very much up for grabs Tuesday morning. Elimination bouts were scheduled to be held throughout this week to pick the actual starters. Here is a probable list of starters and alternates, with final selections not known until Friday.

BOB TRAUSCH is practically a certainty at 95. It will be Lee Wintz or Jose Ortiz at 103. You can bet on Gerry Bonn at 112, Ralph Carlino at 120 and George Steil at 127. It's a toss-up between Mike Zuccero and Al Seiler at 133, with Ed Schumacher and Mike Kauffman trying for the 138 berth.

Ernie Rodriguez rates the edge at 135, Dick Leckband at 154 and John Torrens at 165. It'll be Greg Rose at 175 and Bill Doering at heavyweight.

WRESTLING FANS will get a tip on what to watch for in the way of penalty holds and individual points in a half hour clinic immediately preceding the 2 p.m. meet Saturday afternoon in the Heights gym. A couple of varsity boys will demonstrate holds and how points are scored with the help of some of the coaches. This will start at 1:30.

Parents of the boys are receiving special letters urging their attendance at this opening meet. Two new 30x30 Ensolite mats, made from foam rubber, will be used Saturday. New mats arrived Monday of this week, enabling the 3 squads to gain more time for workouts than previously with a shortage of mats. (Sp

FROSH-SOPHS will also have a rough date with Glenbrook. Heights second year grapplers are not polished enough to date, with a lot of green boys on the squad who will come through later, but presently lack know-how.

Glenbrook varsity whipped Elgin Tuesday, 26-12, and the Spartan frosh-soph took the measure of Elgin, 27-25, to show they are ready for Heights.

Here are the boys expected to be seen in action for the frosh-sophs Saturday against Glenbrook:

95—Jerry Campbell
103—Tom R. Clark
112—Dick Parson or Dick Meyer
120—Bob Prouty
127—Ernie Meyers
133—Terry Harris
138—Don Goetz or Doug Nabb
145—Al Ullrich
154—Tom Wade or Bill Harrington
165—Bill Andrew
175—Denny Schneck
Hvy.—Bob Hacker or Bob Owen

Heights Frosh Cagers Drub Maine Both Games

Arlington's freshman basketball teams won 2 games from Maine on the Heights courts Monday, the 'A' team winning, 44-27, and the 'B' squad taking a 39-25 contest.

Starters for Coach Ted Wissen's 'A' squad from Prospect high school were Empkie and Tuttle at the forwards, Palmer at center, and Lussow and Grams at the guards. Locals forged ahead 9-4 at the quarter and extended this to 22-10 at the half.

Coach Wissen substituted freely the final quarter after Arlington had a 20 point lead going. Scoring for Arlington: Grams 12, Lussow 9, Klement 7, Empkie and Palmer 6, Clabaugh and Newhard 2. Eight boys scored for Maine.

Arlington	9	22	40	44
Maine	4	10	21	27

THE 'B' SQUAD started slowly 5-5, but racked up a 14-6 margin the second period, plus another 14 points the third segment. That meant a 33-17 margin going into the home stretch for Coach Ozzie Aldrich's Heights 5.

All 19 Arlington boys saw action in the game. Glidden's 16 points were high for the locals. Other scoring: Glaser 7, Thomas 5, Quackenbush and Buick 4, Froyd 2, Anderson 1. For Maine it was Hutmacher with 6, Fridley with 5, plus 6 others making the scoring column.

Glidden's 8 buckets included 2 the first period, 4 the second and 2 more the third.

R-B Here Friday, Then Glenbrook

It'll be a double weekend at home for Arlington cage teams and fans with the Cardinals opening the conference schedule against R-B Friday and following with a non-league affair against Glenbrook Saturday.

Card varsity polished off Palatine in good fashion last week, then almost upset Elgin in a thriller that went to the home school by 1 point in final seconds. Coach Frank Bohac used unit type of basketball, sending in replacements 5 at a time in both games, giving more boys more experience in preparation for the conference season.

THE GROUPS took turns against Palatine, and did the same the first half at Elgin. Second half, though, Coach Bohac used the boys who appeared to be having the better luck for the evening. He plans to continue that practice during first half of the season.

Probable plans call for Bohac using his best pressing defense to start the games, then pulling them when they begin to tire. Five guards looking best on the press include Bruce Bjorklund, Alan Hutchinson, Lee Magnuson, Dave Varnado and Tom Grey.

TEN BOYS rate equally high in the coach's eyes. Above 5 plus Jack Weber, Bob Lockwood, Dan Borgen, Bob Mors and Pat Corteen rate the nod among the first 10. Others on the squad hoping to move into the first 10 are Don Gerken, Roger Creamer and Ed Whitelaw, the latter currently out with a broken leg bone.

Switching units does help the boys keep on their toes as Coach Bohac keeps an open mind as to just who is leading at what spot. Any boy might be replaced in his unit at any time, depending upon how he looks in both games and practices.

"I'M PLEASED with the determination shown by the boys in the first 2 games," stated Bohac. "They are willing to work and show incentive. If they can keep that attitude we could have a good season.

"It's going to be a stiff year in the WSC though, with several teams having good height and speed. We hope plenty of practice can bring our boys up to their potential, in which case the fans should have an interesting season."

BOHAC HOPES to develop bench strength through the unit system, giving more boys a chance to play. Among those first 5 guards, for instance, are 2 juniors, Magnuson and Varnado, who will gain a lot of experience in preparation for next year.

Just what kind of opposition Riverside-Brookfield will offer Friday night is hard to say. R-B gave a darn good show against New Trier the first quarter, then faltered. If the visitors can reach their potential, it'll be a hard fought game Friday.

Glenbrook doesn't appear to have the strength it has had the past couple of years with lack of height hurting. If the Cardinals do manage to gain a substantial lead Bohac will use as many boys as possible to give them experience. (Sp

Gymnastics team at Arlington high school will show its wares to students at an assembly Friday, then hold a black-blue intrasquad meet that afternoon to give Coach Gay Hughes a line on what his boys can do.

The Heights team is preparing for its opener against Proviso Dec. 12, then the Northern Illinois Invitational Dec. 20 with Heights serving as host.

Captaining the 2 squads Friday afternoon will be Bruce Robb and Ed Wilson. Routines Friday will give Coach Hughes an idea as to just who will compete on what equipment in the opening meets.

The assembly will give team members a chance to perform before the students on horizontal and parallel bars, side horse, rings, trampoline and tumbling.

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McELROY

NEXT FRIDAY the new Tri-County conference opens the basketball schedule with Lake Park at Glenbrook and North Chicago at Elmwood Park. The following Friday North Chicago will be at Palatine and Glenbrook at Fenton. All around the area schools have been playing non-league games for the past 2 or 3 weeks. We have received information concerning all of the teams in the new conference.

It is our opinion that the Tri-County league will not be as strong in basketball as it was in football.

On the eve of the league opening it is our guess North Chicago will take the basketball championship much as they won the football trophy. They might win all 10 games and be undefeated in basketball. We think Palatine will finish second, Fenton third, Glenbrook fourth, Elmwood Park fifth, and Lake Park last. We are briefly stating the basis for our appraisal of each team.

NORTH CHICAGO: A new coach, Ed Wood, has a team which stands 3 inches in height above the rest of the conference. Playing his third season as regular center is Jerry Michalski standing 6'5". At one forward is a 6'4" lad named Bob Armstead who was rated the best sophomore in the Chicago area last year when he scored close to 20 points a game for a North Chicago varsity which won 18 while losing 7.

Also at forward is 6'5" Jerry Bernardi up from last year's soph team, one of the finest in the suburban area. Larry Sekulich 6'1" was a regular last year at guard and will be paired with Alan Kuseki a 6'3" letterman reserve. North Chicago has height, speed, and experience. Furthermore, they play Palatine on the road before the Pirates will be at full strength due to injuries.

PALATINE: Coach John Fabri brought Palatine basketball back a long way last year and this season has 3 regulars and 6 of his best 8 squad members returning. Lack of height will be Palatine's handicap. The Pirates will also be short handed at the start due to the loss of Bruce Crane, 6'1" forward, who was second high scorer last year. Crane will be back in action shortly but has had a knee in a cast for a month following an operation.

Jim Eldridge has been out with a concussion suffered in an auto accident and his 6'3" height is needed.

On the credit side Fabri has speedy Dick Wisner, 5'10" floor guard, and his team mate in the back court, Gerry Segebrecht, a 6'2" player who has been shifted to center. Terry Hicks, a first line sub of last year, operates at guard. Palatine has fair speed, good ball handling, and a strong defensie team. If at full strength the Pirates could give North Chicago a good battle December 13. We think the Pirates will have the edge on most of the conference teams.

FENTON: Coach Chuck Cole has 8 lettermen returning at Fenton, lacking only Lars Henriksen from last year's good team. Henriksen was about half the team, ranking second in league scoring, but Cole has the makings of a fine club which gave notice by beating Leyden last Friday.

Fenton veterans are Bernie Sell, center; Terry Biefeld and Bob Meyer, forwards; and Dave Helms, Fred Hohman, and Dom DiOrio, guards. Sell is the only player standing over 6 feet in height. Fenton has much speed and good ball handling.

GLENBROOK: The Spartans dropped down the league ladder last year and will have trouble moving up very far due to a very weak soph team which won 2 of 16. Coach Howie Helfrich has 5 lettermen from a team which won 8 and lost 14. Best of the veterans are Doug Timmerman, playmaker and only consistent starter last year; and Doug Grove, 6'3" center, and Dave Patterson with whom he alternated. Frank Ayres, 5'9" guard; and Jim Lass, 6' forward, are lettermen who saw action as substitutes.

Glenbrook beat Ela-Vernon and looked good losing by 1 point in an overtime to Zion-Benton last Saturday. It will take a tremendous job of coaching for Helfrich to make a winner from the material available.

ELMWOOD PARK: We really know little of Elmwood Park except the information they supplied us. Last year the team won 6 and lost 17, their first in competition with other schools on a varsity level. From that team Coach Jim Smith has 2 regulars in Jim Krauser, 5'8" senior guard; and Jay Trungale, 5'11" junior forward. Up from the sophs and most likely to see action are Ken Shaffer, 5'10" guard; and Bob Planche and John Hansen, 6'2" forwards.

Other juniors are Dan Luce a 6'2" center ;and Jim Stahlcup, a 6' guard. George Metzger, a 6'2" senior center, may be a big help. He was ineligible last season. Last year's soph team won 15 and lost 7 and Elmwood Park's good non-league showing may mean that the team will be better than some more highly rated team before the season closes in February.

LAKE PARK: It may seem strange to pick a team for last which has all players returning from last season. However, Lake Park is operating for the first time as a 4 year high school and those 23 straight defeats absorbed last year were with a team which included no seniors. Coach Gerry Carpenter has 8 lettermen.

Heading the list is Charles Christiansen a 6'4" center, who played on Fenton's undefeated sophomore team 2 years ago. Another good rebounder is Dale Hacke who also stands 6'4". Other lettermen are Charles Reeves 6', Gene Volkman 5'7", Grey Bergin 5'10", Robert Stumpf, 5'10", Dick Jordan 6', and Norm Keller 5'7". Lake Park whipped Round Lake of the Northwest conference and will have a good but not a great team. They may be real tough for the leaders after the holidays.

MAX TRUEX of Warsaw, Indiana, came back to the midwest and won the NCAA cross country championship held at East Lansing, Michigan, and in the process knocked 24 seconds off the meet record for the 4 mile event in 19:12.3. Truex, who runs for the University of Southern California, was a distance runner on the 1956 Olympic team. Notre Dame won the team title for the first time. Michigan State, always among the leaders, failed to defend their title, taking second.

Northwest conference schools fared very poorly in their opening non-league games. Six of them lost their first 2 games. We agree with the Libertyville sports writer who picks Warren for first and Antioch, second. We do not agree Grayslake will be 6th as we expect to see the Rams in the first division. They looked good at Palatine last Friday though playing without one of their regulars.

Information in a neighboring paper states that Bill Thorp of Barrington will likely enroll at Illinois Wesleyan next fall. Thorp has been all North Suburban quarter back for 3 years and is outstanding in basketball and baseball. He scored 22 points in Barrington's cage opener with Hinsdale and was picked by the Daily News on the third all-state football team.

THE SUBURBAN LEAGUE has 2 new basketball coaches this season in Tom Nisbet who transferred to New Trier after 10 highly successful years at Thornton, and Bob Schrader who came from Sauk City, Wisconsin, to handle the cagers at Highland Park. According to reports both are expected to have their hands full in their new positions. Proviso is expected to be the team to beat in the Suburban with Evanston and Oak Park likely to be good outfits.

We did not get around to collecting information earlier for our 10 and 20 years ago feature started last winter. This week we are starting this part of our column and including something from the football season to bring things up to date.

EARL MAXON caught more than he bargained for when he downed this 8-point, 160-lb. buck deer while hunting last week near Ironwood, Mich. He came down with a case of pneumonia from which he is now happily recovering. He expects to be back on duty at his Maxon Sporting Goods store, 1182 Lee st., Des Plaines, in the very near future.

Cards Split Weekend Bouts

A basket in the final 7 seconds of play handed Arlington's varsity cagers their first setback in 3 starts this season at Elgin Friday night, 59-58.

THE CARDS gave the winners quite a battle before forward Ernie Ackeman tossed in the winning bucket. Elgin, supposedly down after finishing second in the state tournament last year, displayed a rangy outfit sporting a 6-7 center and 6-5 forward.

Completely dominated on the boards (Arlington got only 15 rebounds for the evening) the locals had to turn in a red hot shooting game in order to remain in contention.

BOB LOCKWOOD and Bruce Bjorklund shared scoring honors with 17 points each. Elgin's big center proved unstoppable, however, as he personally accounted for 22 of the winners' points.

The locals held a scant 19-18 lead at the end of the first quarter, a lead which they maintained at intermission, 35-34. The Birds apparently had things more their way at the three-quarter mark as they moved to a 49-45 advantage.

Ironically, Ackeman's only field goals came in the final minute of play. With 2 and a half minutes to play Arlington led 53-52. The 2 teams exchanged the lead 5 times in the final couple of minutes before Ackeman settled the issue.

SCORE BY QUARTERS
Arlington	19	35	49—58
Elgin	18	34	45—59

IN THE ANNUAL Sleighbells contest Arlington outran Palatine 55-31. Using a press throughout the game, the Birds put plenty of distance between them and the losers and coasted to an easy victory.

The winners' 55 points were split between 11 players, with no single player tallying more than 8. Palatine's offense was centered around a good guard, Dick Wisner, who threw in 11 points in a losing effort.

Frank Bohac cleared his bench.

THE CARDS' defense held the losers to only 4 points in each of the second and third quarters. Again depth at the guard positions was impressive as Coach At times Bohac was platooning his team, with 8 players seeing action in all 4 quarters.

BY HALFTIME the Cards had built a 30-14 lead which was stretched to a 43-18 advantage at the end of three quarters. Wisner's 7 points in the final stanza narrowed Arlington's margin of victory.

The Red and White take their 2-1 record into WSC play this weekend when they play host to Riverside-Brookfield Friday night. Saturday night Glenbrook pays a visit to the Arlington gym in a non-conference battle.

JUST DOGS

by DAVE TERRILL

Christmas Puppy

"Do your Christmas shopping early" —so say the signs you see everywhere, and this applies to that new puppy you intend to buy for the family.

Like everything else, the better pups are usually gone long before Christmas week and if you are looking for a pure-bred dog it should be done now. A pup can be picked out now and held by the kennel until the day before Christmas, when it should be brought home and introduced to the family. Every year your editor advises people who contemplate buying a Christmas puppy to have the pup in the house a day or two before, Christmas, in order that he can be well introduced to the family routine and likewise the family can get adjusted to the idea of feeding the new pup and taking care of him in general.

Many a pup brought into the house for the first time on Christmas day is often lost in the shuffle and sometimes his rather necessary needs are forgotten, not on purpose, but just due to the fact that there is so much going on that he can be shoved aside at the wrong moment — result: one more puddle that might have been avoided.

Awareness

Speaking of puppies brings to mind a paper presented before the seventh annual veterinary symposium on "Newer Knowledge About Dogs" by Dr. J. B. Scott, chairman, division of behavior studies, Roscoe B. Jackson Memorial laboratory, held in Kankakee under the sponsorship of the Gaines Dog Research center, New York City.

In his paper on abnormal behavior in dogs, Dr. Scott said that a puppy at 3 weeks of age becomes pliable and sensitive to outside conditions and that the next few weeks form a critical period in his preparation for later life.

When a puppy enters this "socialization" stage he will react to and show interest in people and other animals, fight playfully with his litter mates and respond fearfully to noises ans sudden movements.

Tests have shown that puppies raised in isolated areas, well fed and housed, but with no contact with people during the socialization period, will act wild and show fear or aggression. Likewise, puppies raised in confinement have no opportunity to learn about the world outside and when kept in cages for 3 months or longer, the emerging puppies, while physically normal, are completely inexperienced and unable to adjust properly to the conditions of outside life. Dr. Scott added that a puppy kept in "cold storage," so to speak, from seven weeks to one year of age can't be expected to have learned anything, or be aware of proper training.

Rand Park Obedience Trial

Nine people from this area had dogs entered in the eighth annual all-breed obedience trial held by the Rand Park Dog Training Club of Des Plaines in the Rand Park field house Sunday.

In the group were: Mrs. Dorothy Brening, Arlington Heights, with her German Shepherd; Victor R. Kahn, Mt. Prospect also with a German Shepherd; Wayne Smith, Northbrook, a Dalmatian; Martha Jayne, Palatine, a German Shepherd; Stanton Petry, Arlington Heights, a Golden Retriever; Edward Pakan of Wheeling, a German Shepherd; Wilbur C. Nelson, Arlington Heights, a Miniature Poodle; Erma and Dee Muster of Bensenville, a Weimaraner; and James Michaels of Palatine, a Doberman Pinscher.

Of general interest to the members of the Northwest Obedience club, which trains in Palatine, might be the fact that the trophy awarded by the club at the Rand Park show to a member or trainee of Northwest, whose dog had the highest qualifying score in either of the novice classes went to Wilbur Nelson of Arlington Heights. His dog, "Sabrina" a miniature poodle scored 195 out of a possible 200 points in the Novice "A" class.

Barks & Bays

Do not say, "Mrs. Jackson is a widow woman." Omit "woman."

Sophs Bounce Back

Arlington's frosh-soph basketballers bounced back from a poor showing against Palatine to hand Elgin a 58-40 thumping at Elgin Friday night.

Palatine had been victorious over the Birdies Wednesday evening by a 33-28 score in Arlington's gym.

GEORGE BORK paced the winners' attack at Elgin with 18 points. Carl Massa followed the leader closely with a 14 point total.

The Birdies jumped off to a 16-8 lead in the first quarter, led 27-17 at halftime, and rested comfortably with a 35-24 advantage at the end of three quarters.

IT WAS A DIFFERENT story against Palatine. The locals were able to score only 12 baskets, 5 of which came in the second half. Poor shooting and muffed setups accounted for the low score.

Despite their low field goal output Arlington could have won the game at the free throw line. Palatine tallied only 11 times from the field but hit on 11 of 18 free throws to provide the margin of victory. Arlington connected only 4 times from the charity line in 14 attempts.

ONE OF THE few bright spots of the evening was the play of sophomore Carl Massa, who led the Birdie rebounders and turned in a fine defensive game.

Harvey Foster was a single-handed attack for the winners, dumping in 7 field goals and 6 of 8 free throw attempts for a 20 point total, only 8 less than the entire Arlington squad could muster.

PALATINE LED at the first quarter's end, 7-6, but Arlington fell behind 2 points at halftime, 16-14. By the three-quarter mark Palatine had its biggest lead of the game, 24-18.

An Arlington rally, which closed the gap to 24-23 with 5 minutes to play, fizzled out and the visitors had their second win in a row.

The locals now move into conference play tomorrow night against Riverside-Brookfield, carrying a 2-1 record.

10 YEARS AGO: In the 13 school Northwest conference the football season closed with Lake Forest 6-1, Warren 5-1, and Arlington Heights 4-1 (beat Lake Forest 13-7). Barrington was last with a tie and 5 losses.

Palatine beat Leyden 24-21 in cage opener as Cliff Haemker hit 3 field goals in a row in final minutes with Pirates trailing 21-18. Haemker and O'Brien scored 23 of the 24 points. Bob Hollinger, regular guard, and Chuck Snyder, who fed Haemker for winning baskets, are freshmen on the varsity team. . . . Night before Thanksgiving, at the basketball homecoming, Pirates beat alumni 27-15. . . . Arlington opened season with losses to Crystal Lake 28-25 and Maine 37-27.

"Mac Says" column picks Ela to win the cage championship on basis of lettermen: Capt. Leuthesser, L. Gleason, H. Gleason, Schroeder, and Wildhagen. (It was a good guess as Ela went through the season undefeated until Palatine stopped them in district tourney.)

Conference season opened with Ela beating Palatine 35-18 with 16 points in final quarter. Pirates shot only 12.5%. Lights beat Ela 25-24. . . . Arlington opened by beating Barrington 24-20 (arsity) and 33-16 (lightweights). . . . Bensenville lost 22-20 to Alumni though Coach Johnson's team rated the favorite.

20 YEARS AGO: Football closed with Bensenville and Grant sharing Northwest title. Bisons on all-league team were Bob Thollander, who set scoring record of 85 points in 5 games, at fullback; Bob Pittman at tackle; John Gaspar at guard; Richard Steffensen and Ralph Baldwin at ends; Bob Vuglar at center; and William Robertson at quarterback. Dick Pepper and Harold Stephan made backfield positions on the 22-man squad. Arlington Heights placed Marvin Berschet at tackle, John Stanley at center, and Walter Beckman at guard on all-Northeast conference team.

"Mac Says" picked Bensenville to nose out Barrington for the Northwest cage title. They started off fine by beating Palatine 39-28 as Thollander got 17. Bisons led Pirates 1 point going into final period and then ran wild. . . . Bisons shot 33%. Bison frosh-soph won 29-14. . . . Arlington JV Cagers Defeat Maine, 39-28

Arlington's JV cagers started fast against Maine Monday afternoon for an 8-3 opening period lead and kept it all the way to win, 39-28.

Coach Dick Kinneman's squad Raupp and Barbour as starters at forward, Tierney at center, and Butterfield and Warnecke at the guards. Heights held a 16-11 lead at the half.

Scoring for the locals: Raupp 10, Butterfield 9, Warnecke 8, Tierney 5, Barbour, Bennett and Soenksen 2 each, and Gerken 1. Tops for Maine on the Arlington court was Bogner with 17.

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McELROY

NEXT FRIDAY the new Tri-County conference opens the basketball schedule with Lake Park at Glenbrook and North Chicago at Elmwood Park. The following Friday North Chicago will be at Palatine and Glenbrook at Fenton. All around the area schools have been playing non-league games for the past 2 or 3 weeks. We have received information concerning all of the teams in the new conference.

It is our opinion that the Tri-County league will not be as strong in basketball as it was in football.

On the eve of the league opening it is our guess North Chicago will take the basketball championship much as they won the football trophy. They might win all 10 games and be undefeated in basketball. We think Palatine will finish second, Fenton third, Glenbrook fourth, Elmwood Park fifth, and Lake Park last. We are briefly stating the basis for our appraisal of each team.

NORTH CHICAGO: A new coach, Ed Wood, has a team which stands 3 inches in height above the rest of the conference. Playing his third season as regular center is Jerry Michalski standing 6'5". At one forward is a 6'4" lad named Bob Armstead who was rated the best sophomore in the Chicago area last year when he scored close to 20 points a game for a North Chicago varsity which won 18 while losing 7.

Also at forward is 6'5" Jerry Bernardi up from last year's soph team, one of the finest in the suburban area. Larry Sekulich 6'1" was a regular last year at guard and will be paired with Alan Kuseki a 6'3" letterman reserve. North Chicago has height, speed, and experience. Furthermore, they play Palatine on the road before the Pirates will be at full strength due to injuries.

PALATINE: Coach John Fabri brought Palatine basketball back a long way last year and this season has 3 regulars and 6 of his best 8 squad members returning. Lack of height will be Palatine's handicap. The Pirates will also be short handed at the start due to the loss of Bruce Crane, 6'1" forward, who was second high scorer last year. Crane will be back in action shortly but has had a knee in a cast for a month following an operation.

Jim Eldridge has been out with a concussion suffered in an auto accident and his 6'3" height is needed.

On the credit side Fabri has speedy Dick Wisner, 5'10" floor guard, and his team mate in the back court, Gerry Segebrecht, a 6'2" player who has been shifted to center. Terry Hicks, a first line sub of last year, operates at guard. Palatine has fair speed, good ball handling, and a strong defensie team. If at full strength the Pirates could give North Chicago a good battle December 13. We think the Pirates will have the edge on most of the conference teams.

FENTON: Coach Chuck Cole has 8 lettermen returning at Fenton, lacking only Lars Henriksen from last year's good team. Henriksen was about half the team, ranking second in league scoring, but Cole has the makings of a fine club which gave notice by beating Leyden last Friday.

Fenton veterans are Bernie Sell, center; Terry Biefeld and Bob Meyer, forwards; and Dave Helms, Fred Hohman, and Dom DiOrio, guards. Sell is the only player standing over 6 feet in height. Fenton has much speed and good ball handling.

GLENBROOK: The Spartans dropped down the league ladder last year and will have trouble moving up very far due to a very weak soph team which won 2 of 16. Coach Howie Helfrich has 5 lettermen from a team which won 8 and lost 14. Best of the veterans are Doug Timmerman, playmaker and only consistent starter last year; and Doug Grove, 6'3" center, and Dave Patterson with whom he alternated. Frank Ayres, 5'9" guard; and Jim Lass, 6' forward, are lettermen who saw action as substitutes.

Glenbrook beat Ela-Vernon and looked good losing by 1 point in an overtime to Zion-Benton last Saturday. It will take a tremendous job of coaching for Helfrich to make a winner from the material available.

ELMWOOD PARK: We really know little of Elmwood Park except the information they supplied us. Last year the team won 6 and lost 17, their first in competition with other schools on a varsity level. From that team Coach Jim Smith has 2 regulars in Jim Krauser, 5'8" senior guard; and Jay Trungale, 5'11" junior forward. Up from the sophs and most likely to see action are Ken Shaffer, 5'10" guard; and Bob Planche and John Hansen, 6'2" forwards.

Other juniors are Dan Luce a 6'2" center ;and Jim Stahlcup, a 6' guard. George Metzger, a 6'2" senior center, may be a big help. He was ineligible last season. Last year's soph team won 15 and lost 7 and Elmwood Park's good non-league showing may mean that the team will be better than some more highly rated team before the season closes in February.

LAKE PARK: It may seem strange to pick a team for last which has all players returning from last season. However, Lake Park is operating for the first time as a 4 year high school and those 23 straight defeats absorbed last year were with a team which included no seniors. Coach Gerry Carpenter has 8 lettermen.

Heading the list is Charles Christiansen a 6'4" center, who played on Fenton's undefeated sophomore team 2 years ago. Another good rebounder is Dale Hacke who also stands 6'4". Other lettermen are Charles Reeves 6', Gene Volkman 5'7", Grey Bergin 5'10", Robert Stumpf, 5'10", Dick Jordan 6', and Norm Keller 5'7". Lake Park whipped Round Lake of the Northwest conference and will have a good but not a great team. They may be real tough for the leaders after the holidays.

MAX TRUEX of Warsaw, Indiana, came back to the midwest and won the NCAA cross country championship held at East Lansing, Michigan, and in the process knocked 24 seconds off the meet record for the 4 mile event in 19:12.3. Truex, who runs for the University of Southern California, was a distance runner on the 1956 Olympic team. Notre Dame won the team title for the first time. Michigan State, always among the leaders, failed to defend their title, taking second.

Northwest conference schools fared very poorly in their opening non-league games. Six of them lost their first 2 games. We agree with the Libertyville sports writer who picks Warren for first and Antioch, second. We do not agree Grayslake will be 6th as we expect to see the Rams in the first division. They looked good at Palatine last Friday though playing without one of their regulars.

Information in a neighboring paper states that Bill Thorp of Barrington will likely enroll at Illinois Wesleyan next fall. Thorp has been all North Suburban quarter back for 3 years and is outstanding in basketball and baseball. He scored 22 points in Barrington's cage opener with Hinsdale and was picked by the Daily News on the third all-state football team.

THE SUBURBAN LEAGUE has 2 new basketball coaches this season in Tom Nisbet who transferred to New Trier after 10 highly successful years at Thornton, and Bob Schrader who came from Sauk City, Wisconsin, to handle the cagers at Highland Park. According to reports both are expected to have their hands full in their new positions. Proviso is expected to be the team to beat in the Suburban with Evanston and Oak Park likely to be good outfits.

We did not get around to collecting information earlier for our 10 and 20 years ago feature started last winter. This week we are starting this part of our column and including something from the football season to bring things up to date.

10 YEARS AGO: In the 13 school Northwest conference the football season closed with Lake Forest 6-1, Warren 5-1, and Arlington Heights 4-1 (beat Lake Forest 13-7). Barrington was last with a tie and 5 losses.

Cards Split Weekend Bouts

A basket in the final 7 seconds of play handed Arlington's varsity cagers their first setback in 3 starts this season at Elgin Friday night, 59-58.

THE CARDS gave the winners quite a battle before forward Ernie Ackeman tossed in the winning bucket. Elgin, supposedly down after finishing second in the state tournament last year, displayed a rangy outfit sporting a 6-7 center and 6-5 forward.

Completely dominated on the boards (Arlington got only 15 rebounds for the evening) the locals had to turn in a red hot shooting game in order to remain in contention.

BOB LOCKWOOD and Bruce Bjorklund shared scoring honors with 17 points each. Elgin's big center proved unstoppable, however, as he personally accounted for 22 of the winners' points.

The locals held a scant 19-18 lead at the end of the first quarter, a lead which they maintained at intermission, 35-34. The Birds apparently had things more their way at the three-quarter mark as they moved to a 49-45 advantage.

Ironically, Ackeman's only field goals came in the final minute of play. With 2 and a half minutes to play Arlington led 53-52. The 2 teams exchanged the lead 5 times in the final couple of minutes before Ackeman settled the issue.

SCORE BY QUARTERS

Arlington .... 19 35 49—58
Elgin .... 18 34 45—59

IN THE ANNUAL Sleighbells contest Arlington outran Palatine 55-31. Using a press throughout the game, the Birds put plenty of distance between them and the losers and coasted to an easy victory.

The winners' 55 points were split between 11 players, with no single player tallying more than 8. Palatine's offense was centered around a good guard, Dick Wisner, who threw in 11 points in a losing effort.

Frank Bohac cleared his bench.

THE CARDS' defense held the losers to only 4 points in each of the second and third quarters. Again depth at the guard positions was impressive as Coach At times Bohac was platooning his team, with 8 players seeing action in all 4 quarters.

BY HALFTIME the Cards had built a 30-14 lead which was stretched to a 43-18 advantage at the end of three quarters. Wisner's 7 points in the final stanza narrowed Arlington's margin of victory.

The Red and White take their 2-1 record into WSC play this weekend when they play host to Riverside-Brookfield Friday night. Saturday night Glenbrook pays a visit to the Arlington gym in a non-conference battle.

JUST DOGS

by DAVE TERRILL

Christmas Puppy

"Do your Christmas shopping early" —so say the signs you see everywhere, and this applies to that new puppy you intend to buy for the family.

Like everything else, the better pups are usually gone long before Christmas week and if you are looking for a pure-bred dog it should be done now. A pup can be picked out now and held by the kennel until the day before Christmas, when it should be brought home and introduced to the family. Every year your editor advises people who contemplate buying a Christmas puppy to have the pup in the house a day or two before, Christmas, in order that he can be well introduced to the family routine and likewise the family can get adjusted to the idea of feeding the new pup and taking care of him in general.

Many a pup brought into the house for the first time on Christmas day is often lost in the shuffle and sometimes his rather necessary needs are forgotten, not on purpose, but just due to the fact that there is so much going on that he can be shoved aside at the wrong moment — result: one more puddle that might have been avoided.

Awareness

Speaking of puppies brings to mind a paper presented before the seventh annual veterinary symposium on "Newer Knowledge About Dogs" by Dr. J. B. Scott, chairman, division of behavior studies, Roscoe B. Jackson Memorial laboratory, held in Kankakee under the sponsorship of the Gaines Dog Research center, New York City.

In his paper on abnormal behavior in dogs, Dr. Scott said that a puppy at 3 weeks of age becomes pliable and sensitive to outside conditions and that the next few weeks form a critical period in his preparation for later life.

When a puppy enters this "socialization" stage he will react to and show interest in people and other animals, fight playfully with his litter mates and respond fearfully to noises ans sudden movements.

Tests have shown that puppies raised in isolated areas, well fed and housed, but with no contact with people during the socialization period, will act wild and show fear or aggression. Likewise, puppies raised in confinement have no opportunity to learn about the world outside and when kept in cages for 3 months or longer, the emerging puppies, while physically normal, are completely inexperienced and unable to adjust properly to the conditions of outside life. Dr. Scott added that a puppy kept in "cold storage," so to speak, from seven weeks to one year of age can't be expected to have learned anything, or be aware of proper training.

Rand Park Obedience Trial

Nine people from this area had dogs entered in the eighth annual all-breed obedience trial held by the Rand Park Dog Training Club of Des Plaines in the Rand Park field house Sunday.

In the group were: Mrs. Dorothy Brening, Arlington Heights, with her German Shepherd; Victor R. Kahn, Mt. Prospect also with a German Shepherd; Wayne Smith, Northbrook, a Dalmatian; Martha Jayne, Palatine, a German Shepherd; Stanton Petry, Arlington Heights, a Golden Retriever; Edward Pakan of Wheeling, a German Shepherd; Wilbur C. Nelson, Arlington Heights, a Miniature Poodle; Erma and Dee Muster of Bensenville, a Weimaraner; and James Michaels of Palatine, a Doberman Pinscher.

Of general interest to the members of the Northwest Obedience club, which trains in Palatine, might be the fact that the trophy awarded by the club at the Rand Park show to a member or trainee of Northwest, whose dog had the highest qualifying score in either of the novice classes went to Wilbur Nelson of Arlington Heights. His dog, "Sabrina" a miniature poodle scored 195 out of a possible 200 points in the Novice "A" class.

Barks & Bays

Do not say, "Mrs. Jackson is a widow woman." Omit "woman."

Sophs Bounce Back

Arlington's frosh-soph basketballers bounced back from a poor showing against Palatine to hand Elgin a 58-40 thumping at Elgin Friday night.

Palatine had been victorious over the Birdies Wednesday evening by a 33-28 score in Arlington's gym.

GEORGE BORK paced the winners' attack at Elgin with 18 points. Carl Massa followed the leader closely with a 14 point total.

The Birdies jumped off to a 16-8 lead in the first quarter, led 27-17 at halftime, and rested comfortably with a 35-24 advantage at the end of three quarters.

IT WAS A DIFFERENT story against Palatine. The locals were able to score only 12 baskets, 5 of which came in the second half. Poor shooting and muffed setups accounted for the low score.

Despite their low field goal output Arlington could have won the game at the free throw line. Palatine tallied only 11 times from the field but hit on 11 of 18 free throws to provide the margin of victory. Arlington connected only 4 times from the charity line in 14 attempts.

ONE OF THE few bright spots of the evening was the play of sophomore Carl Massa, who led the Birdie rebounders and turned in a fine defensive game.

Harvey Foster was a single-handed attack for the winners, dumping in 7 field goals and 6 of 8 free throw attempts for a 20 point total, only 8 less than the entire Arlington squad could muster.

PALATINE LED at the first quarter's end, 7-6, but Arlington fell behind 2 points at halftime, 16-14. By the three-quarter mark Palatine had its biggest lead of the game, 24-18.

An Arlington rally, which closed the gap to 24-23 with 5 minutes to play, fizzled out and the visitors had their second win in a row.

The locals now move into conference play tomorrow night against Riverside-Brookfield, carrying a 2-1 record.

Eligibility Date for Paddock Tournament 2 Weeks Off

Eligibility—4 Kabel ....

Crucial eligibility date for making the Paddock tournament is just 2 weeks away. First place teams of all men's leagues within the direct area served by Paddock Publications as of Dec. 21 will be eligible for the big tournament Jan. 11 and 12 at Bensenville Bowl.

Just which teams will be up there on that date is the big question in league after league as keglers battle for the honor of representing their leagues in the 2-day affair at Bensenville.

Deadline for entries in the men's tournament is Saturday, Dec. 28. League secretaries have received official posters and entry blanks. Additional blanks are available at the local alleys, and in the office of Paddock Publications at 217 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights.

Entry fees for the women areat Palatine, Arlington and Beverly at Arlington, Mt. Prospect and Gunnell's at Mt. Prospect, Wheeling and Jeffery at Wheeling, Bensenvile and Bowlwood at Bensenville.

In addition, all local leagues competing at the brand new Pioneer alleys in Addison are eligible after verification with tournament managesr at the Paddock office.

Local leagues competing at other houses in the area can compete in the tourney providing they gain clearance from tournament manager, Bob Paddock, proving a vast majority of the keglers live within the Paddock area.

JEFFERY LANES of Wheeling is represented in the Paddock Classic Traveling league by this fivesome. The squad is currently in fifth place, just 4½ games out of first. All 6 teams of the league will be bowling at Hi-Way Recreation in Palatine this Saturday night, Dec. 7. Jeffery keglers in front are John Glass and Frank Graff. In the back are John Koeppen, Art Cameron and Tony Felker.

Bear-Card Game Comiskey Park

Chicago's pro football championship will be on the line Sunday in Comiskey Park when the Cardinals tangle with the Bears starting at 1:05 p.m.

Both teams, at the start of the season, had visions of playing for the world's championship at the end of the 1957 schedule. However, thoughts along those lines were eliminated a couple of weeks ago but the usual desire to win this one is something that needs little talking about.

ANYTIME THE Cards and Bears meet on the football field sports fans can rest assured that it will be a real battle and that both teams usually extend themselves just a bit more against one another than they do when facing other National Football League opponents.

One of the many interesting features of the contest will be the individual battle between the Cardinals Ollie Matson and the Bears Rick Casares. Going into the game Casares has played one more game and leads Matson, 599 to 558 yards rushing. However Casares has carried the ball 167 times, 50 more carries than Ollie.

With a difference of only 41 yards, Matson could catch him in this game.

DEFENDING CHAMPS of Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap bowling tournament last January was Schimming Oil of Arlington Heights Lions club league. This fivesome had a 793 average, and shot 908, 829 and 860 to win the title, plus a check for over $150.

The team won top spot by bowling exactly 68 pins over its average each game. Tourney promoters have always stated it takes just average bowlers rolling just 10 pins per man per game to win the event. Bowlers in the front row, with averages, Harold Best 151 and William Siler 163. In the back row are Ken Hartman 166, Jack Legg 148 and Ed Piepenbrink 165.

This year's event is scheduled for Bensenville Bowl Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 11 and 12. First place teams of men's leagues within the direct area served by Paddock Publications as of Dec. 21 are eligible for the tourney, with deadline for entries Dec. 28. With just 8 positions open on each of 5 squads the 2 days team captains are advised to secure time preference as soon as possible.

Local Vet Uses Therapy To Keep Horses' Legs in Shape

Legs are a race horse's bread and butter. No one knows it better than the thoroughbred. Just ask him.

Also ask a Schaumburg Center veterinarian who pioneered x-ray treatment of race horses to get them back in condition after bursitis, calcification of joints and even malignant tumors.

Dr. P. J. Meginnis, who lives on Schaumburg rd. at Old Plum Grove rd., and his partner, Dr. Eugene F. Lutterbeck, head of the department of radiology at Cook county hospital, received a special award Nov. 22 at the 43rd annual meeting of the Radiological Society of North America in Chicago.

Reason for the award was an exhibit on clinical experiences with radiation therapy on race horses.

DR. MEGINNIS, who is track veterinarian for Arlington, Washington, Sportsman and Hawthorne race tracks, and Dr. Lutterbeck pioneered in determining the number of roentgens (method of measurement in x-ray treatment) to give a horse. Dosage ranges from a small amount for inflammatory conditions to large doses in destroying malignant tumor cells.

Over the past 5 years in which the men have made their studies, 60 per cent of the cases have shown good results, 16 per cent of the thoroughbreds showed moderate improvement and 24 per cent were failures.

WHEN HORSES, writhed in pain or pulled up lame by being unable to move their legs normally, often times x-ray treatment was used. To have used heat therapy in certain conditions would have aggravated the condition.

To give their x-ray therapy to horses, special equipment had to be designed so that when a horse moved the rays would remain on the afflicted spot.

THEIR attention was focused mainly on the horse's tendons, knees and bone structure. One horse which was headed for the pasture was treated and his fourth time out captured the race.

Dr. Meginnis' and Dr. Lutterbeck's experiments have been another step forward to aid mankind. Just ask the horses. (Sp

Blackhawks Creep Out of Town, At Boston Saturday

The harassed and maligned Black Hawks crept quietly out of town Tuesday for a 2 game road jaunt which had them booked for a contest against the Rangers in New York Wednesday night and a bout against the Bruins in Boston Saturday afternoon. The latter game will be televised nationally over CBS and seen locally over station WBBM-TV, Channel 2.

Despite a drastic shake-up in his line formations Sunday night, manager-coach Tommy Ivan could not find a combination capable of stemming the flood of rubber poured at Glenn Hall. A total of 7 pucks slithered past the belabored Hawk goalie, the most to elude him in his major league career.

IT WAS inevitable that the law of averages would catch up with Hall. He'd been subject to an average of 45 shots per game for the last 3 contests and with a wobbly defense in front of him the roof was due to fall in, it was overdue.

A sadder and more dejected hockey player couldn't be found than Hall in the dressing room after the Toronto slaughter.

Before heading east the Hawks skipper stated he would leave his big line of Ed Litzenberger, Eric Nesteranko and Ted Lindsay intact.

"As for the other 2 strings, I'm going to try to spot guys wherever I think it is necessary," explained Ivan. "But I'm going to treat it on a game to game basis." (Sp

Ski Mecca to Open At Soldier Field

Winter Wonderland, Chicago's own version of St. Moritz or Sun Valley, will open about December 7 in Soldier Field. The lake front stadium has been converted into a winter sports mecca.

The invention of a compressor capable of making real snow has made possible this vast undertaking. Twelve of these compressors, each capable of turning out 3 tons a minute, are being utilized at Soldier Field.

Two ski slopes, one down the seats at the southwest end of the stadium and the other near the northwest end, have been erected. Two electric tow ropes, operating off 20 horsepower motors, will bring the skiers to the top of the stadium for the start of their run.

Four 1200-foot toboggan runs descend down the seats from the top of the south-east end. The participants may bring their own skis or toboggans, or rent them at the shop opened on the premises. Warmup rooms, hay rides and sleigh rides also will be available. (Sp

All 6 Teams in Paddock Classic League at Hi-Way Saturday

It will be Victor Electric vs. Barrington Ten Pin, Jeffery Lanes vs. Beverly Lanes, and Hi-Way Recreation vs. Des Plaines Bowling Lanes in position night of Paddock Classic Traveling League Saturday night at Palatine. Hi-Way holds a 1½ game lead over Des Plaines as the 2 leaders each copped just 1 game apiece last week. Ten Pin tripped Palatine twice, one of them a 963 affair. Roy Papineau led the ten keglers with 613.

JOE CORDULACK

Beverly hit 1044 to take 2 games from Des Plaines, with Joe Cordulack hitting 246 and Tom Kouros getting 243 the third tilt. Des Plaines won the opener with 969, then sat back to watch Beverly take the second with 916. Ken Norman was high for Des Plaines with 618.

Jeffery and Victor Electric had a real battle at Gunnell's Lanes. Victor copped the first game 1015-960 with Ted Lindstrom hitting 235. Jeffery polished off the second game with 968, with Victor coasting to victory in the third contest. Overall series went to Victor 2826-2820.

Tom Kouros of Beverly now leads individual averages with a 199 after hitting 608 Saturday, followed by 192 for Ken Norman of Des Plaines. Ward Siewert of Beverly currently stands at 189, followed by Del Metti and Bob Raupp of Des Plaines, plus Pete Peterson of Barrington, all with 188.

Campus Capers

At Grinnell

Two Prospect Heights students were awarded their prospective flight cadet badges in an Air Force ROTC parade and review at Grinnell college November 25. They are Griffith Pritchard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen J. Pritchard, 300 N. Wheeling rd., and Bruce Wilkerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace W. Wilkerson, 110 Owen pl.

Both juniors at Grinnell, they are 1955 graduates of Arlington high school, Arlington Heights.

At Indiana

Robert Bloecker, 821 N. Vail, and Sana Franke, 120 S. Pine, both of Arlington Heights, are among 197 Indiana university seniors and juniors named to the student foundation committee for this year by President Herman B. Wells.

Members of the student foundation plan and supervise the annual Little 500 bicycle race each spring, proceeds of which provide scholarships to "Help Those Who Help Themselves," students working their way through school. The 1958 Little 500 is slated for Saturday, May 10.

Foundation members are chosen for their special abilities or interest in the foundation and other campus activities. This year 30 more committee members weer appointed to assist with the Little 500. (CC

At Valparaiso

Gorden Heisler, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Heisler, 404 N. Fairview, Mt. Prospect, is a member of the 69-piece Valparaiso university concert band which will make a 6-day trip between semesters, January 25-31, 1958.

The band will be under the direction of Norman Hannewald, director of the bands in the department of music at the Lutheran university, and the tour schedule will include cities in New York, Pennsylvania and Indiana. Last year the band toured 4 Michigan cities.

Heisler, a freshman in the college of art and sciences, plays a cornet. (CC

At Indiana

John R. Lee, 608 S. Pine, Arlington Heights, a student at Indiana university, has been selected for the university's "Singing Hoosiers," an all-male singing group which annually presents concerts on the campus and throughout Indiana and adjoining states.

Directing the chorus is George F. Krueger, associate professor of choral music at the university. The "Singing Hoosiers" in the summer of 1956 were chosen by the Department of Defense to give concerts at American military installations in Korea and Japan. (CC

At Northwestern

Anne McCaffrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McCaffrey, 156 N. Forest, Palatine, will be among the numerous soloists for A Ceremony of Carols, to be presented during the 18th annual Christmas concert at Northwestern university, Sunday, Dec. 8, in Cahn auditorium. Anne is a freshman in the school of music.

William Schnell, 2100 Center, Northbrook, is in the 180-member choral union, which is made up of the men's and women's glee clubs, chamber singers and A Cappella choir. William is a senior in the school of music.

Eastern Starts Florida Flights

Eastern Air Lines has announced the inauguration of 2 deluxe DC-7B Aircoach flights from O'Hare airport to Miami, effective January 17. These are the first non-stop flights from O'Hare and are the first of the new deluxe DC-7B aircoach flights ever scheduled from Chicago to Florida.

Allan M. Dexter, district sales manager for Eastern, stated that the flights will depart O'Hare at 10 a.m. and 11:59 p.m., and arrive at Miami in only 4 hours and 2 minutes. Return flights leave Miami at 5 p.m. and 1:45 a.m. Dexter pointed out that, as a result, for the first time thousand of residents in the north and northwest suburbs will now have convenient Miami schedules from O'Hare. Reservations are available by telephoning Eastern Air Lines at Whitehall 3-2900.

Dexter reported that Eastern Air Lines will offer Chicago-Miami travelers 10 non-stop flights from O'Hare and Midway—a total of 818 daily seats. He stated that this is an 81 per cent increase in seats over January, 1957. (BB

3500 Newspapers Carrying Dodge Ads

Newspaper displays featuring a large picture and a brief but competitive, sales message mark the announcement advertising campaign of the 1958 Dodge.

According to W. D. Moore, director of advertising and merchandising for Dodge, the ads are running 400 lines in size, and are being carried in still greater frequency than ever before in more than 3500 daily and weekly newspapers throughout the country.

MOORE SAID THE newspaper ads comprise a large portion of the announcement campaign, which also includes magazine and radio schedules, as well as television advertising on the Lawrence Welk programs. The campaign uses the theme, "They're catching on, but they can't catch up."

"We feel that the large picture and brisk, brief message carry our story effectively to the local prospect," Moore said. "We consider the ads a distinct departure from ordinary automobile advertising, and are sure they will attract many readers."

THE POST-ANNOUNCEMENT radio commercials, which began November 8, capitalize on the success of the firm's unique Summer selling campaign, which was based on the humorous presentations of local radio personalities, Joe Gentile and Ralph Binge. The newspaper advertising also represents a departure from standard practice, featuring large illustrations and short, conversational copy.

Moore said the newspaper ads will be about 400 lines, but will run with greater frequency than in the past. (BB

OFFICER PETER DISHER of the Park Ridge police force comes up against some tough problems while performing his duty. But finding 4 cars parked in a single parking space was a new one to him. Peter G. Malone of Park Ridge and 3 friends, out for a spin in their petite Isetta automobiles, found that the imported cars could be comfortably parked for a total cost of 1 nickel. Malone, who owns an Isetta dealership in Park Ridge, stated that besides saving in parking costs, the car gives over 60 miles to the gallon and seats 3.

Auto Insurance Rate Hike Set Suburbanites Figuring

(CNS)—The increase in auto insurance rates authorized last week by Joseph S. Gerber, Illinois insurance director, is keeping agencies serving suburban car owners busy figuring out their new rates for property damage and liability policies.

Part of the trouble stems from the multiplicity of insurance classifications. There are 6 rate categories based on the age of the driver and the use of the car. There are also geographic classifications based on the local history of auto accidents, their frequency and severity.

A DRIVER UNDER 25 who uses his auto for business and pleasure in Chicago pays a much higher premium for the same amount of insurance than a driver aged 35 who lives in River Grove and drives his auto for pleasure only.

There are also different types of policies, based on the form of coverage and the amount of insurance desired.

The situation is relatively simple in DuPage county. The entire county, plus that part of the village of Hinsdale within Cook county, has one geographic rate. In DuPage the basic rate for 5-10 auto insurance was $20, and $5,000 property damage policies cost $14. The new rates are $28 and $18 respectively.

WILL COUNTY is in 3 separate geographic territories. Auto owners in "Chicago suburbs" in Will county formerly paid $27 and $16. The new rates are $35 and $18. Joliet, which has its own rate, was $20 and $14 and is now $24 and $16.

All of these examples are for drivers over 25 who do not use their autos for business or for driving to and from work.

Those living in Will county, but not in Joliet or in a "Chicago Suburb," and who formerly paid $17 and $13, depending on the type of policy, will pay $21 and $15 to renew.

THE ASSISTANT state insurance director, Vernon Rosenthal, explained the geographic rate differential this way:

"Some areas, such as urban Chicago, have worse accidents than other areas, such as rural Lake county. Also, we have found that motorists in built-up areas have accidents more frequently than drivers in open country, on the average."

One insurance representative explained the age and driving habit differential this way:

"Age groups which have demonstrated that they are better drivers, on the average, shouldn't have to pay for the accidents that other age groups get into. Youngsters under 25 just have more accidents, on the average. A motorist who uses his car to take his family to the movies shouldn't have to pay as high a premium as the man who drives his car to work through heavy, rush hour traffic."

THE IMMEDIATE suburbs of Chicago got increases of 30.5 per cent for injury insurance, and 14.3 per cent property damage while in the rest of Cook county the liability rate climbed 41.5 per cent and property damage 17.6 per cent.

An Oak Lawn car dealer has filed suit in Circuit court to rescind the increases.

Not immediately answered was whether suburbs contiguous to others that border Chicago are included in the "immediate" classification, such as Wilmette to Evanston, Morton Grove to Niles, Des Plaines to Park Ridge, Berwyn to Cicero, or Harvey to Riverdale. (BB

Bank to Exhibit Priceless Checks

A priceless collection of cancelled bank checks of famous personages will be on display at First National Bank of Des Plaines, Lee and Prairie sts.

The exhibit was announced by J. R. Lawrence, First National president, who said it has been loaned to the bank by the Union Commerce Bank of Cleveland, Ohio.

"THIS IS GOING to be a rare treat for everyone," declared Lawrence. "When I saw it back in the depression days, it awed everyone, either because it was insured for so much money or because it had some subject that interested the historian, poet, teacher, pupil, soldier, or most anyone you could name. We certainly are honored that the Union Commerce bank would loan it to us."

In the collection, there are checks signed by 8 presidents: Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Jackson, Tyler, Garfield, Benjamin Harrison and Lincoln.

THE LINCOLN CHECK has rare historical significance as it is the last check he wrote, dated April 13, 1865, the day before he was assassinated. It is made out for $800 to himself.

Another interesting item is a check written by Charles Dickens dated June 4, 1870, only 5 days before he died on June 9 leaving to the world unfinished, "The Mystery of Edwin Drood."

NEW HIGH-PRESSURE SHOWER BATH now keeps North Western railway's yellow and green diesels in suburban service spanking clean. Washing device at the railway's Chicago shops is a series of hoops which spray detergents, mild acid solutions and water on locomotives. Even the grimy undercarriage gets a special chemical dousing to loosen dirt and grease with a final rinsing of water under high pressure. The device eliminates hand washing of irregular shaped suburban locomotives which cannot be washed by conventional revolving-brush machines used to wash streamliners. Wash job facilitates servicing and repairs in addition to improving appearance.

Schaumburg Sets Building Record

(CNS)—Schaumburg township is setting its own building record.

One of the last rural Cook county townships to go "modern," its building pace in its unincorporated sections topped the 2 million dollar mark in October, the highest monthly total in its history.

Actual total was $2,476,225 as reported by the county building and zoning bureau. In September, Schaumburg township's total was $1,499,200. Its 1957 total, when tabulated, seems certain to pass the 5 million dollar plateau.

Permits issued by north county townships in October:

Township	Permits	Valuation
Barrington	1	$ 50,000
Elk Grove	34	419,900
Hanover	8	73,700
Maine	33	538,550
Niles	2	281,900
Northfield	51	645,050
Norwood Park	25	241,650
Palatine	25	279,799
Schaumburg	186	2,476,225
Wheeling	57	871,150

Totals include new buildings and additions.

Mrs. Otzen Named Finance Chairman

Mrs. John L. Otzen, 500 Fairview, Arlington Heights, is chairman of the finance committee for the Christmas benefit party of the Home Fashions League, to be held from 5 to 8 p.m. December 6 at the Merchants and Manufacturers club in the Merchandise Mart.

Home Fashions League is a professional association of women employed in all phases of the home furnishings industry. The annual Christmas party underwrites the League's scholarship at the Chicago Institute of Art and its Career Caravan to midwest colleges, designed to inform students of career opportunities in the home furnishings field.

The public is invited to attend the party. There will be gifts and refreshments. Tickets are available from Mrs. Otzen and other members of the League. (BB

Schaumburg Sets Building Record

(CNS)—Schaumburg township is setting its own building record. One of the last rural Cook county townships to go "modern," its building pace in its unincorporated sections topped the 2 million dollar mark in October, the highest monthly total in its history.

Actual total was $2,476,225 as reported by the county building and zoning bureau. In September, Schaumburg township's total was $1,499,200. Its 1957 total, when tabulated, seems certain to pass the 5 million dollar plateau.

Permits issued by north county townships in October:

Township	Permits	Valuation
Barrington	1	$ 50,000
Elk Grove	34	419,900
Hanover	8	73,700
Maine	33	538,550
Niles	2	281,900
Northfield	51	645,050
Norwood Park	25	241,650
Palatine	25	279,799
Schaumburg	186	2,476,225
Wheeling	57	871,150

Totals include new buildings and additions.

Apartments Invade Suburbs

(CNS)—Chicago's suburbia already has set a modern record high for apartment building construction for 1 year and the peak of 1957 will soar even more when November and December reports are tabulated.

Through October, permits for 2,592 apartment units were issued by suburbs in the 6-county metropolitan area.

THIS TOPS the previous record of 2,038 apartment units recorded in all of 1956 for the suburban towns. Last year was the first that suburbia eclipsed the 2,000 mark in apartment units, according to detailed records of this phase of construction compiled by Bell Savings & Loan association since 1944.

It's the seventh of the past 11 years in which suburban land issued permits for construction of 1,000 or more apartment units. The exceptions were the years 1951 through 1954, when annual totals fluctuated between 800 and 900.

Since 1947, the suburbs have handed out permits for 16,426 apartment units. In 1946 there were 446. The 1945 total was 503 and in 1944 only 77.

THIS YEAR'S LEADER is Skokie with 841 units through October, followed by Evanston with 351.

Running third is Berwyn with 207, the highest total among west area suburbs. Majority of the 1957 permits for apartment construction were issued by north and west area suburbs.

Leader among south suburbs is Blue Island with 33, followed by Evergreen Park 22, Homewood 20, and Harvey 16.

Standings for area suburbs showing number of apartment units and valuation, through October:

Town	No. of Apartments	Value
Skokie	841	$9,093,850

THE DRY AIR FROM YOUR FURNACE MEANS DANGER TO YOUR HEALTH

HERE'S WHY!
Dry, heated air from furnaces steals the moisture from mucous linings resulting in dryness of the nose and throat, stuffed up nose and chronic coughing. This lowers resistance and contributes to many winter colds . . . aggravates and delays recovery from other conditions such as bronchitis and asthma.

Dry air causes discomfort and is destructive, too:
Dry air robs moisture from bodies—moisture that is vital for comfort. That is why many times you feel chilly even though your thermometer says you should feel snug and warm. And, almost everything in your home ages or wears faster in thirsty dry air—carpets, furniture, books, plants, etc.

You can solve this problem with...

The number of deaf children enrolled in suburban Cook county schools increased slightly last year but state reimbursement payments dropped from the previous year, according to the state superintendent of public instruction.

Average daily attendance for the year ending June 30, 1957 in county schools outside Chicago was 138, compared with a figure of 127 at the end of the same period in 1956.

THE STATE'S SHARE of the cost of the special education dropped to $35,967 from $43,883 in 1956. The same trend was noticeable on a statewide basis, with total payments at the end of mid-1957 being $289,280, about $20,000 less than for the year before.

Supt. Vernon L. Nickell's office reported the average statewide enrollment in classes for the deaf and those with defective hearing was $1,034.23.

The number of enrollees in DuPage county increased from 24 to 34 over the year previous and state payments jumped from $6,700 to $7,400. (B8

Release First Proposals For Rezoning of County

by TOM BRENNAN

The first recommendations to come out of a comprehensive study of Cook county's outmoded zoning code were made public last week.

The recommendations came in the form of a draft for an amendment to the code sections governing residential zoning.

The study is aimed at eventual rezoning of the entire 400 square miles in unincorporated Cook county. After the project is completed hearings held on it, the county board of commissioners will vote on its adoption.

COPIES OF THE booklet containing the proposed amendment to govern residential zoning have been sent to village and township officials for their perusal and views.

Six types of residence districts are set up in the draft, compared to 5 types in the present county ordinance. Districts R-1 through R-4 are identical in lot size with present districts: 5 acre, 1 acre, 20,000 square feet and 10,000 square feet in size.

A new R-5 district would have 7,500 square-foot lots with an average lot width of 50 feet. The R-6 district would cover multiple dwelling units, rooming houses and motels, with a space requirement of 2,500 square feet for each living unit. The square footage requirement is the same as for the apartment zoning recently adopted under county rules.

REFERRING TO THE new R-5 district providing smaller lots than any allowed in the current zoning ordinance, the draft says "this (district) will be utilized sparingly in special situations and in close-in areas and pockets surrounded by municipalities which have low minimum requirements and are developed with small lots."

A variation down to a minimum 7,500 square-foot lot size is possible under the current ordinance. However the Cook county zoning board of appeals has not permitted lots smaller than 8,500 square feet (with paved streets, curbs, water and sewer systems) for several years, according to a county zoning official.

Walter T. Popjoy, secretary of the county zoning board, said the board has approved lots smaller than 10,000 square feet only when frontages have been widened to about 80 feet and full improvements installed.

ANOTHER important change from current practice is in the size of lots where individual wells and septic systems are permitted. The size would be doubled from 20,000 square feet (half acre) to 40,000 square feet (almost an acre) if the amendment is adopted.

Popjoy said larger size may work a hardship on persons who have purchased half-acre lots in unincorporated areas which do not have sewers.

While lot size restrictions have relaxed in the proposed R-5 district, other provisions in the amendment would tighten up or make more specific the county zoning regulations.

STRICT REGULATIONS covering density, bulk and side and front yards are set forth for each district both for residential buildings and for non-residential uses allowed in these districts.

A system of special uses is proposed, with the type of possible uses varying from district to district. Before a special use, for example, an airport, could be established in an R-1 district, there would have to be a hearing to examine the merits of the case.

Among the special uses proposed are agricultural, planned residential developments, burrow pits, cemeteries and many others.

In planned housing developments of 40 acres to 160 acres, depending upon lot size, a certain percentage of the land would be used for specific types of businesses.

"THE DEVICE OF planned developments will uphold the overall standard and at the same time permit community facilities and variable design in accordance with modern community and subdivision planning," declared the planners.

Off-street parking is strictly controlled under the amendment proposed by the planning firm of Harry F. Chaddick and associates. Past practice has been for the county zoning board to consider off-street parking at zoning hearings. A minimum of 1 parking space for each living unit is suggested for apartment buildings.

Villages and neighborhood groups have been asked to return questionnaires outlining their views on the draft within 3 weeks.

a Merry Christmas

Your own photo on a greeting card makes it one that only you could send

Photo Greetings Most Personal of All

by FRED GAREISS

People who want their holiday greetings to be "strictly personal" send out photographic Christmas cards every year. They've found that nothing else "personalizes" their special Yuletide wishes quite the way one of their own snapshots does—and we feel that you'll have the same experience if you say "Merry Christmas" photographically.

In choosing a subject for your card, you may dip into your album and come up with a picture you've taken some time during the year or even one snapped last Christmas. Or you may prefer to shoot a new picture with a special holiday theme designed to express "Season's Greetings."

A vista of pine-studded hills, a stained glass window, a majestic church portal snapped on a vacation trip may be your way of symbolizing the season. But a favorite snapshot of the youngsters making friends with a baby fawn or frolicking with the household pet can carry your holiday greeting, too. Or if you're planning to shoot "from scratch," how about a close-up of a bowl of shiny red apples, pine cones and fir boughs—or a stack of brightly wrapped and ribboned boxes— a tree made entirely of colored Christmas balls—or a choir of tiny ceramic angels and cherubs?

By all means, don't overlook the excellent picture possibilities in outdoor scenes at night. Supplied with flash—and shooting at about six feet—you shouldn't have any difficulty at all in catching a fine after-dark exterior shot.

Naturally many nighttime subjects come to mind. But one we feel you might want to try is a picture of your youngsters dressed as holiday carolers on their nightly round of song. Snap them in the traditional pose—singing under a lighted street lamp that sheds its glow on the sheets of music they hold in front of them.

Whatever the subject, you can be sure a photographic card will express your Christmas message in a warm, individual way. This year, why not count on your camera to custom-make the seasonal good wishes you send friends and relatives at Christmastime.

Christmas Needs of Area Poor on File at Council

Christmas needs reported by more than 140 Chicago health and welfare agencies are on file at the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago.

Now open for its 12th consecutive season, the Council's Christmas Clearing House has compiled a list of items needed by families and children under the care of these agencies.

ACCORDING TO MRS. Marjorie K. Hopewell, Clearing House director, people who want to make Christmas happier for others can find out where their gifts will do the most good by calling the Clearing House at RAndolph 6-0363.

"The children's institutions, settlement houses, old people's centers and other agencies which register with us are in the best position to know what will make Christmas merry for the people they serve," Msr. Hopewell said. For that reason, the best kind of gift is cash, sent to one of these agencies to purchase presents. For those who wish to give gifts in kind, we have a long list of needed items ranging from food and clothing to bicycles and portable radios."

THE CLEARING HOUSE, she said, can tell givers whom to contact at the individual agencies to make their Christmas donations.

Last year, according to Mrs. Hopewell, the Clearing House channeled $5,586 and countless gifts in kind to health and welfare agencies.

"We hope to do even better this year," she added, "because the demand always exceeds the supply. Even with the Clearing House, many families will have no Christmas at all this year." (B12

Maine High School Bond Issues Win

By an overwhelming 4 to 1 vote, Maine township voters November 23 paved the way for the township's second and third high schools.

Geographically, the 4 propositions (Bonds to purchase 4 acres at Talcott and Dee rds. for a school to be built in the future; bonds to purchase 73 acres at Oakton, Wolf and Howard sts. for a high school to be built immediately; authorization to build high school at Oakton, Wold and Howard sts.; bonds to pay for said school) were better received in Des Plaines than in Park Ridge, where the victory ranged from 2 to 1 to 3 to 1.

In Des Plaines the margin was at least 4 to 1 and in some precincts it was as high as 8 to 1. (B8

Mount Prospect Physician Typical Volunteer Fireman

by BRAN FREVERT

"I've always been glad to be part of the fire department and I like the fellows a lot," said Dr. Alfred Wolfarth, 111 W. Prospect, Mt. Prospect, in a recent interview.

This attitude is typical of the hearty high morale that remains constant among the volunteer firemen.

DR. WOLFARTH HAS devoted his energy, of which he seems to have a great deal, to serving the fire department for some 20 years now and to a regular practice which he began building some 30 years ago in Mt. Prospect.

For about a year now the department has also had the services of Dr. W. G. Bagnuolo, 514 Can-Dota, Mt. Prospect..

"When I came in 1927 the town had a population of 900 and there were 17 men in the department, not bad for those days," said the doctor.

TODAY VOLUNTEER firemen number around 30.

It was in 1937 that Edwin Haberkamp, then fireman and now fire chief, asked Dr. Wolfarth to join so that a physician could be present at the scene of a fire to treat residents or firemen who might get burned or otherwise injured. Frank Bierman was chief at the time.

"I always answer a fire call if I can make it," said Dr. Wolfarth, "If first aid is required, I get a call before the siren goes off."

If it's an inhalator call, a small panel truck fully equipped with inhalators, first aid materials, cot stretcher, etc. is always ready for use.

"A SQUAD of 11 men plus Dr. Bagnuolo and myself know how to operate the inhalator and give first aid," said the doctor.

Inhalator calls average about 3 a month, he said.

The majority are for victims of heart attacks or strokes, he said. In second place are calls for victims of accidents and other emergencies in homes. In third place, accidental swallowing of aspirin or poison by children.

Dr. Wolfarth said he believed the Mt. Prospect Fire department had an inhalator before many other villages in the area.

THE FIRST ONE, purchased some 19 years ago, was complicated to operate and awkward to handle said the doctor. In demonstrating the inhalator used today he pointed out the comparative ease with which one could operate it. Three are now in use plus a spare if needed.

Also, he said, equipment includes 20 and 30 foot extension tubes which allow the administering of oxygen to someone suffering from electrical shock on a high tension wire or lack of air in a deep well.

The doctor feels it would be a good idea to teach members of the inhalator squad how touse stomach pumps, both adult and children's sizes.

ANOTHER OF Dr. Wolfarth's duties is directing traffic.

"I go ahead of the fire trucks and stop traffic at main intersections," he said.

This is especially helpful when the trucks are going to rural fires and several main intersections must be crossed.

The doctor wistfully remarked that the fire department carnivals, formerly an annual event, were a lot of fun. They brought in a lot of money for the department too, he said.

PROCEEDS HAVE been used to purchase inhalators (worth about $400 apiece) and other equipment.

Besides his duties as physician, traffic director, and supporter of the department, Dr. Wolfarth keeps abreast of improvements in equipment used by fire fighters.

An example is the 2 new Scott Air Packs, used for the first time by firemen fighting the blaze that caused severe damage to the unoccupied Chester Busse residence, 113 E. Prospect ave., Friday, Nov. 22.

The interview ended abruptly, and appropriately for Dr. Wolfarth, with a fire call. (B8

For Des Plaines Propose By-Pass

Forwarded to Des Plaines by the Illinois state highway department this week are detailed drawings of a proposal that would offer a solution to the traffic congestion problem at 5 corners in Des Plaines.

The city is to review the highway department suggestion of creating a new roadway to permit some traffic to by-pass 5 corners to some extent to reduce automobile traffic there. To do this, additional property would be purchased and buildings would have to be removed. (B8

by BRAN FREVERT

"I've always been glad to be part of the fire department and I like the fellows a lot," said Dr. Alfred Wolfarth, 111 W. Prospect, Mt. Prospect, in a recent interview.

This attitude is typical of the hearty high morale that remains constant among the volunteer firemen.

DR. WOLFARTH HAS devoted his energy, of which he seems to have a great deal, to serving the fire department for some 20 years now and to a regular practice which he began building some 30 years ago in Mt. Prospect.

For about a year now the department has also had the services of Dr. W. G. Bagnuolo, 514 Can-Dota, Mt. Prospect..

"When I came in 1927 the town had a population of 900 and there were 17 men in the department, not bad for those days," said the doctor.

TODAY VOLUNTEER firemen number around 30.

It was in 1937 that Edwin Haberkamp, then fireman and now fire chief, asked Dr. Wolfarth to join so that a physician could be present at the scene of a fire to treat residents or firemen who might get burned or otherwise injured. Frank Bierman was chief at the time.

"I always answer a fire call if I can make it," said Dr. Wolfarth, "If first aid is required, I get a call before the siren goes off."

If it's an inhalator call, a small panel truck fully equipped with inhalators, first aid materials, cot stretcher, etc. is always ready for use.

"A SQUAD of 11 men plus Dr. Bagnuolo and myself know how to operate the inhalator and give first aid," said the doctor.

Inhalator calls average about 3 a month, he said.

The majority are for victims of heart attacks or strokes, he said. In second place are calls for victims of accidents and other emergencies in homes. In third place, accidental swallowing of aspirin or poison by children.

Dr. Wolfarth said he believed the Mt. Prospect Fire department had an inhalator before many other villages in the area.

THE FIRST ONE, purchased some 19 years ago, was complicated to operate and awkward to handle said the doctor. In demonstrating the inhalator used today he pointed out the comparative ease with which one could operate it. Three are now in use plus a spare if needed.

Also, he said, equipment includes 20 and 30 foot extension tubes which allow the adminstering of oxygen to someone suffering from electrical shock on a high tension wire or lack of air in a deep well.

The doctor feels it would be a good idea to teach members of the inhalator squad how touse stomach pumps, both adult and children's sizes.

ANOTHER OF Dr. Wolfarth's duties is directing traffic.

"I go ahead of the fire trucks and stop traffic at main intersections," he said.

This is especially helpful when the trucks are going to rural fires and several main intersections must be crossed.

The doctor wistfully remarked that the fire department carnivals, formerly an annual event, were a lot of fun. They brought in a lot of money for the department too, he said.

PROCEEDS HAVE been used to purchase inhalators (worth about $400 apiece) and other equipment.

Besides his duties as physician, traffic director, and supporter of the department, Dr. Wolfarth keeps abreast of improvements in equipment used by fire fighters.

An example is the 2 new Scott Air Packs, used for the first time by firemen fighting the blaze that caused severe damage to the unoccupied Chester Busse residence, 113 E. Prospect ave., Friday, Nov. 22.

The interview ended abruptly, and appropriately for Dr. Wolfarth, with a fire call. (B8

For Des Plaines Propose By-Pass

Forwarded to Des Plaines by the Illinois state highway department this week are detailed drawings of a proposal that would offer a solution to the traffic congestion problem at 5 corners in Des Plaines.

The city is to review the highway department suggestion of creating a new roadway to permit some traffic to by-pass 5 corners to some extent to reduce automobile traffic there. To do this, additional property would be purchased and buildings would have to be removed. (B8

Solution for Suburbia's Plights?

A 'United Government' For Chicago, Suburbs?

A dramatic plan for solving many problems of the Chicago metropolitan area by unified control of area-wide services, with local autonomy in local matters, was proposed last week by William Alter, Chicago realtor.

Alter, president of Alter Realty, Inc., of 5003 W. Irving Park rd., said he has spent some 2 years studying various solutions to problems of metropolitan government adopted by Toronto, Ontario, St. Louis, Mo., Atlanta, Ga., and other cities.

UTILIZING THE findings of "the many different studies which have been made of the Chicago area's problems," Alter said, he has drawn a program which "provides a basis on which courageous statesmen can build" to solve the problems now, "without further delay."

Alter pointed out that "some 6 million residents of the metropolitan area," Cook, Lake, McHenry, DuPage, Kane and Will counties, "pay taxes to literally hundreds of local governments, none of which can guarantee them an adequate water supply, a basement which will not be flooded, fast transportation or sure police protection." By 1980, he said, the same problems could face an estimated 8,000,000 persons in the area.

To eliminate the confusion resulting from the overlapping of these hundreds of governmental units, Alter proposes creation, by the Illinois General Assembly, of a "United Municipalities of Northeast Illinois."

OPERATING under a council, representative of all 6 member counties, the United Municipalities would have separate divisions to function in area-wide aspects of these fields:

Metropolitan planning water supply, sewage disposal, flood control, refuse disposal, transportation and highway planning, police services and civil defense.

Alter said he would present his plan to appropriate governmental agencies, urging it as a program "which would allow more economic function of government in the specified fields" and, at the same time, "be politically acceptable to existing local governments which are understandably reluctant to lose their identity and autonomy in any form of outright merger."

POINTING OUT that "an epidemic threatens to stifle growth" of the nation's second most populous area, Alter presented this outline of how the "United Municipalities" would function:

It would be organized as a municipal corporation in order to borrow money and issue bonds pledging the credit of the whole area, "achieving more favorable interest rates than any local unit could command."

It would be supported by pro-rated contributions from member municipalities and counties, with these local governments retaining their present powers to levy and collect taxes.

HOWEVER, ALTER'S plan calls for a single office of assessment, as a branch of the United Municipalities, with county offices of assessment to be abolished.

"This is the only way to guarantee a fair basis for taxation," the realtor declared, "so that residents of the area pay no more than their fair share."

Various divisions of the United Municipalities would have these functions, Alter explained:

PLANNING — A CENTRAL board would determine economic needs of the expanding metropolitan area, and draw a general land use plan. Local governments would retain control over development within their own boundaries, "but they would not be growing piecemeal without regard to the needs of the area."

Water supply — the United Municipalities would acquire all existing water companies, purchasing private supply firms and assuming control of existing public facilities. It would determine where and when new pumping stations and mains would be needed, and finance and build them to serve expanding areas. Local governments would handle extension of mains to individual users and continue to determine and collect service rates.

Sewage disposal — the United Municipalities would take over and combine existing sanitary districts "undoubtedly utilizing their plant, personnel and administrative organization" and carry out the plant improvements which will be "vital" in the area in the next 20 years. Alter points out that this is "the only way to serve growing communities like Prospect Heights which today have no sewer system." Again, local governments would control extensions within their boundaries.

FLOOD CONTROL — a division of the UM would study drainage problems in the area and make improvements which "would not merely help one city only to dump water on its neighbor downstream."

Refuse disposal — the area-wide government would determine location of new disposal plants and land-fill dumps planned to serve as many residents as possible in expanding areas. Collection and local regulations would remain the business of local governments.

Transportation and highway planning —these would concern the UM as metropolitan problems, with special attention to the need for public transportation between suburbs as well as extension of Chicago-suburban routes. Capital improvements could be made "economically," Alter declared, "because of the tremendous borrowing power available, with the prospect that extension of services would make possible lower fares.' 'As to highways, the metropolitan division would take control of those roads which serve the area.

POLICE —ALTER proposes that local forces be allowed to cooperate functionally by establishment of a central communications system, a central crime laboratory and a central bureau of identification.

Civil defense — information available to the UM planning division would be utilized in coordinating civil defense programs for the entire area, with local units continuing to function.

'Tight' Money Threatened '07 Yule Trade in Palatine

50 Years Ago

December 6, 1907

Is the scarcity of money going to kill the Holiday business in Palatine?A glance at the Arlington Heights page of this paper, shows their merchants are after the Christmas buyer. Chicago houses are circularizing and working for business in this community. From now until Christmas, there will be more of Palatine's good money left with Chicago stores than ever before. If some of our citizens would watch the express trains and note the ever increasing amount of merchandise packages coming into town for the individual buyer, they would stop and ask the reason, "Why."

CHRISTMAS, the greatest anniversary of the year, whose coming is causing a great deal of self questioning, as how to make it as most happy event for many others. We offer our assistance to answer this question by visiting our store and inspecting our splendid and well displayed line of Holiday goods, such as Shaving Sets, Toilet Cases, Fancy Gloves, Mittens, Suspenders, Hair Receivers, Postal Albums, and also a fine assorted collection of very attractive Japanese Ware, most suitable for souvenirs. All these goods are being sold at a 5 per cent discount. Merry Christmas—Fred Gieseke.

November, 1907, broke all records in the memory of man for fair, sunshiny weather; only two stormy days during the month.

Winter starts out early this year. Nov. 30, first snow one inch deep on the level. Dec. 3, two inches and still more to follow. If this keeps up, business of all kinds will be lively.

PALATINE — THE Thanksgiving football game brought out a good crowd, but they were not given much chance to display their enthusiasm except for the visitors. The home boys were badly handicapped by lack of practice. They had not the benefit of any previous game this season and persisted in not following the fundamental principles of football. Mat Daniels played hard, but he couldn't win the game alone. The boys were beaten by a score of 17 to 0.

Judge Bradwell, one of Cook County's pioneer settlers, died in Chicago last Friday. He lived in this vicinity when a young man. His father owned a farm west of town. In the sixties he opened a law office in Chicago and has been a prominent jurist there ever since. He was a staunch unionist and made it warm for the "Copperheads" during the war of the rebellion.

Roselle — Miss Alvina Hattendorf left this week for Palatine, presumably to be married — or is it to be a trial marriage, as she never even said goodbye.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS — What do you think of this? H. L. Emerson presented a bill to the village board Monday night, claiming a balance of $1530 due for his services. Of course he don't expect they will allow such outrageous charges; he has cheek enough to work any bluffing game. He'll wait a long time and have to fight in the courts before, the village ever pays such graft.

Come to Arlington Hall, this Friday evening and get a first-class oysterstew, a good dish of ice cream with cake and coffee, and enjoy the amusements of the evening. Proceeds for the benefit of the public school.

Mrs. John Duthorn, aged 65 years, died suddenly Nov. 30. She was the mother of two children, Mrs. Geo. Popp, near Buffalo Grove, and Adam Duthorn of Arlington Heights.

If the published accounts are true, Hanover is on the Kaiser's payroll and real war scenes may be enacted in our very midst. At least the township is under surveillance of the detectives from the office of H.G. Clabaugh, federal investigator, who has promised that the anti-Americanism throughout the sturdily Teutonic Hanover township is due for a thorough shaking down, so say the city papers.

Rev. Voight was called to the Federal Building a week ago and at the suggestion of the authorities, returned to his parish and preached a red-hot American sermon.

Now comes the following story in the Chicago Tribune.

Patriotic Palatine went over the top with a whoop Thursday evening when 36 members of the Palatine Athletic Club vied with each other for the honor of being the first to place their names on the roll of a home guard organization to be mobilized under the same plan as those formed in neighboring towns.

Second largest still ever unearthed in the state was discovered just southeast of Bensenville village limits Tuesday night. The sheriff's forces unearthed it in the basement of a barn a few blocks from where the corpse of a murdered man was found early that morning.

Thanksgiving day was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kolze, well-known residents of Bensenville, by the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alma to Mr. Leslie Grantz.

A pretty and most impressive home wedding took place in the well known home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hildebrandt where their only daughter Else Louise was joined in marriage to Mr. Henry Gieseke of Palatine, November 24.

On Sunday afternoon, Nov. 27, a group of residents gathered at the old public school house for devotional services. This was the start of what will be known as the Community Church of Mt. Prospect.

The Way We See It

Parking For Commuters Is Big Suburban Headache

When people move to northwest suburbs, they soon find themselves uttering the commuters' battle cry: "Where, oh where, can I park my car?"

In some of the towns strewn along the Chicago and North Western railway, the cry is mild. But in Mount Prospect, Arlington Heights, Rolling Meadows, and Palatine, the shriek of the suburbanites—accompanied by clanking fenders—is loud and angry.

Hundreds of commuters, many of them residents of unincorporated areas, must drive several miles to the station. When they get there they can pray for a free parking place within hiking distance of the station, or pay for a parking place in a lot, providing there's space.

Homeowners in the vicinity of railway stations howl to village trustees when their too-narrow streets are lined with all-day parkers, many of whom block driveways, create blind intersections, and generally make driving hazardous. In some villages, commuter cars have made 1-lane "cow paths" of residential streets. At dawn and dusk train times, the traffic snarl in downtown areas is a motorist's nightmare.

And the most obvious point about parking in all the towns is that commuters and shoppers have to scrap for every spare stall. Where commuters form more than half of the town's population, this is inevitable. And shoppers don't find it practical to beat commuters to the lots.

Officials in all commuter communities are taking lusty whacks at the parking dilemma. But too often the whacks serve merely as "stop gap" measures to meet the momentary requirements of ever-increasing hordes of commuters.

In Mount Prospect the problem is one of coping with out-of-town commuters who spill into village lots and line residential streets. On a typical morning, only 72 cars out of 186 parked in 3 public lots were from Mount Prospect. Many of the village's 1400 commuters are from Prospect Heights, Wheeling, and eastern sections of Arlington Heights.

Arlington Heights has successfully stifled the on-street commuter parker with meters and 2-hour zones. This keeps streets clear but it isn't the answer to the commuter problem. Some 250 off-street parking spaces and 75 on-street metered spaces are scarcely adequate for a station serving 2200 commuters from Rolling Meadows, Elk Grove Village, and surrounding area as well as Arlington Heights.

The problem promises to become even more acute in a year or two since experts tell us that residents of Palatine's mammoth new Winston Park subdivision will probably use Arlington Heights depot. It's nearly as convenient to the development as downtown Palatine, and the savings in commutation ticket price will be a powerful incentive to budget-conscious suburbanites.

For some time, Rolling Meadows city council's special committee on transportation has been studying the commuter problem. They cite parking as the number one problem for their 750 North Western commuters, all of whom use Arlington Heights depot. Attempts to establish a separate Rolling Meadows station at Arlington Park race track have all failed.

Palatine tackled its commuter parking problems in earnest this September when it placed a total of 4 lots in operation. In addition, a ordinance now under consideration would force all-day parkers off the streets, and the village has additional property available which could be utilized for commuters if necessary. Palatine's dilemma is as much shopper parking as it is commuter parking.

What can be done?

First, all villages must follow Arlington Heights' example and force all-day parkers into commuter lots by installing meters or time limit zones on all streets within a mile or so of railway stations.

Second, villages must take appropriate steps to acquire enough public property for off-street metered parking to meet future as well as present needs. Potential revenue is not lucrative enough for private enterprise to make this investment.

Third, relief for Palatine, Rolling Meadows, and Arlington Heights could be realized with the relocation of Palatine's railway depot.

A new station could be erected somewhere between Palatine and Rolling Meadows. This station could also serve Winston Park, and income from commuter lots would take care of the cost as well as relieve the burden on Arlington Heights' commuter parking.

Removing the depot from downtown Palatine would also open up hundreds of new parking spaces for shoppers now driving in mad circles looking for empty stalls.

Unless it becomes easier to park downtown, a slow strangulation will set in and leave established business districts gasping for trade as customers make use of new, outlying shopping centers with adequate and convenient parking.

Suburbanites don't want to walk more than a block to catch a train—or to buy a package of gum.

United Efforts Are Needed To Direct Rural Planning

For some years Paddock Publications has been urging northwest suburban communities to work together more closely in planning for the growth of unincorporated fringe areas.

A recent example of what happens without co-operation points up—in case there is still anyone who is unconvinced—why the need for getting our heads together grows daily.

An oil company purchased some property from a trailer camp at the corner of Golf and Arlington Heights rds. Village officials of both Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect had to give their approval to the division of the property. The oil company wants to put in a service station on the corner.

Both towns have limited planning and zoning jurisdiction over the lot because it is within 1.5 miles of their outer limits.

The oil company got approval from the Arlington Heights village board without any trouble. But when the firm went to the Mount Prospect planning commission, the story was different. The school district in which the lot is donated needs money, said the commission. So it asked the company to make a substantial donation. Otherwise, approval was to be withheld.

This example of a lack of any policy where there are overlapping jurisdictions is harmful to the orderly expansion of the entire area. In other areas, undesirable projects have gotten the go-ahead because nobody worried about them.

With the completion of the toll roads next year, a fresh wave of developments of every kind will hit the northwest.

It is imperative that our communities plan together now to meet the wave.

The People's Right to Know

I was particularly pleased to read your news item and editorial concerning the toll road burrow pit situation along County Line road, especially since a certain newspaper in DuPage county took the opposite view of the situation: ie., the toll road needs the fill, so we should let them do what they will to our township to get it.

One sentence in your news story needs clarification. The letter to Senator Lottie Holman O'Neill from the Addison Township Federation of Civic Organizations did not claim the 15 points were illegal. I simply asked 15 questions, which have been asked over and over of the Toll Road Commission and the county Board, and were not answered satisfactorily. Some did concern illegal practices, but most of them were asked in an effort to pin someone down as to the final effect on our community of these pits. It seems that no one can give us straight answers on this.

The people who live near these pits want more than promises that their drainage will not be affected, that the pits will be filled up, that the lakes will not be stagnant mosquito breeders, that their children will not be injured or killed in playing around these pits, that the deep pits will not be garbage dumps, and that their property values will not be lowered by a series of pits in their backyard. Up till now, the liaison between the Toll Road commission and the public has been very poor, and these people are not convinced, but are simply confused by conflicting stories and promises.

Fred Koebbeman, our supervisor, has been an immense help in bringing the issue before the county board, and demanding clarification of the situation, but many of our supervisors live too far away to be bothered by it.

This has become a question of whether people in an area can be ignored, pushed aside, and misinformed because contractors may not make as much profit, by going out further where it is less populated for their fill.

Another big question, unresolved at this time, is, "Who polices these pits to see that they conform to specifications and the law?" Up till the time the people of the area stepped into the picture, nobody did.

The people have a right to know what's going on.

Raymond L. Schultz, president
Addison Township Federation
of Civic Organizations.

What's Behind Police Chief Fuss?

I'm disappointed in the Arlington Heights paper for not telling its readers about this ridiculous fussin' and fumin' over the hiring of a new police chief for Arlington Heights.

In the past week or two I've been approached several times and asked to sign a petition in behalf of a local candidate for the job or make telephone calls to exert pressure in behalf of the same candidate.

Now I don't know what the score is as far as hiring a chief is concerned, but frankly I'm getting mighty suspicious of a campaign that every day begins to smell more and more like a political crusade and less and less like intelligent, non-partisan selection of a capable chief of police.

I keep hoping my local weekly will let me in on what the scoop is.

A 'Smart Alec' Fights Area Bolsheviks

Headline: "Area Towns Oppose Longer Racing Season."

What right have towns to tell private enterprises what to do? What right have I to object? I have no right at all and neither do other townspeople. Every Tom, Dick and Harry takes the liberty to tell his fellow humans how to live, above their own economy, to satisfy their own ego and if they don't comply, will sic the big bad wolves on them.

Yes, I am a smart Alec, but I went to school to learn when to be one and to give God a helping hand. We learned that civilized living has to have regulation and directive, but not beyond common reasoning and the right of natural law. We were told that God watches that the trees do not grow into Heaven and that we were to watch that the weeds do not destroy our good crops.

Anyone of us who wants to restrict private enterprise forgets that his economic welfare and freedom depends on it. That goes from a shoe string to battleships and from gambling, including horse racing, to religion, where adult humans earn a way to feed their bodies, and their children. Let's not dim the light that leads us to salvation. Let's keep authority within public domain, keep the flowers in the garden and separate the good from the bad in our own soul. Let's not practice the way of life we desire to oppose, for the good of all.

With the help of God I did my good deed toward humanity, my Mrs. typed it for us and now it is up to the publisher to let it be known or shirk his duty and let the bitter fruit of bolshevik ignorance fluorish and destroy all the good God has achieved for us so far.

Solving Polluted Water Situation

This is how I relieved my polluted water situation after the state laboratories had given me the bad news.

On investigation, I found the water at the well to be 100 per cent pure, but polluted after passing through the reserve tank, which I cleaned by the following method, and later received a clean bill from the state.

Turn off electric supply to pump; permit water to drain completely from the tank, through any tap lower than the tank—I used an outside sill cock; turn on pump and permit tank to fill to much less than capacity; turn off electricity at pump and drain again. Repeat this operation until water runs perfectly clear (I did it 20 to 30 times to get results).

In some cases, some agent, such as chlorine, placed in the tank for an overnight soaking might be necessary to rid the tank of bacteria.

Now, will someone tell me how I can free my septic field tiles, which fail to pass water fast enough? My septic tank is always full to overflowing.

Could I suggest a column in your paper which would answer these questions for the "do it yourself" home owner of which there are so many in the territory covered by your paper?

Alter, president of Alter Realty, Inc., of 5003 W. Irving Park rd., said he has spent some 2 years studying various solutions to problems of metropolitan government adopted by Toronto, Ontario, St. Louis, Mo., Atlanta, Ga., and other cities.

UTILIZING THE findings of "the many different studies which have been made of the Chicago area's problems," Alter said, he has drawn a program which "provides a basis on which courageous statesmen can build" to solve the problems now, "without further delay."

Alter pointed out that "some 6 million residents of the metropolitan area," Cook, Lake, McHenry, DuPage, Kane and Will counties, "pay taxes to literally hundreds of local governments, none of which can guarantee them an adequate water supply, a basement which will not be flooded, fast transportation or sure police protection." By 1980, he said, the same problems could face an estimated 8,000,000 persons in the area.

To eliminate the confusion resulting from the overlapping of these hundreds of governmental units, Alter proposes creation, by the Illinois General Assembly, of a "United Municipalities of Northeast Illinois."

OPERATING under a council, representative of all 6 member counties, the United Municipalities would have separate divisions to function in area-wide aspects of these fields:

Metropolitan planning water supply, sewage disposal, flood control, refuse disposal, transportation and highway planning, police services and civil defense.

Alter said he would present his plan to appropriate governmental agencies, urging it as a program "which would allow more economic function of government in the specified fields" and, at the same time, "be politically acceptable to existing local governments which are understandably reluctant to lose their identity and autonomy in any form of outright merger."

POINTING OUT that "an epidemic threatens to stifle growth" of the nation's second most populous area, Alter presented this outline of how the "United Municipalities" would function:

It would be organized as a municipal corporation in order to borrow money and issue bonds pledging the credit of the whole area, "achieving more favorable interest rates than any local unit could command."

It would be supported by pro-rated contributions from member municipalities and counties, with these local governments retaining their present powers to levy and collect taxes.

HOWEVER, ALTER'S plan calls for a single office of assessment, as a branch of the United Municipalities, with county offices of assessment to be abolished.

"This is the only way to guarantee a fair basis for taxation," the realtor declared, "so that residents of the area pay no more than their fair share."

Various divisions of the United Municipalities would have these functions, Alter explained:

PLANNING — A CENTRAL board would determine economic needs of the expanding metropolitan area, and draw a general land use plan. Local governments would retain control over development within their own boundaries, "but they would not be growing piecemeal without regard to the needs of the area."

Water supply — the United Municipalities would acquire all existing water companies, purchasing private supply firms and assuming control of existing public facilities. It would determine where and when new pumping stations and mains would be needed, and finance and build them to serve expanding areas. Local governments would handle extension of mains to individual users and continue to determine and collect service rates.

Sewage disposal — the United Municipalities would take over and combine existing sanitary districts "undoubtedly utilizing their plant, personnel and administrative organization" and carry out the plant improvements which will be "vital" in the area in the next 20 years. Alter points out that this is "the only way to serve growing communities like Prospect Heights which today have no sewer system." Again, local governments would control extensions within their boundaries.

FLOOD CONTROL — a division of the UM would study drainage problems in the area and make improvements which "would not merely help one city only to dump water on its neighbor downstream."

Refuse disposal — the area-wide government would determine location of new disposal plants and land-fill dumps planned to serve as many residents as possible in expanding areas. Collection and local regulations would remain the business of local governments.

Transportation and highway planning —these would concern the UM as metropolitan problems, with special attention to the need for public transportation between suburbs as well as extension of Chicago-suburban routes. Capital improvements could be made "economically," Alter declared, "because of the tremendous borrowing power available, with the prospect that extension of services would make possible lower fares.' 'As to highways, the metropolitan division would take control of those roads which serve the area.

POLICE —ALTER proposes that local forces be allowed to cooperate functionally by establishment of a central communications system, a central crime laboratory and a central bureau of identification.

Civil defense — information available to the UM planning division would be utilized in coordinating civil defense programs for the entire area, with local units continuing to function.

'Tight' Money Threatened '07 Yule Trade in Palatine

50 Years Ago

Is the scarcity of money going to kill the Holiday business in Palatine?A glance at the Arlington Heights page of this paper, shows their merchants are after the Christmas buyer. Chicago houses are circularizing and working for business in this community. From now until Christmas, there will be more of Palatine's good money left with Chicago stores than ever before. If some of our citizens would watch the express trains and note the ever increasing amount of merchandise packages coming into town for the individual buyer, they would stop and ask the reason, "Why."

CHRISTMAS, the greatest anniversary of the year, whose coming is causing a great deal of self questioning, as how to make it as most happy event for many others. We offer our assistance to answer this question by visiting our store and inspecting our splendid and well displayed line of Holiday goods, such as Shaving Sets, Toilet Cases, Fancy Gloves, Mittens, Suspenders, Hair Receivers, Postal Albums, and also a fine assorted collection of very attractive Japanese Ware, most suitable for souvenirs. All these goods are being sold at a 5 per cent discount. Merry Christmas—Fred Gieseke.

November, 1907, broke all records in the memory of man for fair, sunshiny weather; only two stormy days during the month.

Winter starts out early this year. Nov. 30, first snow one inch deep on the level. Dec. 3, two inches and still more to follow. If this keeps up, business of all kinds will be lively.

PALATINE — THE Thanksgiving football game brought out a good crowd, but they were not given much chance to display their enthusiasm except for the visitors. The home boys were badly handicapped by lack of practice. They had not the benefit of any previous game this season and persisted in not following the fundamental principles of football. Mat Daniels played hard, but he couldn't win the game alone. The boys were beaten by a score of 17 to 0.

Judge Bradwell, one of Cook County's pioneer settlers, died in Chicago last Friday. He lived in this vicinity when a young man. His father owned a farm west of town. In the sixties he opened a law office in Chicago and has been a prominent jurist there ever since. He was a staunch unionist and made it warm for the "Copperheads" during the war of the rebellion.

Roselle — Miss Alvina Hattendorf left this week for Palatine, presumably to be married — or is it to be a trial marriage, as she never even said goodbye.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS — What do you think of this? H. L. Emerson presented a bill to the village board Monday night, claiming a balance of $1530 due for his services. Of course he don't expect they will allow such outrageous charges; he has cheek enough to work any bluffing game. He'll wait a long time and have to fight in the courts before, the village ever pays such graft.

Come to Arlington Hall, this Friday evening and get a first-class oysterstew, a good dish of ice cream with cake and coffee, and enjoy the amusements of the evening. Proceeds for the benefit of the public school.

Mrs. John Duthorn, aged 65 years, died suddenly Nov. 30, She was the mother of two children, Mrs. Geo. Popp, near Buffalo Grove, and Adam Duthorn of Arlington Heights.

If the published accounts are true, Hanover is on the Kaiser's payroll and real war scenes may be enacted in our very midst. At least the township is under surveillance of the detectives from the office of H.G. Clabaugh, federal investigator, who has promised that the anti-Americanism throughout the sturdily Teutonic Hanover township is due for a thorough shaking down, so say the city papers.

Rev. Voight was called to the Federal Building a week ago and at the suggestion of the authorities, returned to his parish and preached a red-hot American sermon.

Now comes the following story in the Chicago Tribune.

Patriotic Palatine went over the top with a whoop Thursday evening when 36 members of the Palatine Athletic Club vied with each other for the honor of being the first to place their names on the roll of a home guard organization to be mobilized under the same plan as those formed in neighboring towns.

Second largest still ever unearthed in the state was discovered just southeast of Bensenville village limits Tuesday night. The sheriff's forces unearthed it in the basement of a barn a few blocks from where the corpse of a murdered man was found early that morning.

Thanksgiving day was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Kolze, well-known residents of Bensenville, by the marriage of their daughter, Miss Alma to Mr. Leslie Grantz.

A pretty and most impressive home wedding took place in the well known home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hildebrandt where their only daughter Else Louise was joined in marriage to Mr. Henry Gieseke of Palatine, November 24.

On Sunday afternoon, Nov. 27, a group of residents gathered at the old public school house for devotional services. This was the start of what will be known as the Community Church of Mt. Prospect.

The Way We See It

Parking For Commuters Is Big Suburban Headache

When people move to northwest suburbs, they soon find themselves uttering the commuters' battle cry: "Where, oh where, can I park my car?"

In some of the towns strewn along the Chicago and North Western railway, the cry is mild. But in Mount Prospect, Arlington Heights, Rolling Meadows, and Palatine, the shriek of the suburbanites—accompanied by clanking fenders—is loud and angry.

Hundreds of commuters, many of them residents of unincorporated areas, must drive several miles to the station. When they get there they can pray for a free parking place within hiking distance of the station, or pay for a parking place in a lot, providing there's space.

Homeowners in the vicinity of railway stations howl to village trustees when their too-narrow streets are lined with all-day parkers, many of whom block driveways, create blind intersections, and generally make driving hazardous. In some villages, commuter cars have made 1-lane "cow paths" of residential streets. At dawn and dusk train times, the traffic snarl in downtown areas is a motorist's nightmare.

And the most obvious point about parking in all the towns is that commuters and shoppers have to scrap for every spare stall. Where commuters form more than half of the town's population, this is inevitable. And shoppers don't find it practical to beat commuters to the lots.

Officials in all commuter communities are taking lusty whacks at the parking dilemma. But too often the whacks serve merely as "stop gap" measures to meet the momentary requirements of ever-increasing hordes of commuters.

In Mount Prospect the problem is one of coping with out-of-town commuters who spill into village lots and line residential streets. On a typical morning, only 72 cars out of 186 parked in 3 public lots were from Mount Prospect. Many of the village's 1400 commuters are from Prospect Heights, Wheeling, and eastern sections of Arlington Heights.

Arlington Heights has successfully stifled the on-street commuter parker with meters and 2-hour zones. This keeps streets clear but it isn't the answer to the commuter problem. Some 250 off-street parking spaces and 75 on-street metered spaces are scarcely adequate for a station serving 2200 commuters from Rolling Meadows, Elk Grove Village, and surrounding area as well as Arlington Heights.

The problem promises to become even more acute in a year or two since experts tell us that residents of Palatine's mammoth new Winston Park subdivision will probably use Arlington Heights depot. It's nearly as convenient to the development as downtown Palatine, and the savings in commutation ticket price will be a powerful incentive to budget-conscious suburbanites.

For some time, Rolling Meadows city council's special committee on transportation has been studying the commuter problem. They cite parking as the number one problem for their 750 North Western commuters, all of whom use Arlington Heights depot. Attempts to establish a separate Rolling Meadows station at Arlington Park race track have all failed.

Palatine tackled its commuter parking problems in earnest this September when it placed a total of 4 lots in operation. In addition, a ordinance now under consideration would force all-day parkers off the streets, and the village has additional property available which could be utilized for commuters if necessary. Palatine's dilemma is as much shopper parking as it is commuter parking.

What can be done?

First, all villages must follow Arlington Heights' example and force all-day parkers into commuter lots by installing meters or time limit zones on all streets within a mile or so of railway stations.

Second, villages must take appropriate steps to acquire enough public property for off-street metered parking to meet future as well as present needs. Potential revenue is not lucrative enough for private enterprise to make this investment.

Third, relief for Palatine, Rolling Meadows, and Arlington Heights could be realized with the relocation of Palatine's railway depot.

A new station could be erected somewhere between Palatine and Rolling Meadows. This station could also serve Winston Park, and income from commuter lots would take care of the cost as well as relieve the burden on Arlington Heights' commuter parking.

Removing the depot from downtown Palatine would also open up hundreds of new parking spaces for shoppers now driving in mad circles looking for empty stalls.

Unless it becomes easier to park downtown, a slow strangulation will set in and leave established business districts gasping for trade as customers make use of new, outlying shopping centers with adequate and convenient parking.

Suburbanites don't want to walk more than a block to catch a train—or to buy a package of gum.

United Efforts Are Needed To Direct Rural Planning

For some years Paddock Publications has been urging northwest suburban communities to work together more closely in planning for the growth of unincorporated fringe areas.

A recent example of what happens without co-operation points up—in case there is still anyone who is unconvinced—why the need for getting our heads together grows daily.

An oil company purchased some property from a trailer camp at the corner of Golf and Arlington Heights rds. Village officials of both Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect had to give their approval to the division of the property. The oil company wants to put in a service station on the corner.

Both towns have limited planning and zoning jurisdiction over the lot because it is within 1.5 miles of their outer limits.

The oil company got approval from the Arlington Heights village board without any trouble. But when the firm went to the Mount Prospect planning commission, the story was different. The school district in which the lot is donated needs money, said the commission. So it asked the company to make a substantial donation. Otherwise, approval was to be withheld.

This example of a lack of any policy where there are overlapping jurisdictions is harmful to the orderly expansion of the entire area. In other areas, undesirable projects have gotten the go-ahead because nobody worried about them.

With the completion of the toll roads next year, a fresh wave of developments of every kind will hit the northwest.

It is imperative that our communities plan together now to meet the wave.

The People's Right to Know

I was particularly pleased to read your news item and editorial concerning the toll road burrow pit situation along County Line road, especially since a certain newspaper in DuPage county took the opposite view of the situation: ie., the toll road needs the fill, so we should let them do what they will to our township to get it.

One sentence in your news story needs clarification. The letter to Senator Lottie Holman O'Neill from the Addison Township Federation of Civic Organizations did not claim the 15 points were illegal. I simply asked 15 questions, which have been asked over and over of the Toll Road Commission and the county Board, and were not answered satisfactorily. Some did concern illegal practices, but most of them were asked in an effort to pin someone down as to the final effect on our community of these pits. It seems that no one can give us straight answers on this.

The people who live near these pits want more than promises that their drainage will not be affected, that the pits will be filled up, that the lakes will not be stagnant mosquito breeders, that their children will not be injured or killed in playing around these pits, that the deep pits will not be garbage dumps, and that their property values will not be lowered by a series of pits in their backyard. Up till now, the liaison between the Toll Road commission and the public has been very poor, and these people are not convinced, but are simply confused by conflicting stories and promises.

Fred Koebbeman, our supervisor, has been an immense help in bringing the issue before the county board, and demanding clarification of the situation, but many of our supervisors live too far away to be bothered by it.

This has become a question of whether people in an area can be ignored, pushed aside, and misinformed because contractors may not make as much profit, by going out further where it is less populated for their fill.

Another big question, unresolved at this time, is, "Who polices these pits to see that they conform to specifications and the law?" Up till the time the people of the area stepped into the picture, nobody did.

The people have a right to know what's going on.

Raymond L. Schultz, president
Addison Township Federation
of Civic Organizations.

What's Behind Police Chief Fuss?

I'm disappointed in the Arlington Heights paper for not telling its readers about this ridiculous fussin' and fumin' over the hiring of a new police chief for Arlington Heights.

In the past week or two I've been approached several times and asked to sign a petition in behalf of a local candidate for the job or make telephone calls to exert pressure in behalf of the same candidate.

Now I don't know what the score is as far as hiring a chief is concerned, but frankly I'm getting mighty suspicious of a campaign that every day begins to smell more and more like a political crusade and less and less like intelligent, non-partisan selection of a capable chief of police.

I keep hoping my local weekly will let me in on what the scoop is.

Headline: "Area Towns Oppose Longer Racing Season."

What right have towns to tell private enterprises what to do? What right have I to object? I have no right at all and neither do other townspeople. Every Tom, Dick and Harry takes the liberty to tell his fellow humans how to live, above their own economy, to satisfy their own ego and if they don't comply, will sic the big bad wolves on them.

Yes, I am a smart Alec, but I went to school to learn when to be one and to give God a helping hand. We learned that civilized living has to have regulation and directive, but not beyond common reasoning and the right of natural law. We were told that God watches that the trees do not grow into Heaven and that we were to watch that the weeds do not destroy our good crops.

Anyone of us who wants to restrict private enterprise forgets that his economic welfare and freedom depends on it. That goes from a shoe string to battleships and from gambling, including horse racing, to religion, where adult humans earn a way to feed their bodies, and their children. Let's not dim the light that leads us to salvation. Let's keep authority within public domain, keep the flowers in the garden and separate the good from the bad in our own soul. Let's not practice the way of life we desire to oppose, for the good of all.

With the help of God I did my good deed toward humanity, my Mrs. typed it for us and now it is up to the publisher to let it be known or shirk his duty and let the bitter fruit of bolshevik ignorance fluorish and destroy all the good God has achieved for us so far.

Solving Polluted Water Situation

This is how I relieved my polluted water situation after the state laboratories had given me the bad news.

On investigation, I found the water at the well to be 100 per cent pure, but polluted after passing through the reserve tank, which I cleaned by the following method, and later received a clean bill from the state.

Turn off electric supply to pump; permit water to drain completely from the tank, through any tap lower than the tank—I used an outside sill cock; turn on pump and permit tank to fill to much less than capacity; turn off electricity at pump and drain again. Repeat this operation until water runs perfectly clear (I did it 20 to 30 times to get results).

In some cases, some agent, such as chlorine, placed in the tank for an overnight soaking might be necessary to rid the tank of bacteria.

Now, will someone tell me how I can free my septic field tiles, which fail to pass water fast enough? My septic tank is always full to overflowing.

Could I suggest a column in your paper which would answer these questions for the "do it yourself" home owner of which there are so many in the territory covered by your paper?

ABOUT THIS QUESTION

"Last year a neighbor slipped on our icy walk and broke his hip. He could have sued us, and it might have cost us $1,000 or more. We were ashamed that we didn't at least have insurance to pay his medical expenses. Does a $10,000 Personal Liability Policy cost only $10?"

News Of Prospect Meadows

Civic Activities

The auxiliary meets tonight at 8 at Pioneer Park field house, Arlington Heights. Members are reminded to bring grabbag gift.

This Saturday, Dec. 7, at 9 p.m., the youth organization will hold its first annual dance at Fred's Place, Rand rd. The organization needs a good turnout to assure the children in the community enough money to continue their youth activities in the coming year.

Since well rounded youth activities program can be provided in the Meadows, money is needed to continue the program that has just completed its first year.

Newcomers Welcomed

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hereford, formerly of Detroit, were welcomed into the community recently. They live at 441 Rand and and Frank is a food and drug officer for the Federal government.

A newly-married couple has been welcomed here also. They are Edmund and Carol Petray, 605 Bob-O-Link. Carol is a former Chicagoan and Edmund is from Park Ridge and works for the H. A. Dooley Real Estate company.

There are 2 new families on Bunting. Ernest and Hattie Walt at 625 come from Oak Park. Ernest is partly retired and works for the Chicago American. Charles and Inger Anderson live at 601. They lived in Elgin and Charles works for Borg Warner Chemical Research plant in Des Plaines.

County Approves 2 Wheeling Plats

(CNS)—Plats for 2 new subdivisions in Wheeling township have been approved by the county board. One is Caroline Heights Unit 1 located at the northwest corner of Arlington Heights road and Arthur st. The other is Bluett's Fairview Gardens at the northwest corner of Central rd. and Stevensen lane. The latter will have a privately owned water supply system and a public sanitary sewer system. (ACM

Christmastime Is Also License Time

Along with Christmas shopping, there is another necessary chore—getting your 1958 license plates.

Deadline for displaying 1958 plates will be February 15, Secretary of State Carpentier says, but the way to give yourself the best of it is to buy them and put them on by January 1.

The license plate fee is a tax. It has to be paid and you can't save a dime by putting off the payment. Those who neglect it until after the February 15 deadline will risk being arrested and fined. (AMP

'Turnabout' Spoils a Male

It was "turnabout" at Arlington high school recently with the girls treating the boys.

(1) Carol Conroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Conroy, 205 N. Pine, Arlington Heights, pins a corsage on Bernie Lalor, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lalor, 828 N. Ridge, Arlington Heights, as the evening begins. The "floral tribute" consisted of radishes and broccoli, not rosebuds. But after all, it's the thought that counts.

(2) Necessary parts of TWIRP season (The Woman Is Requested to Pay) are such chivalrous tasks as opening the car door, helping with the boy's coat, and providing for his general comfort. Carol, a junior, bears up pretty well under the strain, however, despite the fact that Bernie, a senior, grows more helpless by the hour.

(3) At the dance, dubbed the "Sputnik Spin" and sponsored by the sophomore class, the evening takes on normal aspects. It was woman's choice and, naturally, the gals had to foot the bill. Bernie doesn't let this spoil his evening, however, as his smile indicates.

(4) Carol discovers what her date knew all along—two can't eat as cheaply as one. Bernie is sympathetic as Carol looks over the food bill, but decides that this is no time to weaken. "Another hamburger, please!"

(5) End of a perfect evening. Carol sees Bernie to his door, and the spoiled male manages a "We should do this more often!"

Prospect High Freshmen Christmas Program Sunday

Nearly 200 Prospect high freshmen wil combine talents Sunday, Dec. 8, in the school's first annual Christmas program, "Stars Over Bethlehem."

"CHRISTMAS in words and music" will feature the boys' and girls' choruses, a 45 piece cadet band, and members of the Drama club. No admission is charged for the program, which begins at 3 p.m. in the newly opened cafeteria.

Boys' chorus will sing "The Sleigh," "This Is My Father's House," "Christmas Is Coming," and "Holy Lord of All." Soloists are Terry Miller, Bill Ninde, Jerry Hawkins, and Douglas Holz.

GIRLS' CHORUS numbers will be "This Is the Story of Jesus," "The Little Jesus Came to Town," "Ding Ding Merrily on High," "Little Lamb Who Made Thee," and "One God." Female soloists are Beth Roddell, Pat Hawkins, Kay Hightower, Pat Hoppock, Dorothy Kieck, Mary Knopp, Sue Edmonds, and Beryl Esmond.

Christmas scenes will be portrayed by Joan D'Argo, Phyllis Jones, Dandra Hertlein, Donna Schean and Pam Johnston. Lenore Radosti will read "Littlest Angel" and Kathy Schlan will give the prayer of Peter Marshall.

"FROSTY THE Snow Man" and "Christmas Fantasy" will highlight the band's program. James Bidderman will be featured as solo trombonist, and will join Lawrence Jauch and Jon Didrickson for a trombone trio rendition of "Cantique de Noel."

Student directors are Jan Gow and Carol Weiser. Teachers directing the presentation are Miss June Leick, Martin Dahlberg, and Sandra Belt. Accompanists will be Pamel Warfield, Carol Cordic and Susan Peters. (ACM

In The Shadow Of The Steeple

'Modern Man' Interprets Broad Meaning of Freedom

by REV. WILLIAM McGILL

Freedom is a feeling that all persons desire.

Each of us tends to resent the feeling that another lays out our duties and sets the bounds within which we must operate. This seems to be true at almost every area of the social scale.

SEVERAL YEARS ago, when Milton Caniff was negotiating with Marshall Field, there was talk that this was one of the cartoonist's concerns. It was a rather high finance operation which took Caniff out of the Tribune syndicate and "Terry and the Pirates," and into the Sun stable with "Steve Canyon."

Caniff's complaint was said to be that he had no control over the strip and no rights of ownership. Field is said to have murmured that he appeared to be a rather comfortable, "well-paid wage slave."

THE POINT, of course, is that even at this relatively high income tax bracket, a man whose work to most of us seems quite casual and probably enjoyable did not enjoy a sense of being free.

A second interesting fact about freedom is our general unwillingness to recognize when we do not enjoy it. If one here to suggest that we are bound by routine, by prejudices inherited or thoughtlessly picked up years ago, each of us would resent the suggestion that we do not freely make up our own minds in relation to each new choosing-situation.

I meet a great many people who are so busy they don't even seem to get time to read the daily paper. Some say regretfully, some boastfully, that they haven't read a book in years. Some cannot even find time to pray.

HOW CAN A MAN carry on a business if he has not taken time to think carefully about the relation of that business to sputnik, to the changing times, to the eventual course of man's life on this planet? Can you imagine the comedy routine that might be developed on a caricature of the man who cornered the buggy-whip industry in, say, 1924?

It's extreme, but such a man just would have failed to recognize the trend of the times.

THE LICENSE was issued to Fred Lewis Weigand, Ballard rd., Maine township.

Lohman recommended the license be revoked in a letter to Daniel Ryan, county board president and county liquor control commissioner. (B8

Harlan W. Kelley

Harlan W. Kelley, 54, one of the most colorful and fiery figures in Wisconsin politics, died at his home in Baraboo, Wis., this past weekend.

Kelley, a staunch Republican and an unrelenting opponent of the New Deal, was the brother of Curran (Pat) Kelley, 2011 W. Banbury rd., Inverness, formerly of Mt. Prospect. Also surviving are his father, John M. Kelley of Baraboo, his wife, Louise, and 2 more brothers, John Jr. and Owen. (B8

A MEETING in a New Zealand recreation center during World War II marks the beginning of the romance between Jean Simmons and Paul Newman in "Until They Sail," new M-G-M drama based on a story by James Michener. In The Shadow Of The Steeple

'Modern Man' Interprets Broad Meaning of Freedom

by REV. WILLIAM McGILL

Freedom is a feeling that all persons desire.

Each of us tends to resent the feeling that another lays out our duties and sets the bounds within which we must operate. This seems to be true at almost every area of the social scale.

SEVERAL YEARS ago, when Milton Caniff was negotiating with Marshall Field, there was talk that this was one of the cartoonist's concerns. It was a rather high finance operation which took Caniff out of the Tribune syndicate and "Terry and the Pirates," and into the Sun stable with "Steve Canyon."

Caniff's complaint was said to be that he had no control over the strip and no rights of ownership. Field is said to have murmured that he appeared to be a rather comfortable, "well-paid wage slave."

THE POINT, of course, is that even at this relatively high income tax bracket, a man whose work to most of us seems quite casual and probably enjoyable did not enjoy a sense of being free.

A second interesting fact about freedom is our general unwillingness to recognize when we do not enjoy it. If one here to suggest that we are bound by routine, by prejudices inherited or thoughtlessly picked up years ago, each of us would resent the suggestion that we do not freely make up our own minds in relation to each new choosing-situation.

I meet a great many people who are so busy they don't even seem to get time to read the daily paper. Some say regretfully, some boastfully, that they haven't read a book in years. Some cannot even find time to pray.

HOW CAN A MAN carry on a business if he has not taken time to think carefully about the relation of that business to sputnik, to the changing times, to the eventual course of man's life on this planet? Can you imagine the comedy routine that might be developed on a caricature of the man who cornered the buggy-whip industry in, say, 1924?

It's extreme, but such a man just would have failed to recognize the trend of the times.

SOMEONE FLIPPED on the television set, the other morning, as Garry Moore was concluding his program. He was reading a card from a member of the studio audience: "Do you know who you are and what you're doing and where it fits in the infinite scheme of things?"

Moore answered, "I've spent 42 years trying to make sure of the answer to that question, and I'm going to give it some more thought over this weekend."

I DON'T KNOW whether he tried to answer it the following Monday or not. But this is the kind of question which the free man must constantly address to himself and spend his years trying to answer.

Reinhold Niebuhr has given wide circulation to the prayer, "Give me courage to change the things that I can, faith to accept the things that I cannot change, and, O Lord, give me the wisdom to know the difference." That is almost the meaning of freedom in short. (B12

What Happened To Free Economy

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

When I read of growing inflation, it gives me a chill to learn about what could be the coming end of free enterprise in a free American economy.

We are living in a whooped up area of spending the likes of which this nation has never seen before, and may never see again, stimulated by government spending and loans. Every time business, industry, counties, states or cities get into a jam, or needs money, they seek government help through subsidies or controls.

THE GOVERNMENT to meet demands, takes more than one third of our incomes today, 2 and a fraction days out of each week's pay. The government is in business manufacturing rubber, electricity, machinery and countless other things. The government is passing laws and has passed laws governing both industry and labor, and providing punishment for disobediences. By subsidies, the government seeks to control the production of agriculture.

Newspapers and magazines devote much space to government subsidies, government interference in labor disputes, and government housing, among other things. Everyone in the country, almost, has a hand out for what he can get from Uncle Sam. Everyone is seeking higher wages for less work, more profit for poorer merchandise, subsidies, subsidies, and subsidies. The dollar is shrinking, taxes, higher, government interference greater. We have moved nearer to socialism under both democratic and republican administrations; yet it looks like the majority of Americans, while decrying socialism, are becoming the very tools which will bring it about in America.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE for thinking persons not to see this trend; yet there is nothing our present form of government can do about it; it is up to the American people.

Only when they say no and mean it to government spending; when we all stop excessive buying; when we stop demanding so much from government; only then can we stop inflation and the development of an American brand of socialism. (B12

Give your bowler a winner —
The Ebonite Tornado!
On the record it's "the bowling ball that improves anybody's score!" Champions and novices, men and women, have chalked up triumphs with this wonder ball with the alley-gripping miracle finish.
From National Champion Anita Cantaline to average bowlers who suddenly roll "300," there's agreement: "the 'winningest' ball in bowling." Here's a sure-fire gift success! (Ask us about the Tornado gift certificate).

Give your bowler a winner —
The Ebonite Tornado!

On the record it's "the bowling ball that improves anybody's score!" Champions and novices, men and women, have chalked up triumphs with this wonder ball with the alley-gripping miracle finish.
From National Champion Anita Cantaline to average bowlers who suddenly roll "300," there's agreement: "the 'winningest' ball in bowling." Here's a sure-fire gift success! (Ask us about the Tornado gift certificate).

OFTEN MISUSED

"My dear Mr. Smith" is a more formal salutation to a letter than "Dear Mr. Smith." Note that when "dear" is preceded by "My" it is spelled with a small "d."

Do not say, "She thought it was them who hadbrought her flowers." Say, "She thought it was them who had brought her flowers."

OFTEN MISUSED

"My dear Mr. Smith" is a more formal salutation to a letter than "Dear Mr. Smith." Note that when "dear" is preceded by "My" it is spelled with a small "d."

Do not say, "She thought it was them who hadbrought her flowers." Say, "She thought it was them who had brought her flowers."

Plum Grove Dinner Dance Opens Holiday Season

NEIGHBORLY CHAT is enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. John Schumacher, left, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris who were among 83 couples attending the Plum Grove Estates Property association semi-formal dinner dance November 23 at Rolling Green country club. The Harrises moved to the Palatine "suburb" last summer while the Schumachers moved into their modern home in the fall. The dinner was followed by dancing to the music of Ben Rose and his orchestra.

HAPPY GROUP of merry makers at Plum Grove Estates dance November 23 included Mrs. Gerhardt Seidel, Mrs. Robert Bauer (in plaid dress), Mrs. Roy McCall and W. W. Davis. Mrs. Bauer was chairman of the dinner dance and Mrs. Seidel and Mr. Davis, both of Park Ridge, were guests of the Bauers. Mrs. McCall is a resident of the Estates, a secluded, wooded section in Palatine. Fifty-five families now reside in the area of custom-built homes.

BLACK TAFFETA DRESS was chosen by Mrs. A. James Gallagher Jr. for Plum Grove Estates 'Property Owners' dinner dance November 23. She is pictured here with Mr. Gallagher, president of the association. Affair was held in Rolling Green country club with residents of the area as well as owners of vacant properties and their guests enjoying the dancing.

FOLLOWING complete roast beef dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Anderson Sr., Algonquin rd., relax with Mrs. John W. Ignatius of Brookdale lane. Anderson formerly owned farm property which now makes up Plum Grove Estates. Salt creek tributary meanders through the properties, forming picturesque views for many of the homes. The area also boasts a small lake on which fishing, swimming, skating and boating are enjoyed by residents.

Announce Engagements

Barbara Parsons

A summer wedding is being planned by Miss Barbara Ann Parsons and Neil K. Barr Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Barr of Arlington Heights.

The couple's engagement and approaching marriage has been announced by Miss Parsons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Parsons of Atwood, Ill.

Miss Parsons is a senior at the University of Illinois in the college of education. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority. Her fiance was graduated from Arlington high school and from the college of commerce and business administration at the University of Illinois. He is a member of Chi Phi social fraternity. At present, he is in sales with the Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corp. in Toledo.

Evelyn Blume

The engagement and forthcoming marriage of Evelyn Blume to Howard Braun, son of Mrs. Carl Braun of Chicago is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blume, 203 E. McDonald rd., Prospect Heights.

The couple has set May 17 as a wedding date with the ceremony to take place in St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Heights.

Miss Blume was graduated from Arlington high school and her fiance was graduated from Lane Tech. Both are employed in the service department at Public Service Co., Northbrook.

THURSDAY DEC. 5, 1957

Judith Smith

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Smith, 4N121 John st., Bensenville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Judith, to Thomas J. Mushong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mushong of Itasca.

The couple has not set a wedding date.

ATTIRED IN A FLOOR-LENGTH peau de soie bridal gown and fingertip veil falling from a jeweled pillbox hat, Miss Judith Pohlman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Pohlman of Woodstock, formerly of Wheeling, became the bride of Paul B. Hertel of Grayslake in a recent church wedding. She carried a bouquet of 3 red roses with spider mums for the double ring ceremony. A 6 o'clock buffet supper and reception followed in McHenry Legion hall.

Just Around The Corner From Patty McArdle

She's Living Like a Native

Dear Peg·

From here on, I'm going to live like a native and furthermore, I intend to impose my new way of life on every member of my family!

There will be no more hoarding of old shoes, hats, purses, magazines (in which there was an article I wanted to read 3 years ago), 1 glove, 1 sock, 1 stocking, every scrap of paper that any of the children laid their hand to, sashes and belts from dresses long since given or thrown away, scraps of material, or any of the other treasures I've been hiding away for 2 years. We shall keep nothing in our possession that is not immediately and completely useful and useable!

You may be wondering why I'm suddenly obsessed with the idea of going primitive. If you have made a major move after living in one place for at least 7 years, you know. If you haven't then all I can say is wait until the day that you must move, then you too will know.

It hes been a week since we moved into our little house, and there are still packing boxes I haven't touched. One reason it takes such a long time getting organized is that although I've thrown as much away since we arrived as when I was packing, I still am having a hard time finding a place for everything. Another reason I can't seem to get unpacked quickly is that I've taken time out to hang fresh, ruffly, white organdy curtains at all the windows facing the street. Of course, we'll have to take them down as we paint each room—but I don't care—I just can't bear to see windows from the outside without curtains or drapes. They look like empty eye sockets!

I think too, that if I had 3 or 4 days to work on just putting away, cleaning and arranging without the children around, I could get done quickly. But, as you know, by the time you have barely started a job, you must stop and clean up the Rice Krispies which someone had forgotten to put out of Patrick's reach. That job finished, you get started again and the telephone rings. Twenty minutes later and the children want a cookie and the TV adjusted, then you take time to put a load of clothes in the washer (or else no one will have anything to wear the next day). By this time it's lunch time, time to get ready for kindergarten, time to put Patrick down for his nap—then for an hour and a half you are free to get on with the unpacking, etc—until the routine starts in again.

A few days ago, I was ready to chuck the whole thing and go to the hospital and have a baby, leaving the family to sink or swim in their own packing boxes. However, I couldn't, since my new white nylon robe and my frilly-in-the-hospital-to-have-a-baby-gowns are all at the bottom of a packing box!

With no alternative but to become philosophical about the whole thing and take it all casually and slowly, doing just what I can each day, I now feel much less frustrated and much more patient—but watch out if I ever get to the bottom of the box where those gowns are!

My love,

Patty

Fruit Cocktail Pudding Different, Appealing Dessert

by LOIS SEILER

Different and delicious aptly describes the appealing dessert we are featuring this week.

Called a fruit cocktail pudding, the recipe has been shared with us by Mrs. Charles Tesar of Arlington Heights.

Simple to prepare, this cake-like pudding contains canned fruit cocktail and has a topping of brown sugar and chopped nuts.

Cut into squares, it is served with whipped cream topped by a cherry.

Crushed pineapple may be substituted for the fruit cocktail in this recipe. Either way, it is an excellent bridge, luncheon or dinner dessert.

The Tesars moved from Mt. Prospect to their home at 432 Banbury in Arlington Heights 2 years ago. They have 2 children: Patricia, a sophomore at the University of Illinois, and Lynne, a high school sophomore.

Mrs. Tesar is a member of the Arlington Heights Woman's club and the South church in Mt. Prospect.

Fruit Cocktail Pudding

1 No. 2 can fruit cocktail, drained, or crushed pineapple, drained.
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 cup sugar.
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
¾ cup brown sugar
½ cup chopped nuts

Beat egg and add fruit.

Sift flour, granulated sugar, salt and soda together. Add to egg and fruit mixture.

Pour batter into a greased, 8 by 10 inch pan. Sprinkle with brown sugar and nuts.

Bake 1 hour and 20 minutes in 300 degree oven.

Serve hot or cold and top with whipped cream.

Serves 12 to 16. (S

Quite Contrary

Columnist Gasps At Sack Styles

by MARY

It never occurred to me that I was going to get into a bind over sacks. There are many things that the mention of makes me steam. Things like graft, Communism, war and crabgrass can all cause me to get pretty cross. Today, it is sacks.

Back in the days, olden days that is, when I was on the farm, we had feed sacks. These were quite simple. Into the sacks which usually said Purina Pure on them and not in polka dots either, we put grain. Then we went to the grist mill. Then we had meal in the sacks. Nothing to raise one's hackles there.

I LIKE GARBAGE sacks because it makes such a handy place to put garbage which, in turn, seems to keep the garbage men quite happy. I adore sacks from the clothing stores and I'm sure that I don't have to say why. But, the sack dresses have me thrown for a loop. I am almost speechless with indignation, but not quite.

As if calling the new frocks by such a silly name weren't enough, they also have put out something which they call the chemise look. Well shame on them. I remember a chemise from the 20's and it certainly wasn't anything that we talked about, let alone wore on the outside.

These things that are on the market are truly designed to hide anything that goes to make a woman, a woman. In fact the ad writers are having a little trouble trying to think up a good reason why women should wear them. About the best they can do is tell us that the things are comfortable and make for free and easy movement.

I HAVE A NICE flannel bathrobe that is pretty comfortable too but I am whooped if I am going to wear it when I go to Don the Beachcombers even if it is pretty dark in there. In the ad today it says that I have to be supple to wear this creation. No muscle bound cuties for the sack.

It does admit that stout women can wear it if they move lightly. As far as I'm concerned, the fat lady in Barnum and Bailey can float around on tip-to in a sack if she is so inclined. I wouldn't be caught dead in it. As for the chemise, I'm no prude, but there are limits to everything.

Home Ec Graduates To Meet December 7

North Suburban Home Economics Homemakers will meet Saturday, Dec. 7, at 1 p.m. on the third floor of Fisk hall, Northwestern university.

Lillian Budd, author of "April Snow" and other books will talk on Swedish Christmas customs.

Reservations may be made by calling or writing Mrs. N. John Rowe, 1104 Dempster, Evanston. All home economic graduates who are now homemakers, are invited to join this group.

WITH A MAGIC CARPET matinee, "Postmark: Europe" by Howdee Meyers and Lucia Perrigo as the highlight of their holiday luncheon in the Sarah Siddons walk of the Ambassador East hotel, the Chicago-North Shore alumnae of Alpha Delta Pi are circling the date of December 27. At the planning luncheon, made festive by holiday decor in the Parade room, the president of the group, Mrs. William Maloney, 420 Hillcrest, Prospect Heights, displays a small gold tree which will be used as part of the table decorations on the day of the festivity.

By this time it's lunch time, time to get ready for kindergarten, time to put Patrick down for his nap—then for an hour and a half you are free to get on with the unpacking, etc—until the routine starts in again.

A few days ago, I was ready to chuck the whole thing and go to the hospital and have a baby, leaving the family to sink or swim in their own packing boxes. However, I couldn't, since my new white nylon robe and my frilly-in-the-hospital-to-have-a-baby-gowns are all at the bottom of a packing box!

With no alternative but to become philosophical about the whole thing and take it all casually and slowly, doing just what I can each day, I now feel much less frustrated and much more patient—but watch out if I ever get to the bottom of the box where those gowns are!

My love,
Patty

Announce Engagements

Barbara Parsons

Fruit Cocktail Pudding Different, Appealing Dessert

by LOIS SEILER

Different and delicious aptly describes the appealing dessert we are featuring this week.

Called a fruit cocktail pudding, the recipe has been shared with us by Mrs. Charles Tesar of Arlington Heights.

Simple to prepare, this cake-like pudding contains canned fruit cocktail and has a topping of brown sugar and chopped nuts.

Cut into squares, it is served with whipped cream topped by a cherry.

Crushed pineapple may be substituted for the fruit cocktail in this recipe. Either way, it is an excellent bridge, luncheon or dinner dessert.

The Tesars moved from Mt. Prospect to their home at 432 Banbury in Arlington Heights 2 years ago. They have 2 children: Patricia, a sophomore at the University of Illinois, and Lynne, a high school sophomore.

Mrs. Tesar is a member of the Arlington Heights Woman's club and the South church in Mt. Prospect.

Fruit Cocktail Pudding

1 egg
1 No. 2 can fruit cocktail, drained, or crushed pineapple, drained.
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 cup sugar.
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
¾ cup brown sugar
½ cup chopped nuts

Beat egg and add fruit.

Sift flour, granulated sugar, salt and soda together. Add to egg and fruit mixture.

Pour batter into a greased, 8 by 10 inch pan. Sprinkle with brown sugar and nuts.

Bake 1 hour and 20 minutes in 300 degree oven.

Serve hot or cold and top with whipped cream.

(You can reserve the cherries from the fruit cocktail and use them to top whipped cream.)

Serves 12 to 16. (S

Quite Contrary

Columnist Gasps At Sack Styles

by MARY

It never occurred to me that I was going to get into a bind over sacks. There are many things that the mention of makes me steam. Things like graft, Communism, war and crabgrass can all cause me to get pretty cross. Today, it is sacks.

Back in the days, olden days that is, when I was on the farm, we had feed sacks. These were quite simple. Into the sacks which usually said Purina Pure on them and not in polka dots either, we put grain. Then we went to the grist mill. Then we had meal in the sacks. Nothing to raise one's hackles there.

I LIKE GARBAGE sacks because it makes such a handy place to put garbage which, in turn, seems to keep the garbage men quite happy. I adore sacks from the clothing stores and I'm sure that I don't have to say why. But, the sack dresses have me thrown for a loop. I am almost speechless with indignation, but not quite.

As if calling the new frocks by such a silly name weren't enough, they also have put out something which they call the chemise look. Well shame on them. I remember a chemise from the 20's and it certainly wasn't anything that we talked about, let alone wore on the outside.

These things that are on the market are truly designed to hide anything that goes to make a woman, a woman. In fact the ad writers are having a little trouble trying to think up a good reason why women should wear them. About the best they can do is tell us that the things are comfortable and make for free and easy movement.

I HAVE A NICE flannel bathrobe that is pretty comfortable too but I am whooped if I am going to wear it when I go to Don the Beachcombers even if it is pretty dark in there. In the ad today it says that I have to be supple to wear this creation. No muscle bound cuties for the sack.

It does admit that stout women can wear it if they move lightly. As far as I'm concerned, the fat lady in Barnum and Bailey can float around on tip-to in a sack if she is so inclined. I wouldn't be caught dead in it. As for the chemise, I'm no prude, but there are limits to everything.

Home Ec Graduates To Meet December 7

North Suburban Home Economics Homemakers will meet Saturday, Dec. 7, at 1 p.m. on the third floor of Fisk hall, Northwestern university.

Lillian Budd, author of "April Snow" and other books will talk on Swedish Christmas customs.

Reservations may be made by calling or writing Mrs. N. John Rowe, 1104 Dempster, Evanston. All home economic graduates who are now homemakers, are invited to join this group.

WITH A MAGIC CARPET matinee, "Postmark: Europe" by Howdee Meyers and Lucia Perrigo as the highlight of their holiday luncheon in the Sarah Siddons walk of the Ambassador East hotel, the Chicago-North Shore alumnae of Alpha Delta Pi are circling the date of December 27. At the planning luncheon, made festive by holiday decor in the Parade room, the president of the group, Mrs. William Maloney, 420 Hillcrest, Prospect Heights, displays a small gold tree which will be used as part of the table decorations on the day of the festivity.

Elizabeth Alanne Is Now Mrs. D. Peterson

Following their marriage October 1, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis E. Peterson are residing in Winslow, Ariz. where Mr. Peterson is employed as a geophysicist with the Atlantic Refining Co.

Mrs. Peterson is the former Elizabeth Alanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Alanne, 1439 S. Belmont, Arlington Heights, and Mr. Peterson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Peterson of Strum, Wis.

The couple's marriage took place in First Presbyterian Church of Arlington Heights with Rev. Stumpf officiating. White chrysanthemums decorated the church for the candlelight service.

Mr. Alanne gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of white peau de soie, fashioned floor-length with pearl trim at the scooped neckline. She also wore a fingertip veil with pearl crown and carried white roses, carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Roberta Geehan of Rolla, Mo., was her cousin's only attendant and wore a red satin faille dress with gold and yellow chrysanthemums in her bouquet. Lynn Peterson, brother of the bridegroom from Strum, was best man.

A reception in Arlington House followed the 7:30 p.m. service.

The new Mrs. Peterson attended Monmouth college for 2 years and finished her third year at the University of Wisconsin. Her bridegroom was graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1956.

Good Way To Eat Your "Apple-A-Day"

Baked apples for breakfast. How long has it been since you've had them? On a chilly morning there's something pretty cheery about starting off breakfast with a juicy baked apple, still warm from the oven.

One good way to fix them is to fill the centers of each apple with orange marmalade before baking. If you're a calorie-conscious breakfaster, you'll especially appreciate the recipe given here. It recommends that you use dietetic orange marmalade which has a lowly calorie count of just 1-1/5 calories per teaspoon. Then, you further whittle calories by sweetening the apples with the non-caloric sweetener, Sucaryl, rather than with sugar. Just with the help of this sweetener, you save nearly 100 calories in every serving!

An apple a day? Whether you believe the old adage, or not, help yourself to some good eating by serving Marmalade Baked Apples at breakfast soon.

MARMALADE BAKED APPLES
(Low-Calorie)

- 8 medium-sized red baking apples
- 2 tablespoons Sucaryl solution or 48 Sucaryl tablets
- 2 cups water
- ½ cup dietetic orange marmalade

Core apples and pare a thin strip from around top edge. Combine Sucaryl and water and bring to a boil; if desired, add a few drops red food coloring. Place 1 tablespoon of marmalade in each apple; place in liquid in baking pan; bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for about 45 minutes. Baste occasionally with the liquid.

Makes 8 servings. Each serving contains 79 CALORIES; 0.4 gram protein; 0.5 gram fat; 20.4 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 176 CALORIES.

Elaine Heinberg Weds Lloyd Heine October 12

Miss Elaine Marie Heinberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heinberg of Bartlett, formerly of Bloomingdale, became the bride of Lloyd H. Heine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heine of Hampshire, at 7:30 p.m. October 12 in a double ring, candlelight ceremony. The service was held in St. Paul United Church of Christ, Bloomingdale, with Rev. Karl E. Gaertner officiating.

Mrs. Arthur Luerssen, aunt of the bride, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" with Mrs. Karl Gaertner accompanying her at the organ.

The bride wore a traditional white danslite, floor-length gown with lace edged around a square neckline in princess style and carried a crescent bouquet of white carnations and fuji mums with a center yellow rose corsage. She was given in marriage by her father Mr. Harry Heinberg.

Maid of honor was Miss Marilyn Heinberg, the bride's cousin, and bridesmaids were Miss Darlene Bacak, friend of the bride, and Mrs. Marie Heine, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Pearl Heinberg, sister of the bride, and flower girl was Miss Shirley Collins, cousin of the bride. All were gowned in princess style iridescent green and brown fall colors and carried colonial-shaped bouquets of yellow with bronze-edged pom pons.

Best man was H. Douglas Heine, brother of the bridegroom and ushers were Harvey Heinberg, brother of the bride, and Howard Heine, brother of bridegroom. Ring bearer was Vernon Heine, nephew of the bridegroom and candle lighters were Harold Heinberg, brother of bride and Leonard Heinberg, cousin of bride.

Mrs. Heinberg, mother of the bride wore a royal blue crepe dress with light blue accessories while Mrs. Heine, mother of the bridegroom chose a dress of dior blue with navy blue accessories.

The reception took place at the Wood Dale Firemen's hall after which the bridal couple left for a honeymoon in the Smoky mountains. They are now at home at rural route 1, Hampshire.

The bride was graduated from Glenbard high school in 1951 and is employed at the J. C. Penney Co. in Elgin, while the bridegroom was graduated from Hampshire high school in 1949 and is engaged in farming.

How long should a leather sole last?

The perplexing aspect of the life of sole leather is that adults' shoes last six months, a year, or more, while children who are sitting in school much of the day can go through a good leather sole in four weeks.

Recent studies show that sole leather does not wear out — it washes away. When leather gets wet, the oils that lubricate and hold the fibres together ooze out of the leather. Lacking the oils, the leather shreds and quickly scuffs off.

Silicone Shoe Saver developed by the Dow Corning Chemical Co. renders leather water repellent and is supposed to add 30% to the life of the soles. A one dollar bottle will waterproof three pairs of shoes.

Buy Safe Toys For Christmas

In an interview with good old St. Nicholas, O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois, found the genial gentleman perfectly willing to cooperate in providing safe toys for children at Christmas time. But Santa insisted that he needs parents' help too.

"Certainly I think children should have safe toys," Santa said. "But many times parents order things that turn out to be dangerous. I just fill their orders and deliver the goods. Speak to the parents about it."

PLAY IS A CHILD'S world and entertainment. But it also stimulates growth of his physical, mental and social abilities. So select playthings that are appropriate to the age, interest and mental and physical abilities of your child.

Also see that playthings are sturdy and well made. Avoid cheaply constructed or breakable toys that will come apart or be broken under strenuous child play, leaving jagged edges that may cause cuts and infection.

Santa also had a word of advice for those who plan to drive during the holidays. "Take it easy and drive carefully," he said. (S

Spotlight Business Future At National Farmer Parley

by L. H. SIMERL

We are writing this from Washington, where we are attending the National Agricultural Outlook conference. The United States department of agriculture holds this conference once a year for extension specialists from the state colleges.

On the first day the talks centered on the outlook for business, which determines the demand for farm products. These discussions were very good — the best we have heard for a long time. They brought out very clearly the different views of leading economists.

THE OFFICIAL VIEW of the USDA and other government agencies seems to be that business activity will be about the same in 1958 as in 1957. This view was presented by Nathan M. Koffsky, a top economist in the department of agriculture. He said that private investment — spending for new plants and equipment — would decline a little in 1958, but that it would be offset by more spending by state and local governments and by consumers.

Similar views were expressed by 2 other government economists — James W. Knowles of the staff of the Joint Economic Committee of Congress and Louis J. Paradiso of the department of commerce.

TWO NON- government economists were less optimistic about business in 1958. These men were Gerhard Colm of the National Planning association and V. Lewis Bassie of the University of Illinois. They expressed the belief that business activity could not hold at its recent level because industrial production is now exceeding sales, and that consequently there would be a cutback in factory production, employment and consumer incomes.

Their views received at least temporary support in the revelation that personal income dropped one billion dollars from September to October, and that industrial production in October was 2 per cent smaller than it had been the year before.

BASSIE BELIEVES that the slow-down in business will continue through both 1958 and 1959. He thinks the recession will be more serious than any since World War II, but not so severe as that of the 1930's.

Colm believes that the government will act to check the recession before it runs very far into 1958. He expects a recovery to begin sometime after the middle of next year.

Knowles, the Congressional economist, said that quick action by Congress might make 1958 an even better year for business than 1957.

ONE IMPORTANT difference of opinion concerned the number of new houses that would be built and sold in 1958. The number of new homes built has decreased for about 2 years, but increased slightly this fall. The government rise was the beginning of a new housing boom. Bassie thinks it a temporary interruption of the decline, and holds that fewer houses will be built in 1958 than in 1957. Construction as a whole now furnishes employment for perhaps 3 million workers.

The prospective foreign demand for United States farm and industrial products was discussed by several experts in that field. They agreed that foreign demand for our products would not be so great next year as it has been this year. They pointed out that the Suez crisis and poor crops in Europe had helped to boost exports to unusually high levels in the past year. (Fm

Vegetable Parley Dec. 8-12

The National Junior Vegetable Growers association will hold its annual convention in Springfield Dec. 8-12 at the Hotel Abraham Lincoln.

Members of the NJVGA are young people between 14 and 21 years who are interested in horticulture, particularly vegetable-growing.

A highlight of the convention is the careers in horticulture breakfast on Wednesday, Dec. 11. Speakers include John Carew from the department of horticulture, Michigan State university; Charles Mahoney, National Canners association; George England, department of agricultural economics, University of Illinois; and C. E. Kenyon, Dow Chemical company. W. G. Kammlade, associate director of extension service, University of Illinois College of Agriculture, will be the moderator.

The National Vegetable Judging, Grading and Identification contest and finals in the National Demonstration contest will be held Thursday, Dec. 12. Awards will be presented at a banquet that evening.

Sightseeing tours during the convention include the Caterpillar Tractor co., Pillsbury mills and DeKalb experimental farms.

Any young person interested in vegetable-growing is welcome to attend the convention. (Fm

Sows, Gilts Need Enough Protein

When feeding bred sows and gilts, remember to provide enough protein. Not enough protein will cause small, weak pigs at farrowing and will increase death rates.

These facts are from W. F. Nickelson, extension livestock specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Nickelson reports that researchers have studied how different levels of protein in a gilt's gestation ration affect litter size and strength of the pigs. Two levels of protein were fed in the trial — 10.7 and 14.3 per cent.

Results showed the same number of pigs farrowed on the 2 levels of protein. Only 77.2 per cent of the pigs from gilts fed low protein levels lived 21 days. On the other hand, 92.2 per cent of pigs from gilts fed higher protein levels lived to 21 days.

This work shows that feeding low protein rations to gilts during gestation causes them to farrow weak pigs that are less resistant to diseases. The result is higher death losses.

Remember that bred gilts are still growing and therefore need more protein than mature bred sows. (Fm

Down on the Farm with Your Farm Adviser
CARL F. MEES

How much land can one man farm? The average tenant farmer in the Farm Bureau farm management service operating under a crop-share lease on very good land in 1956 farmed 200 acre's of tillable land with a total input of only 12.7 months of labor. On this land he had 122 acres in corn and soybeans, 45 acres in small grains and 33 acres in rotation hay and pasture. In addition, he had an average of 111 hens, 17 animal units of cattle and 17 litters of pigs. Landlords who own less than 200 acres of good land should either allow their tenants to rent additional land or provide opportunities for extra livestock to utilize the tenant's available labor.

AVERAGE COST of producing corn was 72 cents a bushel for a 100-bushel yield in 1956 on northern Illinois farms.On these same farms, a 78-bushel yield in 1955 cost 91 cents a bushel to produce.

The seasonal price peak for soybeans computed from prices received by Illinois farmers from 1947 through 1956 is normally reached in April or May.

DID YOU KNOW that on a given span a 2 by 8 is almost twice as strong as a 2 by 6 and a 2 by 10 is nearly three times as strong as a 2 by 6.

PROVIDE PLENTY of clean, ice-free water for livestock in the winter. Automatic waterers and water heaters will decrease labor and increase livestock gains.

WHEN, WHERE and how do accidents happen? They occur all through the year — about the same number each month. Wednesday and Saturday are the most hazardous days of the week, and from 2 to 4 p.m. is the most dangerous part of the day. Most farm accidents occur in the fields, farmyard and barns. Farm machinery is involved in 40 per cent of the accidents. Tricycle tractors are about twice as dangerous as the four-wheel type. Animal chores, construction and repairs are the jobs that farmers are most often doing when accidents occur.

LEPTOSPIROSIS is a disease that is responsible for considerable losses in swine, cattle and sheep in the United States. The losses result from reduction in gains, reduced milk production and abortions. Many cases of leptospirosis have been traced to a leptospirosis-polluted stream.

Feed Grain Price Support Program Is 'Badl y Bent'

The feed grain situation is pretty well mixed up this year. The general conditions have been known for some time, but additional details were brought out at the National Agricultural Outlook Conference held recently in Washington.

Four features stand out: (1) The supply of feed grains is considerably greater than the record supply of a year ago. (2) Much of the corn and sorghum grain is so wet that harvesting and storage are difficult. (3) The price support level is lower than in any other year since World War II. (4) The price-support production-control program seems to be breaking down.

THE TOTAL SUPPLY of feed grains — corn, oats, barley and sorghum grain — is estimated at 187 million tons, or 44 per cent more than will be used and exported in the present marketing year. Carry-over of feed grains, made up mostly of corn, is expected to swell from 47 million tons this fall to 57 million tons next fall.

The 1957 corn crop is estimated at 3,333 million bushels, 3 per cent less than last year, but about 100 million bushels more than will be used and exported. Thus, the carry-over of old corn, which was 1,357 million bushels on October 1, may be around 1,450 million next fall.

The government (CCC) owns about 90 per cent of the old corn. Such large stocks virtually dictate continued heavy sales by CCC for both export and domestic use. Large sales will be urged especially by the influential East, where drouth was severe last summer.

MUCH OF THE corn east of the Mississippi river is wet, primarily because it was planted late. West of the river, both corn and sorghum grain are wet because of excessive rain and snow this fall. Muddy fields delayed harvest, and field losses were severe in some areas. Some sales of corn have been reported at prices as low as 35 cents a bushel because of moisture discounts.

Substantial amounts of corn will not be eligible for price support loans because of excessive moisture. An even larger share of the sorghum grain may be too wet to qualify for price support. This is highly important because in recent years growers of sorghum grain have sold more than half of the production to the government through price support loans. Thus it appears that supplies of wet and low quality corn and sorghum grain will be abundant and cheap this winter and next spring.

The price support level for corn produced under acreage allotment is $1.40 this year compared with $1.50 a year ago. The support for non-compliance corn is $1.10 compared with $1.25 last year. Fewer farmers complied with their acreage allotments this year than last.

THE PRICE SUPPORT program for corn is foundering. Stock accumulations are far in excess of expectations, and they will increase further unless weather losses are very heavy. Corn acreage allotments have shrunk to about half of normal acreages, and they will be still smaller in 1958 unless the law is changed. Thus relatively few farmers can profitably comply with their corn allotments. Substitutes for corn are being developed and produced at a very rapid rate.

The demand side of the corn market is no stronger than it was a year ago. Since supplies are much heavier, any major price advance seems to depend on the appearance of some new factor in the market, such as further inflation, some international development or severe drouth next summer. Market supplies of good naturally dried corn in farmers' hands are not excessive. (Fm

Soybean Market Gets Price Boost; Up 6 to 8 Cents

Lower market receipts, delayed harvest in Iowa and Minnesota and stronger soybean oil prices have given the soybean market a steady if not spectacular boost in recent weeks, the University of Illinois grain marketing staff reports. Prices are now 6 to 8 cents a bushel higher than in early November and at about the loan level in most Illinois counties.

This price strength has come in the face of another record crop. The latest government estimate shows a crop of 491 million bushels, 4 million bushels above the forecast in October.

MARKET RECEIPTS of soybeans have declined to about half of what they were in early November. The grain market staff reports some fear that unharvested beans in Iowa and Minnesota may be lost because of bad weather.

The rise in soybean oil price is equivalent to about 2½-3 cents per bushel of soybeans. Partly responsible for this price improvement is wet weather in the cotton belt. Cotton seed oil supplies, which compete with soybean oil, were expected to be about 12 per cent below last year on Nov. 1.

WHETHER SOYBEAN prices can improve further will depend largely on a further rise in soybean oil price and the narrowing of processing margins. Processing margins are now 4 cents a bushel lower than last year. Soybean prices will gain from this source only if processing supplies are short.

The future for soybean oil is more difficult to see because exports are so important. Last year 36 per cent of the total production of soybean and cotton seed oil was sold abroad. Much of it was sold under special export subsidies, especially Public Law 480. At present, allocations for oil under this program are disappointing. (Fm

Aid 4-H Program

Illinois banks have launched a fund-raising program among themselves in support of the Illinois 4-H foundation, says Carl F. Mees, farm adviser.

Drive co-chairmen are Melvin C. Lockard, president of the National Bank of Mattoon, and John H. Crocker, president of the Citizens National Bank of Decatur.

IN A LETTER sent Nov. 15 to all Illinois banks, Lockard and Crocker pointed out that the Illinois 4-H foundation is organized to provide over-all assistance in making local and state 4-H programs stronger. It needs contributed financial help to perform this very important function.

Illinois banks have long recognized the importance of 4-H club work, the co-chairmen said. Most of them have supported the program generously, both financially and with their leadership. However, since most business and industry groups in the state are actively supporting the Illinois 4-H foundation, they believe that the banks of Illinois will welcome this opportunity to broaden their support.

Appeal for funds in the drive is made on a one-time annual basis. The total amount received will be divided between the Illinois 4-H foundation and the National 4-H foundation, which helps 4-H club work both nationally and internationally.

IN ITS WORK the Illinois 4-H foundation helps to develop citizenship and world understanding by financial support of the International Farm Youth Exchange program, encourages leadership training and provides scholarships and other recognition for outstanding 4-H achievement records. Contributed funds may be sent to the executive secretary, O. F. Gaebe, 412 Mumford Hall, Urbana.

We hope that our local bank in Cook County will support this fine young people's organization, says Mees. (Fm

Escrow Aids Buyers, Sellers Against Unforseen Events

Real property transactions often involve use of "escrows." An escrow is a deed or other document deposited with a third person to be delivered upon the happening of an event. The deed or other instrument itself imposes the obligations with regard to the happening of the event and the eventual delivery of the instrument. The third person serving as a depositary is called the escrow agent.

ESCROWS ARE used most commonly in the purchase of real estate. After the seller and buyer have entered into a contract for sale and the buyer has made a deposit on the purchase price, some time elapses before the transaction is closed by payment of the full price and transfer of title. This time is needed to bring the abstract to date, to have it examined for defects and to have these defects corrected. Also time may elapse while the buyer secures a loan to cover the purchase price. During this time several things —like death, marriage or divorce of the seller — can occur that may adversely affect the transaction and make it difficult, if not impossible, to complete.

By using an escrow, the parties protect themselves against happenings that could affect the title and completion of the deal. This is especially true from the standpoint of the buyer.

BASICALLY, escrow works in this way: The seller deposits his evidence of title and the deed and other documents with the escrow agent. The buyer deposits the purchase money and a quitclaim deed. The escrow agent may record the deed from the seller to the buyer immediately — allowing the buyer to secure a purchase money mortgage — or he may wait. In either case, when the terms of the escrow agreement indicate that all conditions have been met, the buyer receives the deed and other documents and the seller gets the purchase money. If the transaction fails, the escrow agent records the buyer's quitclaim deed and returns the deposits to both parties.

The escrow agent should be carefully selected because the position is one of trust and responsibility. The escrow agreement should also be carefully drafted in order to give both parties all of the protection that the escrow affords. (Fm

Country Cousins Plan Yule Party

When Country Cousins 4-H met in Wilson school November 26 a committee was named to make plans for a Christmas party. Ruth Ann Stine, Linda Poulos and Marilyn Yadon are members of the committee.

It was decided that no new members would be admitted to the club after the first meeting in January. Project books were given members and Alice Simmonds and Pat Schanmier presented the right and wrong ways to give a good demonstration.

Lists Activities

Members of Clever Clover 4-H club enjoyed a Halloween party November 2 in the home of Darlene Yahnke.

Regular meeting of the group was held November 4 in the home of Mrs. Henke. A committee was picked for tours and the group's Christmas party. Darlene Yahnke Betsy Schulte and Dawn Bozee gave demonstrations. (4-H

FFA Place Third In Parliamentary Procedure Contest

Arlington Heights Future Farmers of America placed third in the section 6 parliamentary procedure contest held November 14 at Sycamore. The team consisted of Don Ahmer, chairman; Roy Klehn, secretary; Tom Sullivan, Marks Franciskovich and Harold Wiedner, floor group.

Roy Klehm received a medal for first in the second division and Don Shmer took fourth among the chairmen. The floor group took first. Arlington was only 4 points behind the first place team and one point behind the second place team. (4-H

When feeding bred sows and gilts, remember to provide enough protein. Not enough protein will cause small, weak pigs at farrowing and will increase death rates.

These facts are from W. F. Nickelson, extension livestock specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Nickelson reports that researchers have studied how different levels of protein in a gilt's gestation ration affect litter size and strength of the pigs. Two levels of protein were fed in the trial — 10.7 and 14.3 per cent.

Results showed the same number of pigs farrowed on the 2 levels of protein. Only 77.2 per cent of the pigs from gilts fed low protein levels lived 21 days. On the other hand, 92.2 per cent of pigs from gilts fed higher protein levels lived to 21 days.

This work shows that feeding low protein rations to gilts during gestation causes them to farrow weak pigs that are less resistant to diseases. The result is higher death losses.

Remember that bred gilts are still growing and therefore need more protein than mature bred sows. (Fm

Down on the Farm with Your Farm Adviser
CARL F. MEES

How much land can one man farm? The average tenant farmer in the Farm Bureau farm management service operating under a crop-share lease on very good land in 1956 farmed 200 acres of tillable land with a total input of only 12.7 months of labor. On this land he had 122 acres in corn and soybeans, 45 acres in small grains and 33 acres in rotation hay and pasture. In addition, he had an average of 111 hens, 17 animal units of cattle and 17 litters of pigs. Landlords who own less than 200 acres of good land should either allow their tenants to rent additional land or provide opportunities for extra livestock to utilize the tenant's available labor.

AVERAGE COST of producing corn was 72 cents a bushel for a 100-bushel yield in 1956 on northern Illinois farms. On these same farms, a 78-bushel yield in 1955 cost 91 cents a bushel to produce.

The seasonal price peak for soybeans computed from prices received by Illinois farmers from 1947 through 1956 is normally reached in April or May.

DID YOU KNOW that on a given span a 2 by 8 is almost twice as strong as a 2 by 6 and a 2 by 10 is nearly three times as strong as a 2 by 6.

PROVIDE PLENTY of clean, ice-free water for livestock in the winter. Automatic waterers and water heaters will decrease labor and increase livestock gains.

WHEN, WHERE and how do accidents happen? They occur all through the year — about the same number each month. Wednesday and Saturday are the most hazardous days of the week, and from 2 to 4 p.m. is the most dangerous part of the day. Most farm accidents occur in the fields, farmyard and barns. Farm machinery is involved in 40 per cent of the accidents. Tricycle tractors are about twice as dangerous as the four-wheel type. Animal chores, construction and repairs are the jobs that farmers are most often doing when accidents occur.

LEPTOSPIROSIS is a disease that is responsible for considerable losses in swine, cattle and sheep in the United States. The losses result from reduction in gains, reduced milk production and abortions. Many cases of leptospirosis have been traced to a leptospirosis-polluted stream.

Feed Grain Price Support Program Is 'Badly Bent'

The feed grain situation is pretty well mixed up this year. The general conditions have been known for some time, but additional details were brought out at the National Agricultural Outlook Conference held recently in Washington.

Four features stand out: (1) The supply of feed grains is considerably greater than the record supply of a year ago. (2) Much of the corn and sorghum grain is so wet that harvesting and storage are difficult. (3) The price support level is lower than in any other year since World War II. (4) The price-support production-control program seems to be breaking down.

THE TOTAL SUPPLY of feed grains — corn, oats, barley and sorghum grain — is estimated at 187 million tons, or 44 per cent more than will be used and exported in the present marketing year. Carry-over of feed grains, made up mostly of corn, is expected to swell from 47 million tons this fall to 57 million tons next fall.

The 1957 corn crop is estimated at 3,333 million bushels, 3 per cent less than last year, but about 100 million bushels more than will be used and exported. Thus, the carry-over of old corn, which was 1,357 million bushels on October 1, may be around 1,450 million next fall.

The government (CCC) owns about 90 per cent of the old corn. Such large stocks virtually dictate continued heavy sales by CCC for both export and domestic use. Large sales will be urged especially by the influential East, where drouth was severe last summer.

MUCH OF THE corn east of the Mississippi river is wet, primarily because it was planted late. West of the river, both corn and sorghum grain are wet because of excessive rain and snow this fall. Muddy fields delayed harvest, and field losses were severe in some areas. Some sales of corn have been reported at prices as low as 35 cents a bushel because of moisture discounts.

Substantial amounts of corn will not be eligible for price support loans because of excessive moisture. An even larger share of the sorghum grain may be too wet to qualify for price support. This is highly important because in recent years growers of sorghum grain have sold more than half of the production to the government through price support loans. Thus it appears that supplies of wet and low quality corn and sorghum grain will be abundant and cheap this winter and next spring.

The price support level for corn produced under acreage allotment is $1.40 this year compared with $1.50 a year ago. The support for non-compliance corn is $1.10 compared with $1.25 last year. Fewer farmers complied with their acreage allotments this year than last.

THE PRICE SUPPORT program for corn is foundering. Stock accumulations are far in excess of expectations, and they will increase further unless weather losses are very heavy. Corn acreage allotments have shrunk to about half of normal acreages, and they will be still smaller in 1958 unless the law is changed. Thus relatively few farmers can profitably comply with their corn allotments. Substitutes for corn are being developed and produced at a very rapid rate.

The demand side of the corn market is no stronger than it was a year ago. Since supplies are much heavier, any major price advance seems to depend on the appearance of some new factor in the market, such as further inflation, some international development or severe drouth next summer. Market supplies of good naturally dried corn in farmers' hands are not excessive. (Fm

Soybean Market Gets Price Boost; Up 6 to 8 Cents

Lower market receipts, delayed harvest in Iowa and Minnesota and stronger soybean oil prices have given the soybean market a steady if not spectacular boost in recent weeks, the University of Illinois grain marketing staff reports. Prices are now 6 to 8 cents a bushel higher than in early November and at about the loan level in most Illinois counties.

This price strength has come in the face of another record crop. The latest government estimate shows a crop of 491 million bushels, 4 million bushels above the forecast in October.

MARKET RECEIPTS of soybeans have declined to about half of what they were in early November. The grain market staff reports some fear that unharvested beans in Iowa and Minnesota may be lost because of bad weather.

The rise in soybean oil price is equivalent to about 2½-3 cents per bushel of soybeans. Partly responsible for this price improvement is wet weather in the cotton belt. Cotton seed oil supplies, which compete with soybean oil, were expected to be about 12 per cent below last year on Nov. 1.

WHETHER SOYBEAN prices can improve further will depend largely on a further rise in soybean oil price and the narrowing of processing margins. Processing margins are now 4 cents a bushel lower than last year. Soybean prices will gain from this source only if processing supplies are short.

The future for soybean oil is more difficult to see because exports are so important. Last year 36 per cent of the total production of soybean and cotton seed oil was sold abroad. Much of it was sold under special export subsidies, especially Public Law 480. At present, allocations for oil under this program are disappointing. (Fm

Aid 4-H Program

Illinois banks have launched a fund-raising program among themselves in support of the Illinois 4-H foundation, says Carl F. Mees, farm adviser.

Drive co-chairmen are Melvin C. Lockard, president of the National Bank of Mattoon, and John H. Crocker, president of the Citizens National Bank of Decatur.

IN A LETTER sent Nov. 15 to all Illinois banks, Lockard and Crocker pointed out that the Illinois 4-H foundation is organized to provide over-all assistance in making local and state 4-H programs stronger. It needs contributed financial help to perform this very important function.

Illinois banks have long recognized the importance of 4-H club work, the co-chairmen said. Most of them have supported the program generously, both financially and with their leadership. However, since most business and industry groups in the state are actively supporting the Illinois 4-H foundation, they believe that the banks of Illinois will welcome this opportunity to broaden their support.

Appeal for funds in the drive is made on a one-time annual basis. The total amount received will be divided between the Illinois 4-H foundation and the National 4-H foundation, which helps 4-H club work both nationally and internationally.

IN ITS WORK the Illinois 4-H foundation helps to develop citizenship and world understanding by financial support of the International Farm Youth Exchange program, encourages leadership training and provides scholarships and other recognition for outstanding 4-H achievement records. Contributed funds may be sent to the executive secretary, O. F. Gaebe, 412 Mumford Hall, Urbana.

We hope that our local bank in Cook County will support this fine young people's organization, says Mees. (Fm

Escrow Aids Buyers, Sellers Against Unforseen Events

Real property transactions often involve use of "escrows." An escrow is a deed or other document deposited with a third person to be delivered upon the happening of an event. The deed or other instrument itself imposes the obligations with regard to the happening of the event and the eventual delivery of the instrument. The third person serving as a depositary is called the escrow agent.

ESCROWS ARE used most commonly in the purchase of real estate. After the seller and buyer have entered into a contract for sale and the buyer has made a deposit on the purchase price, some time elapses before the transaction is closed by payment of the full price and transfer of title. This time is needed to bring the abstract to date, to have it examined for defects and to have these defects corrected. Also time may elapse while the buyer secures a loan to cover the purchase price. During this time several things —like death, marriage or divorce of the seller — can occur that may adversely affect the transaction and make it difficult, if not impossible, to complete.

By using an escrow, the parties protect themselves against happenings that could affect the title and completion of the deal. This is especially true from the standpoint of the buyer.

BASICALLY, escrow works in this way: The seller deposits his evidence of title and the deed and other documents with the escrow agent. The buyer deposits the purchase money and a quitclaim deed. The escrow agent may record the deed from the seller to the buyer immediately — allowing the buyer to secure a purchase money mortgage — or he may wait. In either case, when the terms of the escrow agreement indicate that all conditions have been met, the buyer receives the deed and other documents and the seller gets the purchase money. If the transaction fails, the escrow agent records the buyer's quitclaim deed and returns the deposits to both parties.

The escrow agent should be carefully selected because the position is one of trust and responsibility. The escrow agreement should also be carefully drafted in order to give both parties all of the protection that the escrow affords. (Fm

4H CLUB

Home Bureau Meeting to Begin With Yule Party

Next meeting of Wheeling unit of Cook County Home Bureau will be held Thursday, Dec. 12, at the Farm Bureau building, N. Dunton avenue, Arlington Heights.

The meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. with the lesson, "Making the most of your storage space," given by Mrs. Frank Henry and Mrs. Albin Pukszta.

A Christmas party will start at noon with a "salad bar" luncheon. Mrs. Frank Henry is in charge of entertainment and decorations, with a committee of Mrs. V. Bedingfield, Mrs. C. E. Hill and Mrs. L. F. Poduska. Mrs. Frank Fabian is chairman of the luncheon, with board members assisting. All members are preparing the salads and refreshments. (4-H

Country Cousins Plan Yule Party

When Country Cousins 4-H met in Wilson school November 26 a committee was named to make plans for a Christmas party. Ruth Ann Stine, Linda Poulos and Marilyn Yadon are members of the committee.

It was decided that no new members would be admitted to the club after the first meeting in January. Project books were given members and Alice Simmonds and Pat Schanmier presented the right and wrong ways to give a good demonstration.

Lists Activities

Members of Clever Clover 4-H club enjoyed a Halloween party November 2 in the home of Darlene Yahnke.

Regular meeting of the group was held November 4 in the home of Mrs. Henke. A committee was picked for tours and the group's Christmas party. Darlene Yahnke Betsy Schulte and Dawn Bozee gave demonstrations. (4-H

FFA Place Third In Parliamentary Procedure Contest

Arlington Heights Future Farmers of America placed third in the section 6 parliamentary procedure contest held November 14 at Sycamore. The team consisted of Don Ahmer, chairman; Roy Klehn, secretary; Tom Sullivan, Marks Franciskovich and Harold Wiedner, floor group.

Roy Klehm received a medal for first in the second division and Don Shmer took fourth among the chairmen. The floor group took first. Arlington was only 4 points behind the first place team and one point behind the second place team. (4-H

In Appreciation

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors of Westgate, Arlington and Rolling Meadows for their bountiful spirit during the Thanksgiving holiday. God bless you all and good health to each and every one of you always. Gratefully yours,

Don and Kay Scherrer

CARD OF THANKS

A thank-you from the family of Arnold Teed Sr. for the many expressions of sympathy which were received from friends and relatives after Arnold Teed Sr's recent death.

IN APPRECIATION

We wish to thank everyone who was so kind, thoughtful and helpful during our recent bereavement, especially to Rev. G. G. Gumm and to Dr. C. A. Starck for their many cheerful services.

The family of the late

1958 Licenses Now for Sale

Mailing of 1958 motor vehicle license plates and over-the-counter sale of plates in Chicago Chicago and Springfield began and Springfield began Monday.

Because limited storage space does not permit a large inventory of plates at a time, plates will be mailed in numerical order until the majority of them have been sent, Charles F. Carpentier, secretary of state, said.

DEADLINE FOR displaying 1958 plates will be no later than February 15, Secretary Carpentier said, adding that this means mail applications should be in the Springfield office February 1 for motorists to be sure their plates will reach them in time for the deadline.

"This gives motorists 60 days in which to take care of the required registration of their cars, which should surely be sufficient time to avoid any delinquency," Mr. Carpentier said.

THE CHICAGO office of the automobile division is located at 334 S. Ashland boulevard.

Hours will be from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays and from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturdays.

In Appreciation

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors of Westgate, Arlington and Rolling Meadows for their bountiful spirit during the Thanksgiving holiday. God bless you all and good health to each and every one of you always. Gratefully yours,

Don and Kay Scherrer

CARD OF THANKS

A thank-you from the family of Arnold Teed Sr. for the many expressions of sympathy which were received from friends and relatives after Arnold Teed Sr's recent death.

IN APPRECIATION

We wish to thank everyone who was so kind, thoughtful and helpful during our recent bereavement, especially to Rev. G. G. Gumm and to Dr. C. A. Starck for their many cheerful services.

The family of the late

1958 Licenses Now for Sale

Mailing of 1958 motor vehicle license plates and over-the-counter sale of plates in Chicago Chicago and Springfield began and Springfield began Monday.

Because limited storage space does not permit a large inventory of plates at a time, plates will be mailed in numerical order until the majority of them have been sent, Charles F. Carpentier, secretary of state, said.

DEADLINE FOR displaying 1958 plates will be no later than February 15, Secretary Carpentier said, adding that this means mail applications should be in the Springfield office February 1 for motorists to be sure their plates will reach them in time for the deadline.

"This gives motorists 60 days in which to take care of the required registration of their cars, which should surely be sufficient time to avoid any delinquency," Mr. Carpentier said.

THE CHICAGO office of the automobile division is located at 334 S. Ashland boulevard.

Hours will be from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays and from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturdays.

With the holidays right around the corner, now is the time to make sure that your pantry is well stocked for all of the extra holiday guests that might be dropping in, and the Jewel Food store is the place to select all of the food items you need.

If baking for Christmas is a tradition for the lady of the house in your family, then make sure that she visits the Jewel Food store to select all of her baking ingredients. Not only will she get the best quality, but she will find that she will save countless pennies on every item she purchases.

The Jewel food store stands behind every purchase that is made in its store with the Jewel Guarantee. The people of Jewel are so eager to please their customers that they will gladly refund the full purchase price to any customer if she is not satisfied with an item that she selected at Jewel. For fine products, top service, and low prices—be sure to shop Jewel.

THE DIETZ VILLAGE Bakery is busy getting all of their Christmas "goodies" ready for the holidays. With the skill of the bakers that prepare the baked goods that come out of the Dietz there is no need for Mom to spend countless hours baking cakes and cookies for the holidays. All she needs to do is run down to the Dietz Village Bakery and take her pick of all of their wares.

For the holidays the Village Bakery is baking delicious fruit cakes, and the usual stollen, which are German coffee cakes. They also have a large assortment of cookies of all types and descriptions that are perfect for holiday snacks. For the youngsters, a ginger bread house will not only be a handsome decoration, but it will be a delightful dessert.

For all of your holiday baked goods, be sure to visit the Dietz Village Bakery in the Prospect Heights shopping center.
